NEWS FROM THE COUNTY.

Andover.

T. J. Carter returned from Edmundston last week. Miss Gertrude Tibbitts has been visiting friends at St. Elmo.

Miss Muriel Kupkey, who is in training at the "Home of Mercy," Pittsfield is spending her vacation at her home here.

Miss Maud Jacobs, Caribou, Me., spent Sunday with Miss Eva Cameron.

Mr. DesBrisay, manager of the Bank of Montreal at Grand Falls, spent the weekend with H. G. Boulton and family.

Mrs. Welling has returned from a pleasant visit in Oak Point and Halifax.

On Wednesday afternoon Miss Lena Baird entertained at tea, in honor of Miss Stewart. A novel feature of the afternoon was the "sachet shower." Among those present were Mesdames Boulton, McPhail, Stewart and Peat, and Misses Stewart, Baxter, Waite, McGill, Hoyt, Carvell, Mallory, Topham, Messrs. Baird, Landry, Huggard, Porter, Dickinson, McClusky and Guy Porter.

Mrs. and Miss Stewart have gone to Boston where Miss Stewart is soon to be married to Mr. O'Keefe of Cape Town, Va., where they will reside.

Miss Helen Tibbitts entertained a few friends on Friday evening.

Centreville.

C. M. Sherwood is making arrangements to lumber again this winter though perhaps not very extensively; the disadvantages attending the shipping of lumber from this place makes it so expensive that the margin for the operator is not large.

A correspondent of the Hartland Observer in writing up an account of the talks given by Mr. Moore of the Dominion Pure Seed farm or Company and Mr. Wetmore of Clifton, Kings Co. to the farmers of this place seems to disagree with much that they said and the farmers and others to whom they talked seemed to share the opinions of the correspondent as no set of rules as laid down by managers of experimental stations could be generally adopted.

Barry Thomas who was operated upon a short time ago and who was reported to be improving has begun to grow worse and fears are entertained that another operation will have to be performed.

The church supper prepared by the ladies of the Baptist church last Saturday evening was a success in every way. Centreville has a wide reputation for good suppers and the last seemed fully up to the ordinary. Then there was a large number present to enjoy the good things provided and then the results of the entertainment amounted to about eighty dollars and every one seemed to be satisfied.

There will be a reception in the Odd Fellows' Hall on the evening of the 30th inst, to which all odd fellows are invited, West Florenceville.

Mr. Parker and family have moved to Calais Me. Mrs. Parker's health has been very poor and she was taken to St. Stephen hospital. Several changes are being made in rents. We are sorry to lose some of our citizens.

Mr. Andrew McKay is building an addition to his house which is making a big improvement. Mrs. McKay being shrewd and a keen eye for business, has purchased some of the belongings of Mrs. N. H. Tompkins who has gone to the far south, among the articles was a beautiful upholstered mahogany couch, chairs etc., also some of her Brussels carpets which were almost new.

Mrs. McKay will soon be entirely settled and in a position to receive her host of friends.

Rising Highest At Home

Those whom we love most often have to put up with us at our worst. It is in the home, among those whom we love dearer than life, that we usually give our ill-temper and pettiness and rudeness and selfishness and other bad habits fullest play. And it is a shameful thing that this is so. If our Christianity is to be used only among acquaintances and strangers, and on dress parade at public gathering and church services, what is it? Writing on 'The Disciple at Home,' Dr. G. Campbell Morgan has said, 'No service for God is of any value which is contradicted by the life at home.' If our Christianity is not equal to the task of the commonplace routine of home life, it is not Christianity at all. Our best-loved ones are entitled to the best of ourselves that we in the power of Christ can give them.—C. E. World.

Big Frauds By Syrian Dealers.

Private detectives and other officers of the law all over Eastern Canada have been engaged for some weeks past on a gigantic fraud case in which a combination of Syrians working with Grand Falls, N. B. as their headquarters, have obtained goods to the value of upwards of $25,000. Already one arrest has been made in the case, several thousand dollars' worth of goods have been seized and detectives are scouring Boston, New York and other American cities in an endeavor to locate those who were concerned with William J. Ayoup the man under arrest in the perpetration of the alleged fraud. Those alleged to be interested with William J. Ayoup in the perpetration of the fraud are Kalib Aboud, M. Moses, M. J. Ayoup and E. S. Cowlie, all residents of Woodstock and Houlton, Me.

The firms defrauded include William Croft & Sons, Toronto; Roy & Derbeau, Quebec; Mitchell Woolen Mills, Mitchell, Ont.; Whites, Limited, Ottawa; J. Eveleigh & Co., Montreal; J. J. Murphy, Halifax; Kaplan, Shane & Co., St. John and many others making a total of between thirty and forty creditors in all.

Some months ago Ayoup and his associates ordered goods to the value of $25,000 or more from the firms, buying the goods mostly on 30 days' credit, and when the time was up the drafts were not paid. Some of the firms then became suspicious and warrants for seizure under the Absconding Debtors Act were issued. It then developed that most of the goods which had been shipped to Grand Falls had been re-shipped away by Ayoup and his associates to various places and in many cases to fictitious addresses, some of the goods not even being opened before reshipment.

