Clair John Tabor.

C. J. Tabor, proprietor of the Carlisle Hotel, died on Saturday morning of pneumonia, after a short illness, in the 41st year of his age. He is survived by a widow and one son, Elmo.

Mr. Tabor was a native of Taborville, Kings Co., and came to live in Woodstock many years ago. He was in the employ of the C. P. R. for a number of years as engine driver, and after severing his connection with that company started in the hotel business, and for a short time conducted the hotel at McAdam Junction. About twelve years ago he came to Woodstock and purchased the Wilbur House, changing its name to the Carlisle Hotel. In order to please the travelling public and his guests, Mr. Tabor spared no expense in putting in the latest improvements and tried in every way to make his hotel second to none in the province. At the time of his death he was installing an up-to-date laundry in the basement.

As a citizen of the town he took a deep interest in every movement pertaining to its welfare, and will be much missed by a host of friends.

He was a valuable member of the corporation of St. Luke's Church and a regular attendant at the services. He was also a member of Woodstock Lodge F. & A. M.

The funeral took place on Monday under the direction of the Masonic Lodge, and was attended by a large number of citizens. The body was taken to St. Luke's Church where a service was held by the Rev. H. G. Alder. The choir sang the hymns, "Christ Shall Gather in His Own," and "Now the Labourer's Task is O'er." The pall bearers were: A. B. Connell, J. N. W. Winslow, Geo. McPhail, Geo. Mavor, Sheriff Tompkins and C. LeB. Mdes. The remains were taken to Fairville where interment took place on Tuesday.

James Kelly.

James Kelley of St. Thomas died on Tuesday morning. He was 64 years of age and was born on the homestead where he died. Deceased had been ill of some obscure but distressing malady, supposed to be paralysis, for more than a year, but of late had been feeling much better. For two days past he had been saying he never felt better in his life but on Tuesday morning he lapsed into unconsciousness and died within a few minutes. He leaves a widow, five sons and two daughters, all at home, the eldest only 16 years of age, one sister and two brothers John in Montana and Thomas in Fort Fairfield. His wife is the daughter of Richard Crabb of Debec.

The funeral took place on Friday morning. Services were held by Rev. Fr. Bradley in the church at Williamstown. Undertaker Kelly of Woodstock had charge of the funeral. The pallbearers were John Kennedy, William Fewer, Murray Mulherrin and Burns Campbell.

Town Council.

At the town council meeting on Friday evening the application of the C. P. R. for a reduction in the price of water was laid over until next night of meeting, when the matter will probably be satisfactorily arranged.

On motion of Coun. Dugan, seconded by Coun. McManus, the council granted the band the sum of $250.00. The band will give a series of concerts once a week during the summer, beginning May 15th.

The field drivers and pound keepers appointed last year were reappointed this year at the same salary.

The school trustees claim for a balance due them of $1000.00 was left with the Mayor and the finance committee to settle.

Bowling.

The bowling match in the Armoury on Friday evening last was hotly contested and resulted in a victory for the 18th Field Co. by a majority of 27 pins. Following is the score:

Florenceville.

The Wicklow and Simonds S. S. Convention was held at Conaell on Friday, the 7th inst., afternoon and evening. Rev. W. H. Johnson of Tracey Mills conducted the devotional exercises, and in the absence of the President, Rev. J. H. A. Anderson, now of St. John, presided at the afternoon session. The matter of reorganization of parishes was the principal business. The arrangement that for a good while had obtained viz, of having Wicklow and Simonds combined, had proved unsatisfactory, because of distances, &c. Two lines of action were open for choice. One was to unite Wilmot and Simonds Parishes as they were more conveniently situated for the purpose. Another was to organize Simonds by itself. It was resolved to temporarily suspend the existing organization of Wicklow and Simonds with a view to new organization; and, for the present, to place Simonds by itself. Mr. Carleton Turner, Rev. D. Fiske and Miss Ebbett were appointed a committee for the selection of officers. Rev. J. B. Ganong announced that the County Convention is to be held at Hartland on the 28th and 29th of June. He also spoke of the system of financing now used in the Province, and which works very satisfactorily. Collecting cards being used. Also allotments are made to the different parishes according to the proportion deemed fair. The amount required from Carleton County is about $270. Wicklow and Simonds share of this would be $25. Simonds would require to raise $10. Definiteness of allotment seems greatly to facilitate financing. In the evening there was a full choir with a fine selection of Hymns, Miss Ella Ebbett at the organ. Mr. Johnson again led the devotional exercises and presided at the first of the session.

The nominating Committee presented their report which was adopted. Officers elected as follows:—President, Rev. D. Fiske; V. P., Carleton Turner; Sec. Treas., Mrs. John Perry. Additional members of the Executive, Messrs. H. H. McCain, William Rideout and Guy Christian.

Rev. W. H. Johnson gave a very interesting address on S. Schools in England. It is customary to have a separate S. S. Building built of stone or brick, arranged with main assembly room and separate class rooms. A strict and precise system of marking is in vogue. Note is taken of presence, punctuality, bringing of Bibles, conduct and memorizing. In some cases a convenient device is adopted for determining the punctuality. A verse of Scripture is arranged on the wall in the rear of the Supp's desk. Supt., there early, at suitable time he turns a button and letters take the form, "I am early." All who can testify to having seen these words are marked early. When the hour for opening has arrived the button is again turned and "I am late" takes the place of "I am early." Those arriving after that are marked late.

