NEWS FROM THE COUNTY.

Centreville.

Isaac Cronkrite of Royalton has been under medical treatment for some time, and we regret to say that he is not improving as fast as his friends would wish.

Richard Reed of Centreville is also on the sick list, having been confined to the house for about four weeks.

John Gilland who had his leg broken some four weeks ago is now on the road to recovery and will gladly exchange the bedroom and the cot for the outside air and sunshine.

Rev. Mr. Daggett is now occupying the Tracy Mills Parsonage and is making the usual preparations for winter.

Bethel Lodge of Rebekah's recently organized here bids fair to rank. Among the most important Lodges of the province as upwards of ninety persons have already signified their desire to become members and the Lodge is not yet three weeks old.

Mr. Baldwin has given the School Board notice that it is his intention to terminate his contract with them at the close of the present term which ends on the seventeenth Dec. Parents and pupils alike regret this decision on the part of Mr. Baldwin. With the beginning of the next term the teachers will have one of the best school buildings in the province to commence work in.

The annual business meeting of the Bloomfield Baptist church, was held on the evening of Nov. 4th. The different branches of church work was reported in good condition under the practical care of Rev. R. W. Ferguson.

The election of officers resulted as follows: Deacon, Wm. London; clerk, Willard Gray; treasurer, J. I. Burke; trustees, Odbur Young, Wm. London and Arthur Wasson.

Owing to the recent death of one of the deacons of the Centreville Baptist church, J. W. Webb, and the removal of another, E. S. Branscombe, to Saco, Me., it has been decided to elect two new deacons here.

The storm on Wednesday night prevented many from coming. The election has, however, been postponed.

On Saturday last Wm. Ross, of Monticello Me. and Miss Violet McNinch, of Bridge water, Me., were married at the Baptist parsonage here by Rev. R. W. Ferguson.

Very notable to the eye of the stranger approaching the village, is the new $7000 schoolhouse, which is nearing outside completion. The building reflects great credit on the architect who planned its graceful, noble proportions and the village which decided on so handsome and complete an educational structure.

A pretty home wedding was that at Royalton on Wednesday evening last, when Miss Geneva Simonds, daughter of Chas. A. Simonds, of Royalton, was married to Ruel Barret, by Rev. J. B. Daggett, in the presence of about sixty-five guests. Miss Jessie Waugh, of East Florenceville, was bridesmaid, and Chas. Simonson, of Bridgewater, supported the groom. Miss Belle Peterson, of Royalton, played the wedding march. The presents were numerous, beautiful and costly and included $100 in gold from the bride's father.

The store recently occupied by White & Tweedie will be re-opened in a short time by F. D. Tweedie.

Debec.

A prominent potato grower of Aroostook Co., Me., was in New York recently and states that Aroostook Co. potatoes will be bought very carefully all this season as shipments that appear all right when shipped show more or less signs of rot by the time they are delivered.

Unfortunately Carleton Co. has suffered in somewhat the same way as has Aroostook with regard to the potato blight, but the reports from the latest shipments of the tubers are more encouraging and would indicate that for the remainder of the season that the potato business would be more profitable.

Henry Burns Hemphill, who resides a few miles from this village, has, we believe, the record crop of sound potatoes in the county. From a ten acre field of potatoes on which he planted something more than forty barrels, he harvested one thousand two hundred barrels of sound tubers. While there are many farmers who had as great or greater acreages in potatoes, there are few with so grand a yield, and considering existing conditions in this county this is remarkable.

Reports from the upper waters of the St. John are to the effect that there are extensive lumbering operations being carried on there. A council of Chosen Friends was organized at Benton under the management of Viola Edna Giberson as organizer.

Many of the farmers who reside at Emwood, a few miles distant from this village have suffered severe losses owing to the ravages of dogs among their sheep.

At the regular prayer service held in Mr. Hanon's hall, Tuesday evening, Nov. 2, Rev. E. Ramzy, Methodist pastor, treated his hearers to some excellent sacred selections on the phonograph.

Florenceville.

Through the kindness of Mrs. Thos. Parice, Mrs. Walter Parker, who left here on Monday, Nov. 1st, was met at St. Stephen's station by the matron of Chipman hospital. Since then Mrs. Parker underwent an operation for appendicitis, specially critical because of complications that had set in. The condition after the operation of the patient was at first favourable, but a later report is not so encouraging.

Thomas Caldwell and son, Paul, are ill with the severe sore throat that appears to be in a measure epidemic.

John Clarke's little daughter has diphtheria. G. F. Turner and family, accompanied by Mrs. Gatchell, leave to day for Connell.

Miss Eva Gillespie died on Tuesday night, Nov. 2nd, of typhoid fever, and was buried on Wednesday p. m. There was something pathetically beautiful as a testimony to childhood sympathy in the sighs of little children in the procession walking through the rain to the grave.

the past week, attending a conference of the ministers in this District regarding the work of the Methodist church in this county. Mr. Turner read a splendid paper upon the minister's duty from Monday morning to Saturday night. This was one of the best features of the convention.

