Heart Strength

Heart Strength, or Heart Weakness, means Nerve Strength, or Nerve Weakness—nothing more. Positively, not one weak heart in a hundred is, in itself, actually diseased. It is almost always a hidden tiny little nerve that really is all at fault. This obscure nerve—the Cardiac, or Heart Nerve—simply needs, and must have, more power, more stability, more controlling, more governing strength. Without that the Heart must continue to fail, and the stomach and kidneys also have these same controlling nerves.

This clearly explains why, as a medicine, Dr. Shoop's Restorative has in the past done so much for weak and ailing Hearts. Dr. Shoop first sought the cause of all this painful, palpitating, suffocating heart distress. Dr. Shoop's Restorative—this popular prescription—is alone directed to these weak and wasting nerve centers. It builds; it strengthens; it offers real, genuine heart help. If you would have strong Hearts, strong digestion, strengthen these nerves—re-establish them as needed, with

How To Keep Young.
The way to keep young, according to Sarah Bernhardt, is not to worry, to take plenty of hot baths, and get plenty of sleep. "When I'm tired, I take a hot bath she said, "and when I'm nervous, I take a hot bath and a massage sleep."

When you are low-spirited or depressed, take a hot bath, rub off briskly with a coarse bath towel, dust with a good talcum powder, and sleep for two hours in a darkened room. If you ever try this, get up and look in your mirror, and you will smile with delight at the changed face which greets you. It is a woman's duty to look as well as she can and to retain her loveliness in every way as long as she has her faculties. In this connection Sarah Bernhardt is an authority who should command respect.

Croup positively stopped in 20 minutes, with Dr. Shoop's Croup Remedy. One test alone will surely prove this truth. No vomiting, no distress. A safe and pleasing syrup—50c. Sold by All Dealers.

Poor Sandy!

The young Scotchman never liked his mother-in-law and this weighed heavily on the mind of his wife, who was ill.

Calling her husband to her bed-side, she said to him, "Sandy, lad, I'm verra ill and I think I'm gang to dee, and before I dee I want you to gie me a promise."

"I'll promise," replied Sandy. "What is it?"

"Weel, I ken that when I dee I'll have a fine funeral, and I want you to ride up in front in a carriage w' my mother."

"Weel," sadly responded Sandy, "I've gied ye my word, an' it's nae me that's gang back on that, but I'll tell ye one thing, ye've spoilt the day for me."

Salutations of Different Lands.

The Chinese when saluting each other will say: "How is your stomach? Have you eaten your rice?"

The Pole's greeting is: "How do you have yourself?"

The Russians meet on the street with: "How do you live on?"

The Persian's friendly recognition of a friend is: "May your shadows never grow less."

The French gaily call out in passing acquaintances: "How do you find yourself?"

The Italian's greeting is: "How do you stand?"

The Egyptian's greeting is: "How do you perspire?"

The Dutch say: "How do you fare?"

The Swedes cry out merrily: "How can you to-day?"

The English and Americans nod quickly, and in passing say: "Howdy-do?"

How to Win and Keep Friends.

The moment a man feels that you have a real live interest in his welfare, and that you do not ask about his business, profession, book, or article, merely out of courtesy, you will get his attention, and will interest him. You will tie him to you just in a proportion to the intensity and unselfishness of your interest in him. But if you are selfish, and think of nothing but your own advancement; if you are wondering how you can use everybody to help you along; if you look upon every man or woman you are introduced to as so much more possible success-capital; if you measure people by the amount of business they can send you, or the number of new clients, patients, or readers of your book, they can secure for you, they will look upon you in the same way.

If you have friends, don't be afraid to express your friendship; don't be afraid to tell them that you admire or love them. If you love anybody, why not say so? It costs you nothing; it may mean everything to your friend and to your friendship.

A lady was asked how she managed to get along so well with disagreeable people. "It is very simple," she replied; "all I do is to try to make the most of their good qualities, and pay no attention to their disagreeable ones." No better formula by which to win and hold friends could be found.—"SUCCESS."

HANDS COVERED WITH ECZEMA

"For three weeks I actually had to be fed like one feeds a baby, because my hands and arms were so covered with eczema that they had to be bound up all the time."

That is the experience of Miss Violet M. McSorley, of 75, Gore Street, Sault Ste. Marie. She adds: "I could not hold spoon nor fork. From finger tips to elbows the dreaded disease spread, my finger nails came off and my flesh was one raw mass. The itching and the pain were almost excruciating. I had three months of this torture and at one time amputation was discussed."

"Zam-Buk alone saved my hands and arms. I persevered with it and in the end had my reward. To-day, I am cured completely of every trace of the dreaded eczema, and I fervently hope that sufferers from skin disease may know of my case and the miracle Zam-Buk has worked."

Zam-Buk is without equal for eczema, ringworm, ulcers, abscesses, piles, cracked hands, cold sores, chapped places, and all skin injuries and diseases. Druggists and stores at 50 cents a box, or post free from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, for same price. You are warned against dangerous substitutes sometimes offered as "just as good."

If you have a cut, a burn, a bruise or other external ache or pain, a free application of the liniment will reduce the inflammation and drive out the pain quicker than anything else. The Long, Cold, Dark Evenings,

Are coming upon us when the wise father and mother will look about for some means to keep the young people at home. Nothing will do this more effectually than a musical instrument, a Violin, an Organ, or a Piano. I heartily recommend to your notice the renowned Gourlay Piano. Won't you come and have a talk with me about the matter.
