

The Gobbler-Sexton Mine.

At a meeting of the directors of the Gobbler-Sexton Mining Co Ltd, held in the office of Dibble & Augherston, Jan 11th, 1909, it was decided to put on the market 15,000 shares of treasury stock at 50c per share, to raise funds for further development work.

Although a tunnel 216 ft in length has been driven, they are 12 or 15 ft from the deposit toward which they are working, and where it is hoped a sufficient quantity of high grade ore will be proven to guarantee putting up a mill to concentrate the ore for shipment to the refineries.

Of the 15,000 shares for sale the directors at once subscribed for 4,200 and later subscriptions have brought up the sales to about 10,000 shares, so that there only remains about 5,000 shares of this allotment for sale.

Recent prospecting on the Gobbler-Sexton and adjacent properties has proven the existence of a wide spread mineralized area. Not only have samples of high grade copper ore been found but rich samples of free gold and silver have been picked up at various points, which go to show that a considerable quantity must exist in that vicinity. Is it not worth looking for? Will it come to light if it is not searched for? Can it be found without an effort?

If found will it not benefit the whole vicinity, the whole county? If it is proven that a sufficient body exists on the Gobbler-Sexton will it not benefit the whole province, for that same mineralized belt extends clear across the province in a northeasterly direction. If the Gobbler-Sexton proves good will it not cause a series of mines to be established across the province? Will it not benefit the whole province?

Again, if the Gobbler-Sexton proves the existence of a large body of ore will it not have to pay a royalty of 2 1/2 per cent of the value of its production to the government? Has not the provincial government paid the expenses for the use of the government drill in the development and proving of the Drummond iron deposits in Gloucester County? Have not several of the other counties had the use of the diamond drill free of cost? Has it not been a benefit to the province at large. True it has benefited individuals more, but will not the royalties which are paid into the government benefit the province.

Will not the industries thus started, keep our population at home? Are not our own people better than emigrants.

Why cannot the Gobbler-Sexton and Carleton County have the free use of the diamond drill as well as other counties? If regulations exist which prevent the diamond drill from being used in that manner, why cannot the regulations be changed?

Do not nearly all towns and cities bonus certain industries which benefit individuals more than the community? Do not governments bonus corporations, and does not that bonus aid directly the corporation more than the country at large? Is this not done to keep the people at home? Which would be the better investment, the money spent to advertise our country to bring in a lot of foreigners or to develop its resources to keep our people at home? Which is the better class of people, our own or foreigners? Which are the better adapted to our country? How long will it take emigrants to conform to our manners and customs? Why not be a little more American and look after our own people? Some day we shall be sorry that we gave our heritage away to emigrants.

Why cannot the diamond drill be used in this country as well as others? Are there not other deposits of ore to be tested beside the Gobbler-Sexton? Are there not excellent iron ore deposits in the country that have not been proven to depth? Are there not excellent possibilities in store for the diamond drill? Then why not use the diamond drill?

ANYONE acquainted with Mr. William K. Tilley, formerly of Hartland, will confer a favor by sending his address to the Dispatch office at once. Something to his advantage. Important.

In regard to the rumor circulated that there will be no annual camp for the rural corps this coming summer. F. B. Carvell stated recently that he had heard nothing to substantiate that rumor.

JAS. S. McMANUS will start on Feb. 6th, a sale of ladies' white wear. The ladies should keep this sale in mind as the goods are all up-to-date. Winter Dress Skirts will be offered at great reduction.

LT. COL. BAKER, M.P. of Edmundston, was in Woodstock on Wednesday and Thursday of last week, transferring the books and papers of the 67th Regiment Carleton Light Infantry to Major G. D. Perkins, of Connell, Carleton County, who for the next five years will command the above regiment. Major Perkins will in a few days be gazetted Lieut. Col. of the 67th Regiment. Lt. Col. Baker has been in command of the 77th for the past five years and was considered an efficient officer. During the Reil rebellion Col. Baker commanded the composite company of the 67th Regt. which started for the scene of hostilities, but only went as far as Sussex when word was received the rebellion was ended. He also commanded the composite regiment, made up of Militia from New-Brunswick, P. E. I. and Nova Scotia, at the Royal Review at Quebec during the tercentenary celebration.

Prescriptions!

We have been preparing medicine according to doctors' prescriptions for 15 years. In that time our business has doubled in volume, several times over, and yet we have never received a single complaint from any doctor in regard to our manner of compounding Prescriptions. We have always stuck to one policy, namely: To use only the best quality of Drugs that we could get, and always do the work as skilfully as we know how. THAT MAKES GOOD MEDICINE.