Later on the arrest of Ayoup followed at Canterbury, York county, and he is now out on $1,000 bail. Some of the goods were shipped into York county from Grand Falls, and Deputy Sheriff Winter was engaged to handle the York county end of the case, and recently succeeded in cleaning up his work in a manner which has won much commendation. At Canterbury he found that five cases of goods had been shipped to "E. Miron," at that place. The goods had been taken from the station by a man employed by M. Moses, who is now being sought by the detectives, and had been stored at the homes of Thomas English, a party named McNealey, and another man named Jamieson. Acting under a warrant that had been issued, Deputy Sheriff Winter seized the goods, and with Constables S. Grant and E. Hughey made an inventory and shipped them to Sheriff Howe, and they are now stored at the county jail.

Recently Detective Little, of the Thiel Detective Agency, was here from Montreal working on the case, and representatives of Messrs. J. J. Murphy, Halifax, and Kaplan, Shane & Co., of St. John, have been here during the past few days, and have identified the goods seized by Deputy Sheriff Winter and now stored at the jail as some of those obtained by the Syrians from them. Further development in the case are awaited with interest. W. J. Ayoup's case will come up again in the police court at Grand Falls Dec. 7th, and by that time the prosecution expects to have some sensational evidence to bring out.

Another Version of the Kelly Affair

A Debec correspondent wrote to the St. John Standard as follows:

A detective came to the home of Mr. Kelly the early part of the week and bought a large quantity of produce from him, engaging him to carry it as far as the boundary line, as Kelly told him he would take it no further. Eventually Kelly started with the load of produce accompanied by the purchaser. It is supposed that the purchaser, who was in reality an American officer, got Kelly intoxicated to such an extent that he was reckless of how far on the road he had gone, when three other officers sprang from ambush and arrested him, but not without a struggle. American Officer Peters, who was one of the party, said that before they could make the arrest that Kelly had to be beaten almost senseless, that his head was in a most battered condition. After being shackled hand and foot he was taken to Houlton. Mrs. Kelly, when word reached her of the arrest, hastened to Houlton hoping to have an interview with her husband, but this was denied her, for Kelly had been hurried off to Portland.

The people of this locality are much excited over the affair, for while no one approves of the former conduct of Kelly, yet that the American officials should take such a mean, contemptible way of getting him across the boundary, is what appeals to the people as being unworthy of the country which they serve.

Mr. Kelly was in very poor circum-

Policy No. 203260, held by Mr. A. C. Frost, Chicago, in the Sun Life Assurance Co. of Canada, issued March 1902, for $50,000, calling for an annual premium of $2,907.50, has had the following results declared at the end of the first five-year division of profit:

CASH PROFITS, $1,650.25 or a bonus addition to the sum assured, of 3.32%. The Assured accepted the cash profits, being a return on all the premiums paid of 17.3 per cent.

Mr. Frost has written a letter of thanks to the Company, which contains the following sentence:

I carry over $300,000 of Life Assurance, and this is by far the largest dividend I have ever received on any of my policies.

stances, having lost all of his buildings in a fire a short time ago, and as he had a large family of small children, the case is a very hard one, as it is expected since he is an old offender, that he will get a long term of imprisonment.

[In conversation with a gentleman from Debec yesterday, THE DISPATCH was informed that there is much indignation among the citizens of that locality in regard to the arrest of Kelly, and it is said that it is a case of kidnapping, as Kelly was taken from the Canadian side of the boundary. The matter has been placed in the hands of the attorney-general and it is hoped that the case will be taken up by the two governments.]

Beauty

It is in the rosy, crimson glow of skies at sunset.

It rests deep in the seas, where red coral wreaths clutch sands of gold not borrowed from the sun.

It climbs from earth to heaven in a morning dress of white and purple.

It rests upon the woodland where the flowers are.

It is in the valleys and all the quiet restful places of the world.

It is everywhere where thought is born and life palpitate. Without it there could be neither thought nor life.

God made it when He made the soul and like the soul it is undying.

It is the companion of true love.

In life it is the link that binds, in death the halo that sanctifies.

Look for it on the hill, or seek it in the shadowed places of the earth. You will find it everywhere.

It rests in the deep sky and on the wide sea. It glows untarnished amid pollution.

The Actors' Share

A musical comedy or comic opera of the first class averages a cast of about seventy-five people, while I suppose about seventeen is the average number for a dramatic company. A prima donna who is not a star, gets from $100 to $350 a week, the principal comedian from $150 to $500 a week, the tenor from $75 to $300, the bass about the same. The minor characters range from forty to a hundred dollars a week, while show girls get twenty-five and thirty dollars, and chorus people from fifteen to twenty-five dollars, the average salary being about eighteen dollars.—Hartley Davis, in Everybody's