Ernest Esty is at home for the winter.

Messrs Hannah Burpee and Garity have returned from a hunting trip. They report no game owing to wet weather.

Kirkland.

The roads are in a very muddy condition, not any snow worth speaking about.

Mrs. Charles Carter is visiting her daughter Mrs. Wm. Jephia in Lawrence, Mass.

Mary Edgar has taken a trip to Bangor Maine.

Mr. C. McGillicuddy and crew are doing their threshing on the Hilley farm.

A terrible shooting affair happened Sunday night Oct. 31st. or before daybreak Monday Nov. 1st., when John Friel a prominent farmer was shot through the hip. It appears they must have been facing each other. The bullet shattered the bones and came out almost opposite where it entered. The affair happened in Amity, Maine, just a few yards over the boundary line. This affair happened about 2 1/2 miles from where I live. The young men stole two turkeys and were cooking them. Rum has always been sold at the house where it took place. Four doctors came from Houlton, a woman writer and other officers. They dissected the remains and decided the bullet caused death. There had been a bitter feeling between Mr. Friel and his nephew Charles Friel jr., who did the shooting, while he was partly intoxicated; the young man tried at two farm houses before he could borrow a rifle. A number of persons have been arrested and taken to Houlton. John Friel the victim of the shooting only lived about two days and a half. An inquest was held over the remains. Eight young children are left orphans, their mother died suddenly a few years since.

Mrs. R. H. Collase, of Quebec, is coming down to Houlton to dispose of land in N. B., Parish of North Lake, formerly known as the Shaw land, also the land on the Magalloway and a few building lots at the St. Croix.

Parties wishing to buy apply to J. H. Ivey, agent, Houlton, Maine.

Called to Ontario.

The Presbytery of Miramichi met last week to consider calls recently extended to Rev. A. D. Fraser, of Blackville, who has been invited by the congregations of Lorneville (St. John County) and Glassville, N. B., and Midland, Ontario. Permission was given Mr. Fraser, and he has accepted the Midland call.

New Fashion.

(London Chronicle.)

The arrival in London of a new fashion in moustache, which, becoming beautifully less, tends to disappear, reminds us of the strong opinion of the practice of shaving "clean" held by the late Sir Richard Burton. That extremely masculine man declared that men who dispensed with hair on the face were degenerates and that those periods of history in which clean shaving was the general fashion had extreme luxury, effeminacy and decay. It will be remembered that Sir Richard's own moustache was remarkably vigorous and "spiky."

Some Wise Observations.

November Smart Set.

"Money is the root of all evil," and grafting doesn't improve the fruit.

The real hero is he who can bear his own troubles as stoically as he does those of his friends.

The social, like the musical, scale begins and ends with "dough."

It is not the song of the siren that does the harm but the ears that hear it.

If a man were not vain the power of woman would cease.

"Sick Man's Friend"

That's the Name Given by Thousands to the Old Family Standard, "Nerviline."

1,000,000 Bottles Used Annually

No better known or more popular family remedy has ever been compounded than "Nerviline." During the past half century its success has been phenomenal—due to the fact that it always cures.

"No one could get me to go to bed at night unless I was sure we had Nerviline in the house," writes Mrs. R. L. Weightman, of Bolton P.O. "Six years ago my husband was taken badly with rheumatism, which affected his right arm and shoulder. It was so sore and stiff as to be almost helpless for four years. I read of the cure of James E. Everett, and felt sure that when Nerviline cured a case like his, it would cure my husband. I got a dollar's worth of Nerviline, five bottles, in Buffalo, and am pleased to write you that the fourth bottle cured. We have since used Nerviline for Lumbago, Neuralgia, Colds, Chest Tightness, and other minor ailments in the family, and found 'Nerviline' to be the 'Sick Man's Friend.'"

No other remedy is so useful in the home, so universally employed to alleviate pain and curing the sick. Refuse anything offered you instead of Nerviline, which is sold: Large 25c bottles or five for $1.00. By all dealers, or The Catarthzone Company, Kingston, Ont.

And Figures Don't Lie.

Johnny came home the other night in high glee wearing the arithmetic medal. What is that for?" asked his mother.

That's the prize for doing examples," said Johnny. "I did this one: 'If our new baby weighs eleven and a half pounds, and gains an ounce each day'—'cause you told Mrs. Smith she did yesterday—'how much will she weigh when she's twenty years old? And the answer was, four hundred and sixty-six pounds. And the teacher said I earned the prize.'—The Christian Advocate.

How Does He Keep His Job.

"Does young Gayfeather amount to much?"

"No, not much."

"You don't think then, that he is of great importance in the firm with which he is connected?"

"Not a great deal. In fact, I should say he amounts to about as much and is about as important as the holes in a chunk of Swiss cheese." Chicago Record-Herald.
