NEWS FROM THE COUNTY.

Williamitown.

We have had a very heavy fall of snow this week and consequently the roads are very bad.

Mc Bros. have been pressing hay for McWaid Bros. lately.

Mrs. Etta Savage, Fort Fairfield, and Mrs. Lydia Savage, Lakeville, passed through here last Saturday.

Mr. Clark McBride, Pioneer, was employed at Mr. Wm. Page's part of last week.

Mrs. E. A. Savage spent last Sunday with relatives at Lakeville.

Report says, Wm. Emery, Henry Emery and Clifford McWaid, started with their teams for the Tobique lumber woods Monday morning.

Word has been received here that Mrs. Ann Anderson, of Pioneer, was seriously ill at Mr. Bert Slipp's, Bridgewater, Me. Later reports are that she is improving.

Benton.

One of the notable entertainments of the week was the enjoyable "at Home" given by Allen McPherson to the "Every Day Club" on Friday afternoon in honor of his Cousin George Moxon of Ottawa. It was the jolliest social affair of the winter. After a sumptuous repast the toasts were as follows:— The King who was responded to by Ed Lavery. The "Commercial Travellers" by George Moxon. The "Machinists" by Robert Moxon. The "Turf" by Marshal Boyle. The "Farmers" by George Murchland. And last but not least the "Millmen" were responded to by James Armstrong. Thus the afternoon was spent in smoking and merrymaking, and each went to their respective homes feeling much "happier" for being there and all declaring Mr. McPherson an ideal host.

Florenceville.

R. J. Rush was able to resume and continue his teaching last week after his week's illness.

Miss Jennie Love of Glassville has been visiting her aunt, W. Hagerman. The health of Miss Amy Ross, recently home from the hospital, Woodstock, has been encouraging.

Simon Smith so seriously cut the base of one of his thumb the other day by accidentally thrusting it through the van window that five stitches were required.

J. H. Willard, Toronto, who for some weeks had been sojourning in our midst and whose bright spirit and alert manners were a wholesome inspiration, left last week.

Principal F. C. Squires, J. A. Jewett, Guy Pierce, George Smith and John K. Fleming of the Bank of N. B. went to Mars Hill, Me., Friday evening, the 29th, inst., to attend a basket-ball game.

Mrs. Theodore Currie and children, home on a visit from the west, were visiting on Saturday at W. W. Jewett's.

The hauling of later has been mostly by the river instead of by the highway.

John Perley and Ed Stephenson have been hauling bark to the station.

The heavy roads require two teams to haul the van up to the village some mornings.

Listerville.

Miss Edith Barker and Miss Laura Lister went to Bath last Wednesday to have work done at the Dentists; they returned home on Saturday.

Mrs. Watts Tompkins, of Bath, spent Sunday and Monday with friends in Listerville.

Mrs. H. E. Grey and son, Wilbur, have been visiting at T. H. Barker's.

There have been quite a number around here sick with colds but all are on the mend. The recent snow storms have made the roads in quite bad condition.

The farmers are busily engaged at hauling wharf timber in to the mill at River de Chute. John Wiggins and bride have moved into the house formerly occupied by Mrs. Cox.

After a very fast game the High School team won out by a score of 7-4.

The game was called at 8 o'clock by referee Richards. The game was very fast and interesting throughout. The first half ended with a score of 5-4 in favor of High School. In the second half Andover did not score, while the High School added two more points.
