Methodist Conference.

The sessions of the Methodist Conference have come to an end and the ministers have departed for their homes. The sessions were well attended by both ministers and laymen and much important business was transacted. We are sorry that we have not space to devote to a complete report of the proceedings of the conference. The following is the station sheet for the Woodstock district, which includes parishes in Victoria and York Counties

WOODSTOCK DISTRICT.

Woodstock, R. W. Weddall, B. A.
Canterbury, T. F. Bertram
Jacksonville, Edwin C. Turner
Hartland, G. Nelson Somers
Richmond, Edmund R. Ramsay
Centreville, Geo. Ayers
Florenceville, Thos. Pierce
Lindsay, R. G. Warman
Andover, John A. Ives; one to be sent

Laymen were appointed for the Woodstock District as follows:—J. T. G. Carr, Hartland; A. G. Kyle, G. W. White, Woodstock; John Watters, Centreville; C. L. Smith Woodstock.

Rev. Dr. Sprague moved the following resolution: On the eve of the departure of the Rev. R. G. Fulton, who has been transferred to the British Columbia conference, this conference, with which he has been connected for fourteen years, from the time of his entrance into the ministry, expresses its sincere regret on account of the severance of the relation so long and happily existing. Its appreciation of the superior ability and untiring energy which Brother Fulton has devoted to his work as a minister of the Methodist church and its best wishes for his happiness and success and the welfare of his family in his western field.

The Rev. R. W. Weddall, who comes to Woodstock from the Nova Scotia conference, is not a stranger to the people of this town, having occupied the pulpit of the old Methodist Church on several occasions. He is considered one of the most able speakers of the Methodist denomination in the Maritime Provinces.

Attempted Suicide of Woodstock Man.

Joseph Oldham, of Woodstock, N. B., while insane attempted suicide Wednesday morning, June 16, at the home of his brother-in-law, A. J. Way, Lewiston, Me. Mr. Oldham cut his throat with a razor with which he was shaving about 8.30 o'clock. Mr. Oldham who was on a visit, has shown signs of insanity for several days, relatives say. They wished him taken to Augusta Tuesday, so Dr. W. H. Hawkins went with the man to the hospital. Mr. Oldham could not be received, as no hearing had been held in Lewiston, according to the law's requirement. Dr. Hawkins therefore was obliged to take the man back to Lewiston, Me. Oldham was removed to the Central Maine General Hospital where it is said he will recover.—St. John Globe.

ANXIOUS MOMENTS

FOR YOUNG MOTHERS

The hot weather months are an anxious time for all mothers, but particularly for young mothers. They are the most fatal time of the year for babies and young children, because of the great prevalence of stomach and bowel troubles. These come almost without warning and often before the mother realizes that there is danger the little one may be beyond aid. No other medicine can equal Baby's Own Tablets in promptly curing bowel and stomach troubles and an occasional dose given the well child will keep the stomach and bowels free from offending matter and ensure good health to the child. Therefore the Tablets should always be kept in the home as they may be the means of saving a little life. Sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Picnic Season.

On Monday, July 5th, a grand picnic with all lawful amusements will be held on the Catholic Church ground at Debec Junction when our neighbours to the south will celebrate the glorious 4th. Dinners and suppers at moderate rates. Four trains a day will bring patrons to the grounds and take them away. No need to walk one hundred yards. Then you will see old friends that you have not seen for years. You have thought them dead. You will find them quite alive. How happy the meeting! All are welcome. Father Murphy, the Pastor will look after the interests of all. The best music in attendance.

Werren--Bull.

A very quiet wedding was solemnized in Trinity Church, Sussex, on Tuesday afternoon, June 15th at five o'clock, when Miss Helen Elizabeth Bull, of Woodstock, was married to Mr. Horace Hatch Werren, of Cambridge, Mass., which was performed by Rev. Canon Neales, brother-in-law of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Werren left the same night for Lowell, Mass., where the summer will be spent at the groom's summer home. The winter will be spent in the south. The bride, who is well known here, has always taken a deep interest in the Girls' Guild of Trinity church and the members presented her with a beautiful piece of cut glass as a slight token of their esteem. Many beautiful presents were received from a wide circle of friends.

Those who attended the wedding from outside were: Mr. and Mrs. George Clark, Master Jeffrey and Miss Doris Clark, Monton; Mr. and Mrs. Willard L. Carr and Master Douglas Carr, Woodstock; and Mrs. Geo. Beckwith and son Dick, Boston. They were guests of Mrs. Scovil Neales at the Rectory.—Sussex Record.

Grant-McCready.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. George Everett of Kilburn was the scene of an interesting event on Tuesday June 15th at 12.30 when their daughter, Grace M. Grant and Cyrus D. McCready of Bangor were united in marriage by Rev. Mr. Wentworth. The bride was given away by her brother Harry Grant, Helen Atherton and Madeline Grant acted as flower girls.

The house was beautifully decorated with evergreens and potted plants.

The bridal couple stood on the front piazza amid a bower of green as the officiating clergyman read the impressive service and pronounced them man and wife. The bride wore d'esprit over white silk taffeta with veil and orange blossoms. A large number of relatives and friends witnessed the ceremony. A lunch was served after which the happy couple boarded the train bound for Quebec and Montreal. The usual rice throwing was indulged in at the train. The bride was the recipient of a large number of beautiful and useful presents also a goodly sum in cash.

'Marr-Carr.

The marriage took place, of Rev. H. H. Marr to Miss Jessie B. Carr, at Canterbury Station, Car. Co., June 16th.

A few near relatives of the bride gathered at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Carr, to witness the ceremony. The rooms were beautifully decorated, and at the close of ceremony the guests sat down to a dainty wedding breakfast. The happy couple took the morning train for Smyrna Mills, Maine, where Mr. Marr is pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church at that place. Rev. H. Harrison of Debec tied the knot.

Shaw-Patterson.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized Wednesday 16th inst at 3 o'clock p.m. at the home of the bride's parents, Mr and Mrs Alwyn Patterson, Temple, York Co. when their eldest daughter, Mable J was married to Percy M Shaw, third son of Mr and Mrs Jonathan Shaw of the same place. Rev A. A Rutledge of Temperance Vale, N B was the officiating clergyman and the ceremony took place in the presence of about eighty relatives and friends of the contracting parties.

The bride's sister, Miss Ella M. Patterson, was bridesmaid with Miss Mabel Shaw, sister of the groom, flower girl, while the groom was attended by Ernest Dow. The wedding march was played by Miss Tressa Dow.

After the ceremony a wedding supper was served, the dining-rooms being very prettily decorated in pink and white for the occasion. In the evening a large party of young people gathered and gave the newly married couple a serenade with hearty expressions of good will.
