Rheumatism

I have found a tried and tested cure for Rheumatism! Not a remedy that will straighten the distorted limbs of chronic cripples, nor turn bony growths back to flesh again. That is impossible. But I can now surely kill the pains and paings of this deplorable disease.

In Germany—with a Chemist in the City of Darmstadt—I found the last ingredient with which Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Remedy was made a perfected, dependable prescription. Without that last ingredient, I successfully treated many, many cases of Rheumatism; but now, alas! I uniformly cures all curable cases of this heretofore much dreaded disease. These sand-like granular wastes, found in Rheumatic Blood, seem to dissolve and pass away under the action of this remedy as freely as does sugar when added to pure water. And then, when dissolved, these poisonous wastes freely pass from the system, and the cause of Rheumatism is gone forever. There is now no real need—no actual excuse to suffer longer without help. We sell, and in confidence recommend

The Hardened Kind.

(Exchange.)
A few evenings ago a husband and wife were sitting in their home after dinner, and the old man was puffing at his meerschaum and reading a newspaper, while mother was working on a piece of embroidery.

"What do you think of this?" remarked father, glancing from the newspaper to his wife. "Here is an article that says that in some of the old Roman prisons that have been unearthed they have found a lot of petted prisoners."

"Oh," responded mother. "I suppose they must have been some of the hardened criminals I have heard about."

The Real Greatness of Lee.

Bitterness or resentment seemed to have no part in the nature of General Robert E. Lee. During the war, declares Charles Morris in "The Old South and the New," it was noticeable that he never spoke of the Union soldiers as "Yankees," the common expression in the Southern army. He always called them "Federals," or "the enemy." A touching story of General Lee was told by a Union veteran who had been in the battle of Gettysburg. He was a most bitter anti-South man, and fought the Confederates desperately.

The last day of the fight I was badly wounded. A ball shattered my left leg. I lay on the ground not far from Cemetery Ridge, and as General Lee ordered his retreat, he and his officers rode near me.

As they came along I recognized him, and although faint and suffering, I raised up my hands and shouted as loud as I could, "Hurrah for the Union!"

The general heard me, looked, stopped his horse, dismounted, and came toward me. I confess that I at first thought he meant to kill me. But as he came up he looked down at me with such a sad expression upon his face that all fear left me, and I wondered what he was about.

He extended his hand to me, and grasping mine firmly looked right into my eyes, and said:

"My son I hope you will soon be well." I shall never forget the expression on General Lee's face. There he was, defeated, retiring from a field that had cost him and his cause almost their last hope, and yet he stopped to say words like those to a Union soldier who had taunted him as he passed by. As soon as the general left me I cried myself to sleep there upon the bloody ground.

If your Stomach, Heart, or Kidneys are weak, try at least, a few doses only of Dr. Shoop's Restorative. In five or ten days only, the result will surprise you. A few cents will cover the cost. And here is why help comes so quickly. Dr. Shoop's doesn't drug the Stomach, nor stimulate the Heart or Kidneys. Dr. Shoop's Restorative goes directly to the weak and failing nerves. Each organ has its own controlling nerve. When these nerves fail, the depending organs must of necessity falter. This plain vital truth, clearly tells why Dr. Shoop's Restorative is so universally successful. Its success is leading druggists everywhere to give it universal preference. A test will surely tell. Sold by All Dealers.

To-day.

Think not of Yesterday, nor trouble borrow On what may be in store for you Tomorrow. But let To-day be your incessant care—The past is past, To-morrow's in the air. Who gives To-day the best that in him lies Will find the road that leads to clearer skies.

And Still It Pays.

A young man in a London omnibus noticed the blue ribbon total abstinence badge on a fellow passenger's coat and asked him in a bantering tone, how much he got for wearing it.

"That I cannot exactly say," replied the other, "but it costs me about 20,000 pounds a year."

The wearer of the badge was Frederick Charring, son of a rich brewer, and the intended successor of his father's business. He had been convinced of the evil of the ale and beer trade, and refused to continue it, though it would have brought him an income of 20,000 pounds a year.

He preferred a life of Christian philanthropy to a career of money making; and his activity soon made him known through the kingdom as a most successful temperance evangelist. His work organized in the tent meetings on Mile End Road has grown steadily for twenty years and now fills "the largest mission hall in the world."—Selected.

That Famous Swim.

Bohemian Magazine.

"It is a very dangerous thing, I have found, to tell stories to the present young generation," a Sunday school teacher remarked. "Now, I have always been fond of illustrating the Gospel lessons with little stories which helped to point the moral, and a favorite with me was one of a young Roman athlete who used to swim the Tiber three times every morning. This generally made a hit with the boys in my class, but one Sunday a new lad with Irish eyes appeared, and at the conclusion of this story snickered audibly.

"You seem to think that this story is rather funny, Patrick," I remarked, severely. "Will you tell us in what respect?" "Seems like he might have made one more trip and got his clothes, miss," he replied with a cheerful grin."

Stomach Distress.

Every family here ought to keep some Diapepsin in the house, as any one of you may have an attack of Indigestion or Stomach trouble at any time, day or night.

This harmless preparation will digest anything you eat and overcome a sour stomach five minutes afterwards.

If your meals don't tempt you, or what little you do eat seems to fill you, or lays like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have the heartburn, that is a sign of Indigestion.

Ask your Pharmacist for a 50-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin and take one triangle after supper tonight. There will be no sour risings, no belching of undigested food mixed with acid, no stomach gas or heartburn, fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach, Nausea, Debilitating Headaches, Dizziness or Intestinal griping. This will all go, and, besides, there will be no sour food left over in the stomach to poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Pape's Diapepsin is a certain cure for all stomach misery, because it will take hold of your food and digest it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there.

Actual, prompt relief for all your stomach misery is at your Pharmacist, waiting for you.

These large 50-cent cases contain more than sufficient to cure a case of Dysepsia or Indigestion.
