THE attention of the school trustees is called to the delapidated condition of the fence in the rear of the College building. Most of it has fallen down and what remains standing needs immediate attention.

DON. MATHESON met with a painful accident last week. A young colt which he was leading by a halter, reared up and in coming down his forward shoe struck Mr. Matheson on the nose fracturing the bone.

CARYDON BULL entertained a large number of friends at his father's home, Rose Cottage, on Wednesday evening last. Dancing was enjoyed during the evening and before the company departed refreshments were served.

THE cheapest tea to use is not the lowest priced. You can buy tea a few cents a pound cheaper that will make a drink, but if you want an absolutely pure, healthful, cleanly-prepared tea use "Salada." It is infinitely more delicious and decidedly more economical than other teas, because it goes farther.

AMONG the Woodstock Division C. P. R. conductors who are in Boston attending the Biennial Railway Conductors Convention are the following: Conductors Attridge, Holt, Cooney, Main, Toole and O'Leary,

It is rumored that the C.P.R. will put on a regular Sunday express train service on this division during the summer months, giving connection with the west. Just how the Lord's Day alliance will look upon this innovation remains to be seen.

PURE Spring Water is what E. W. Mair is using solely at his Soda Fountain in the manufacture of his Fruit Syrups, Soda Water and his celebrated Root Beer. Bear in mind, it is not Town Water nor even Boiled Water but clear sparkling "Spring Water" hauled fresh every morning from the Spring.

In the Supreme Court Chambers on Saturday afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock, His Honor Mr. Justice McLeod, in the matter of the winding up of Small, Fisher, L. J., of Woodstock, appointed Mr. J. T. Allan Dibblee of Woodstock, permanent liquidator. Mr. T. M. Jones appeared for certain shareholders, and Mr. John B. M. Baxter, K. C., for creditors.

ONE hundred and fifty cars of lumber sawed in Carleton county for use in the erection of the new wharf at St. Andrews are passing through St. Stephen. This is not because the C. P. R. tracks do not run into the shire town, but because that corporation has so adjusted freight rates that the contractor finds it cheaper to have the lumber come to St. Stephen and then rafted down river than to ship it to St. Andrews direct.—St. Croix Courier.

GOLFERS: E. W. Mair is again to the front with a large assortment of the celebrated "MacGregor Golf Clubs", and is offering their first quality, "Wooden Socket Clubs" at $200. Nickel plated Irons at $1.75 and putters at $1.50. All players who are desirous of procuring Special Clubs would do well to call early as he is now making up an order for the Factory and can now procure any length, weight, lie, etc., at no extra charge. They are also selling Golf balls at a small advance on cost.—May 12-21.

GOLFERS have begun to get in some practice on the links. Although the greens are not in a condition for play, the course is in fine shape. A large number of applications for membership into the club have been received by the secretary, J. S. Creighton. It is the intention of the members to celebrate the 24th of May by having a local match and tea at the club house, followed by mixed foursomes.

MCLEOD MILLS, organizer of the C. O. F., organized and court, May 6th, at Pinder's Hall, with a charter list of twenty-two members. Bro. Mills came here when a number of the boys were away on the drive or no doubt he could of added several more names to the charter list. The members all seem to be well pleased with the orders and Bro. Mills has promised to visit us often until we get better posted in the work.—Temperance Vale, York Co. cor.

It is announced in another column that the Board of Trade will meet this evening for the purpose of discussing important business. For sometime past it has been reported that the C. P. R. shop will be removed from Woodstock which would mean a loss of population to the town. It is hoped that the railway will change its policy in this regard, and that Woodstock instead of declining as a railway centre will grow in that respect. All interested in the welfare of the town should attend the meeting.
