Weak Women

To weak and ailing women, there is at least one way to help. But with that way, two treatments, must be combined. One is local, one is constitutional, but both are important, both essential.
Dr. Shoop's Night Cure is the Local.
Dr. Shoop's Restorative, the Constitutional.
The former—Dr. Shoop's Night Cure—is a topical mucous membrane suppository remedy, while Dr.
Shoop's Restorative is wholly an internal treatment. The Restorative reaches throughout the entire system, seeking the repair of all nerve, all tissue, and all blood ailments.
The "Night Cure", as its name implies, does its work while you sleep. It soothes sore and inflamed mucous surfaces, heals local weaknesses and discharges, while the Restorative, eases nervous excitement, gives renewed vigor and ambition, builds up wasted tissues, bringing about renewed strength, vigor, and energy. Take Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—as a general tonic to the system. For positive local help, use as well

Fowl Poetry.

Mary had a little hen
Upon her little farm, Against the wolf before the door,
It proved to be a charm.
Each day it laid a little egg, Which Mary sold at town,
And thus she bought her groceries.
And now and then a gown.
The years passed, and Mary paid
The little mortgage due,
And sent her girl to boarding school,
Her boy to college, too.
She has a nest egg in the bank,
And even keeps a cook,
And everything about her has A thrifty, well-kept look.
Says she, to those who daily fail With needle, brush and pen;
"If you would do as well as I, Just keep a little hen."

A book on Rheumatism, and a trial treatment of Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Remedy—Liquid or Tablets—is being sent free to sufferers by Dr. Shoop, of Racine, Wis. You that are well, get this book for some discouraged, disheartened sufferer! Do a simple act of humanity! Point out this way to quick and certain relief! Surprise some sufferer, by first getting from me the booklet and the test. He will appreciate you aid.

Success in Teaching.

Two conditions are absolutely necessary for successful school teaching.
The instructor must love the work and must have sympathy with the pupil. By sympathy we mean right knowledge of mental process—knowledge which enables the teacher to "treat" the mind just as a physician treats the body therapeutically.
There are too many teachers in the public schools who merely go through the motions of teaching who lack the human touch, that element so essential to success in any educational capacity.
The astounding statement was made by a teacher in a public school, when a difficult and perplexing problem confronted one of her pupils: "I'm not here to teach you, I'm here merely to hear you recite." The teacher must possess the secret of intellectual leadership.
There must be inspiration in his or her own attitude towards life, for enthusiasm is contagious. The teacher who is censorious and mechanical lacks the essential elements of success.

If your Stomach, Heart or Kidneys are weak, try at least, a few doses only of Dr.
Shoop's Restorative. In five or ten days only, the result will surprise you. A few cents will cover the cost. And here is why help comes so quickly. Dr. Shoop doesn't drug the Stomach, nor stimulate the Heart or Kidneys. Dr. Shoop's Restorative goes directly to the weak and failing nerves. Each organ has its own controlling nerve. When these nerves fail, the depending organs must of necessity falter. This plain, yet vital truth, clearly tells why Dr. Shoop's Restorative is so universally successful. Its success is leading druggists everywhere to give it universal preference. A test will surely tell.

A Truthful Verdict.

Fargo, N. D., once boasted a composite postmaster and coroner. He was called one day to give his verdict upon the case of a stranger who had been the victim of a fit on the main street.
As the man was known to nobody, he was hurried to the much-prized new city hospital, according to Success. There the case was diagnosed as appendicitis, but when the operation took place the attending surgeon discovered that the patient had been previously relieved of his appendix.
The doctor endeavored to retract his steps, but the strange man died from the effects of the operation.
The postmaster coroner, in rendering his verdict, filled in the space after "Cause of Death" with a rubber stamp which read, "Opened by Mistake."

The New Spring Hats.
As I walked down the street I observed by the way,
In some of the windows the hats of the day.
Such marvellous shapes and enormous in size,
That spell-bound I stood with wide open eyes.
And I thought as I viewed them in wonder extreme Was I really awake or in some terrible dream;
For I felt as I gazed for a minute or more I'd been suddenly carried to some heathen shore.
Such confusion of flowers, of ribbon and wings,
Of laces and buckles and lots other things; No civilized people would ever own that Or wear such a head-gear and call it a hat.
One was like a huge flower pot turned upside down,
With feathers and flowers piled up on the crown:
That any would wear it was quite beyond belief,
I was sure it belonged to some Indian Chief.
There were others like basins and, oh! a lot more,
With feathers stuck out behind and before;
But this is called style and they say, "Oh, how sweet."
As these dreadful monsters pass on the street.
These fashions are bad for those who can't wear them,
I'm glad there's no law that compels us to wear them;
And with Shakespeare perhaps a few may agree,
"What fools, yes what fools, we poor mortals be!"
—From Toronto.

