CLAUDE M. AUGERTON has been appointed vendor of law stamps at Woodstock.

THE Merritt place, so called, one of the notorious resorts on the Woodstock road, was burned to the ground, Tuesday night.—Houlton Pioneer.

AFTER July 1st Gibson & Ross, change their business to Strictly Cash, which will be a benefit to the public as well as to themselves.

MRS. EDWARD LINDOW and family wish to thank all their friends, who helped them in every way during their sad bereavement, and all those who sent flowers.

THE marriage of Henry A. Hemphill of Woodstock N. B., and Miss Lillie Voigt took place last week at the M. E. parsonage, Rev. A. H. Hanscom officiating.—Houlton Times.

JOHN G. CHRISTIE, manager of the Royal Bank of Canada at Edmundston, has been assigned to the management of the new branch of the bank to be opened at Campbellton.

IF it is a question of price—then, all things considered, "Salada" is the greatest tea value for the money paid, for experience has proven that "Salada" (packed in air-tight lead packets) is tea excellence.

CHARLES ARMSTRONG, of Fort Fairfield, has purchased from Donald Matheson, the black Dufferin stallion. The horse was shipped to Fort Fairfield on Monday, June 7th. He is two years old and gives promise of speed in the future.

FOR SALE: Ice-cream and candy at a school picnic on the school grounds at Jacksonville, Tuesday, June 29th. Everybody come and bring your baskets, or twenty-five cents for your supper. During the evening the school prizes will be presented.

A SCHOOL picnic will be held at Woodstock Road Station on Friday afternoon, June 25, to which all are cordially invited. Should the weather prove unfavorable it will be held the following Monday. Refreshments will be sold on the grounds.

ETHEL, wife of Harry Turner, died at her home in Clark Settlement, on Saturday. Mrs. Turner was in her 45th year and leaves a husband and six children, the youngest an infant. The funeral took place on Monday in Southampton. The Rev. Mr. Rutledge officiating.

MR. CHAPMAN of Woodstock, who is to build the new C. P. R. wharf, arrived in town with his crew on Monday and will begin work at once. The new wharf will be built on the site of the old one, and may extend out a little farther. It will be sixty feet wide, and will be built of piling, thoroughly braced. A steam pile-driver will be employed.—St. Andrews Beacon.

THE horse owned by C. I. Churchill, attached to a wagon containing Mrs. Churchill and her sister, became frightened at something on Connell street, Wednesday night and ran away. Mrs. Churchill guided the horse down Main street and over Broadway but was not able to control its speed. The horse continued to run until it reached the Houlton road when it fell dead. It was supposed that in running the hill the over exertion caused its death.

PERRY B. PERKINS, formerly of Centreville, will deliver a lecture—a full explanation of Wireless telegraphy in Sherwood's opera house, Centreville, Friday evening. Admission 25 and 15 cents. The people are anxiously looking forward to this event, as it is not every day they have an electrical engineer to explain this mysterious, positive and powerful system of news. Mr. Perkins should be authority on this subject, as he is in charge of the department of Electrical Engineering, at Trinity College, Hartford, Conn.

THE locker rooms in connection with the golf club house were broken into on Thursday evening last and a number of golf clubs stolen. The names of several boys, who have been seen loitering in the vicinity of the club house lately, have been given to Marshall Kelly and he has started in to investigate the matter. If the stolen property is not returned forthwith, the guilty parties will get a term in the penitentiary. This is not the first occasion this summer that the boys have broken into the clubhouse.

MR. AND MRS. EDWARD BLAIR of Boston, Mass., arrived Thursday June 10th with the body of their second child, Arthur, aged one year, seven months. Whooping-cough was the cause of death. The funeral was conducted by Rev. J. Foster from the Prim. Baptist Church on the 11th inst. 2 p. m. where a large number of friends and relatives joined in sympathy with the young parents in the loss of a bright and lovable child. The floral tributes were numerous and beautiful.

THOMAS BLAINE of this city, traveller for the Canadian Drug Co., of St. John, will be married in Boston this week to Miss Laura Smith, daughter of Mr. Edmund Smith. The bride-to-be formerly lived in this city with her parents, but for the past four or five years have been residing in Boston. Miss Smith qualified as a professional trained nurse not long ago. Their many friends join in best wishes.—Fredericton Gleaner.