There are morning and afternoon sessions of the S. School in England. The former admits of more elasticity than the latter. A subject other than the International lesson may be chosen or an address may be given. The regular lesson is dealt with at the afternoon session.

The matter of bringing a Bible to School receives careful attention in the marking. The leaving of the Bible in the School room, and using it in the exercises does not secure a mark. The Bible has to be brought.

Memorizing of Golden text and perhaps a portion of a Hymn was a prominent place.

Conscientious attention is given to the matter of a library. The books are carefully selected, only books of a worthy character being admitted.

Great care is given to the selection of teachers. The probationary method is practised. A prospective teacher is admitted as an assistant to a teacher, and when an apprenticeship has been satisfactorily served, the candidate is given the charge of a class. When necessary, however, a larger scholar is placed temporarily in charge of a class.

Rev. Mr. Ganong, Field Secretary, spoke on organization, on making the School bright, on culture and evangelization, a strong, suggestive, helpful address. Organization of very great importance. Without good organization it is vain to look for satisfactory results. He referred to a school in St. John lately visited, which was a triumph of organization. No bell used, no calling to order. The organist quietly stepped to the instrument and played a suitable prelude. All took their places and assumed the attitude of attention. Every part of the work during the hour worked with the procession and smoothness of first class machinery. The closing Hymn was beautifully adapted to the subject for the day's lesson. The idea of unity happily illustrated thereby.

The S. S. occupies a very high place as an educative institution. Hon. Lloyd George once said, "The S. S. is the greatest University."

But of chief importance is the evangelistic function of the S. School. There is a difference between evangelical and evangelistic. An evangelical church is one that teaches orthodox truth, but it may be cold. The Antioch church was evangelical before Paul and Barnabas visited it. An evangelistic church is an evangelical church on fire, as was the church at Antioch after these men had fervently developed its life.

The S. School should be a bright, attractive place. Mr. G. spoke of a little boy of about 5 years old. At the dinner table his father said "I have sold the farm." The little boy in his enthusiasm nearly knocked the table over as he exclaimed, "I am glad." On being asked the reason of his gladness, he said, "I won't have to go to S. School." It is clear that the S. School he had attended was a dull one, lacking the method, energy, life and enthusiasm that should have been there. How difficult it would be to out-riposte in that little boy's mind the evil effects of the dullness of that S. School.

Mr. Fiske spoke on the narrowness of the Jerusalem church, the breadth of the church at Antioch, the characteristics of Barnabas, his bringing of Saul thither, the sending out by that church of Barnabas and Saul; on the young becoming interested in Bible study, the S. S. worker's function of lighting up passages of Scripture previously obscure, as the city lamp lighter lights the lamps, of believing promptly in Jesus, though to get well acquainted with Him may require length of time, as one may use the telephone quickly, though it takes a good while to explain its workings, and of getting to know Jesus Christ so will that it will be easy and natural to trust Him.

On Sunday p. m. Rev. J. A. Cahill preached to the Oddfellows in the Baptist church. There was a large attendance of the Order of Florenceville, Centerville and Bristol. They marched from the Hall at East Florenceville under the command of Colonel Hurlley, and preceded by the Florenceville Band. There was a fine choir. Mrs. Roy McCain presided at the organ. A quartette, Misses E. Smith, and M. E. Parlee and Messrs T. W. McCain finely redandered "Rock of Ages" with a new tune. Miss Hazel McCain impressively sang a solo, "Come Unto Me." Mr. Cahill took a double text, Pm. 17:17, "A friend liveth at all times, and a brother is born for adversity," and Pm. 13:9, "Thou shall love thy neighbor as thyself."

Board of Trade.

A meeting of the Board will be held this (Wednesday) evening in the town hall at 8 o'clock. There are special matters of interest to the ratepayers of the town to be considered, and it is expected that Mr. King, superintendent of the C. P. R. will be present. A full attendance of members of the Board and citizens generally is particularly requested, as the matters to be dealt with, vitally affect the business interest of the town.

Correspondence.

To the Editor of The Dispatch:

There is nothing that calls out our admiration and approval more readily than to see the energy with which a man, whose whole heart is in his work pursues his daily and favorite avocation. A man who not only takes advantages of existing opportunities but reaches out and makes more opportunities for a display of his zeal and energy.

Your correspondent was forcibly impressed with the whole souled enthusiasm evinced by one of our citizens upon the advertisement in one of your contemporaries notifying "all persons who wished for a license to tell beer," to apply to him.

Now as quite a number of those who sell beer take advantage of their prerogative and sell something stronger than beer, it gives our zealous and efficient townsman ample opportunity to pounce upon and make an example of these flagrant law-breakers; and not content with dealing out summary punishment to those who are already laying themselves open to penalty by infringing upon their rights, but he spreads his net, as it were, and by this means gathers in all who are thus evilly disposed.

Seeing the ardor with which this enthusiastic officer performs his official duties calls to mind the sacred text, "not slothful in business fervent in spirit," and also its companion, "seest thou a man diligent in business he shall stand before kings; he shall not stand before mean men."

A GUARANTEE OF SAFETY.

Most of the "soothing" syrups and powders advertised to cure the ills of babies and young children contain poisonous opiates, and an overdose may kill the child. Baby's Own Tablets are sold under the guarantee of a government analyst that they contain no opiate or harmful drug. They can be given with absolute safety to a new born child. They cure all those minor ailments originating in disordered stomach or bowels. Mrs. F. Young, River Herbert, N. S., says:—"I have used Baby's Own Tablets for constipation and stomach trouble and when my baby was teething, and I have found them the best medicine I know of for these troubles." Sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.