Give Them a Place to Play.
Plenty of room for dives and dens (glitter and glare and sin!) Plenty of room for prison pens (gather the criminals in!) Plenty of room for jails and courts (willing enough to pay!)
But never a place for the lads to race; no never a place to play!
Plenty of room for shops and stores (Mammon must have the best!) Plenty of room for the running sores that rot in the city's breast!
Plenty of room for the lures that lead the hearts of our youth astray.
But never a cent on a playground spent; no,
never a place to play!
Plenty of room for schools and halls, plenty of room for art; Plenty of room for teas and balls, platform, stage and mart, Proud is the city—she finds a place for many a fad to-day, But she's more than blind if she fails to find a place for the boys to play!

Give them a change for innocent sport, give them a chance for fun—Better a playground plot than a court and a jail when the harm is done!
Give them a chance—if you stint them now, to-morrow you'll have to pay A larger bill for a darker ill, so give them a place to play!

Be Cheerful.
It is not very difficult for a person to be sunny-tempered when everything is going prosperously with him. When a man has made two or three hundred dollars a day, and all the signs are favorable for his making the same amount to-morrow, how good-natured he can be! When the hours come to close the store, he takes his hat from the peg buttons up his overcoat, draws on his gloves, and starts for his home, with the feelings of a king. He feels kindly towards everybody.
When he comes to his house he smiles at the servant, kisses his wife, bounces the baby and fills the entire household with a sense of his own supreme satisfaction. Ah, me! How easy it is to be good-natured under such circumstances! What saints we all are when we have all we want!
But time changes. The business sky looks darker and becomes black with ominous clouds. Under our feet run rumblings and premonitory unsteadiness which always precede a financial earthquake. The commercial atmosphere is motionless and oppressive; everybody scents danger. Buyers are timid; sellers are suspicious. The current of trade shrinks. Goods remain unsold; paper on which I had relied goes to protest; household expenses begin to crowd; small bills accumulate; duns grow imperative. Ah, now is the time, when good nature in us is a virtue; yes a grace and a grace so white that it shall be seen in the highest heaven and noted there.
Now is the time for us to show what stuff we are really made of. Now is the time, if you are a gentleman, to prove it.

Sunshine grates have maximum strength

Sunshine Furnace has four triangular grate bars, each having three distinct sides. In the single-piece and two-piece grate no such-like provision is made for expansion or contraction, and a waste of coal always follows a shaking.

On the left- and right-hand sides are cotter pins, which when loosened permit the grates to slide out. These four grate bars are made of heavy cast iron, and are finished up with bulldog teeth. The teeth will grind up the toughest clinker; and because the grates are made in sections, not only can nothing but dust and ashes pass through, but after each shaking a different side can be presented to the fire. Also, with the Sunshine grate there is no back-breaking movements attached to the shaking. By gently rocking the lever, first on the left and then on the right, the ashes are released on both sides, and fall through into the pan.

"Seeing is Believing."

Mrs. G. C. Mills of Robeson (Me.) had been to several opticians for defective sight. They could get no vision from the right eye and condemned it as permanently useless. She now, however, sees perfectly, having had her eyes developed and fitted with glasses by a rather startling new discovery by C. E. Vail, Optician of Centreville, N. B.
Mrs. Chas. Gee of Summerfield, N. B., had not seen out of her right eye for 21 years. Five years ago she was obliged to go to a Montreal Hospital where for three weeks she was treated by the celebrated eye specialist—Dr. Buller. He told her she would never have any use of that defective eye. Mr. Vail, however, by means of his marvellous discovery, fitted her with glasses that developed that eye to perfect sight.
Mr. Vail has been in optical work and research for the past ten years. Two years ago he graduated from the Canadian Optical Institute, at Montreal, receiving therefrom a first-class Diploma. Of late he has been in deep research along new lines and has discovered means by which many ordinarily hopeless cases can be successfully restored to perfect vision.
He is pleased to examine your eyes free of all charge.
He also duplicates all kinds of lenses.
