Helen E. Appleby.

Miss Helen E. Appleby, daughter of Mrs. Harriet E. Appleby and the late Stephen B. Appleby, who had been in poor health for the past two years, passed away on Thursday afternoon, in the 33rd year of her age. During her long illness she was cheerful, patient and uncomplaining, showing a kindly and unselfish regard for those who tenderly cared for her. She was a member of St. Paul's Presbyterian church. The funeral took place on Saturday. After a service at the house, conducted by the Rev. Geo. D. Ireland, the remains were taken to Florenceville where they were laid away in the family lot. The pall bearers were: W. S. Sutton, T. C. L. Ketchum, E. W. Muir and George Mitchell. Much sympathy will be felt for Mrs. Appleby as this is the third member of her family to be taken from her in the past few years. Besides the mother, deceased is survived by three sisters, Katherine and Ruth, at home, and Mrs. Wilmot Watson, of Woodlawn.

Mrs. John Regan.

After a lingering illness, which she bore with Christian resignation, Mrs. John Regan died at her home here, Wednesday morning, aged 61 years. She was Miss Hannah Culliton, a native of Dunfries, but a resident of this town for many years. Mrs. Keefe, of Farmerston, is a sister. The funeral was held on Friday afternoon in charge of Undertaker Nicholls of Vanwart's rooms. Prayers were said at St. Gertrude's church by Rev. F. J. McMurray and the interment made in the Catholic cemetery, the following being the pall bearers: Chief Kelly, Jas. S. M. Manus, I. E. Sheasgreen and P. Bradley.

Death of Mrs. Charles McCrystal.

Many friends in Woodstock will regret to hear of the death of Mrs. Charles McCrystal, which took place on March 8th in the city of Los Angeles, California. Mrs. McCrystal was a daughter of Charles Trafton, of this town and was in her 48th year. She moved west about three years ago in the hope that the change of climate would benefit her health. Mr. McCrystal is a printer, and was foreman of the Woodstock Press for a time. The deceased is survived by a husband and one son, Edward, and a daughter, Marjory. The interment took place in Los Angeles on the 10th.

Most Useful Animal.

A French newspaper, The Parisian, recently organized a competition by voting to discover the animal most useful to mankind. The horse won by a small margin, obtaining 1,269,872 votes against the 1,243,117 of the cow, placed second. Then followed the dog, 1,203,473, the chicken and the bullock being separated by 300 votes for the next place. The pig, the sheep, whose comparative unpopularity is no doubt due to the poor quality of French mutton; the camel, lamb and the bee were placed next in order, all with less than a million votes. This ought to make a horse laugh, after all the knocks he has had from motors and cycles.

Judge Carleton Delights Bangor People.

(Bangor Commercial.)

The entertainment in St. Mary's hall on Wednesday evening, in honor of St. Patrick, was attended by a large number of people and was a success in every way. The address of the evening, given by Hon. John L. Carleton, of Woodstock, N. B., was bubbling over with pleasantries and his remarks were evidently much appreciated by his hearers. The subject, Irish Wit and Humor, is a broad one, but few could do it more justice than did Judge Carleton on Wednesday night. The stories with which he punctuated his talk were characteristic of Irish life and brought forth much laughter and applause.

Judge Carleton is a scholar, distinguished in the provinces, and is a very enlightening and pleasing speaker. He is in much demand as a lecturer and is always heartily received and highly spoken of wherever he goes. The address given by him was one of the best ever given in connection with a St. Patrick's entertainment in Bangor and will be remembered long by those who heard it. His first and only appearance in Maine before his Wednesday night's visit in Bangor was in Benedicta a number of years ago, Judge Carleton is particularly well versed in Catholic church history and literature and so is peculiarly fitted to address an audience on these subjects.

Henry York in the West.

A very pleasant evening was spent last night at the Donald Street hall, the occasion being the presentation by the employees of the Car Department of the C. P. R. to Henry York, who is leaving there to accept a position as car foreman at Ignace. The gathering was a very large one, the chair being occupied by R. Hotgson. The presentation was made by J. Moore, car foreman, who made reference to the work performed by Mr York, which had always been most satisfactory as well as to the position he held among his friends. Much regret was expressed at losing Mr. York while at the same time he was heartily congratulated upon receiving the promotion.

Mr. York responded very fittingly to the presentation expressing himself as being highly delighted with the way he had been treated while in Fort William and thanking all for the kindness shown him. Short addresses were also made by Messrs. Johnson and J. Martin.

The presentation consisted of a gentleman's portmanteau and also a suitable gift to Mrs. York. The evening was brought to a most pleasant close by several musical selections.—Fort William Paper. Mr. York is a son of Joseph York of Victoria Corner, Mrs. York, was Miss Bessie Britton of Upper Woodstock.

Always "Just Going To."

- He meant to insure his house, but it burned before he got around to it.
- He was just going to stop drinking when it went to protest.
- He was just going to help a neighbour when he died.
- He was just going to send some flowers to a sick friend when it proved too late.
- He was just going to reduce his debt when his creditor "shut down" on him.
- He was just going to stop drinking and dissipating when his health became wrecked.
- He was just going to provide proper protection for his wife and family when his fortune was swept away from him.
- He was just going to introduce a better system into his business when it went to smash.
- He was just going to call on a customer to close a deal when he found his competitor had preceded him and secured the order.
- He was just going to quit work awhile and take a vacation when nervous prostration came.
- He was just going to repair his side-walk when a neighbour fell on it and broke his leg.
- He was just going to provide his wife with more help when she took to her bed and required a nurse, a doctor and a maid.

Pure Water.

To the Editor of The Dispatch:

What is being said about the river water being impure is no doubt too true for dispute, but it is not fair to blame it for all the typhoid fever in town, because there are other reasons for certain portions of it. Nevertheless I am not in favor of using the river water when we have the very best of pure spring water available, and that is a fact beyond dispute.

When the writer in your last issue speaks of our pumping plant, there is found one of the biggest mistakes against Woodstock. Just imagine the cost of that pumping plant, and the expense of two hundred dollars a month for all time, to pump slops and filth and dirt of all kinds, and then add to that the cost of the stand pipe, another filthy thing.

Now compare all these costs with a system that would probably cost from $12,000, to $20,000, which would give us the very best spring water with a little lake for a stand pipe, which everybody knows is the purest system today on record.

Now let me say for the benefit of the writer of last week's letter, that there is no danger of the filtration plant referred to being stalled, for the people will not stand for any such outrage loading this town with $50,000 of debt and pay the present cost of pumping slops for the fun of filtering it. When this matter came before the Council, presented by Councillor Hagerman, it was allowed to go through without opposition. After the necessary information was asked for by Councillor Fawcett as to what effect the motion had with the erection of the filtration plant, and it was learned that it would have to be a property vote and a vote of the people, and for that reason it was allowed to pass the Board without opposition. But it will never be used. When the time comes when the people want pure water a plan for a cistern will be furnished that will save the present cost of pumping for all time, and where the cistern water will run when the way is prepared for it to come in. The day is fast approaching when the people of this town will wake up to the fact there is something to be done, but will perhaps be too late, when our taxes get so high that our property is worthless. Then we will see what has been going on. Worthless men can cut a big swell when somebody else has the bills to pay; pieces of machinery put in public positions who have nothing at stake, to manage for those who have some thing at stake, is surely wrong. Look at Fredericton and see if you don't find the best citizens of the town in the council board, and then glance at Woodstock and you will see pieces of machinery sitting at the council for five or six years and hardly be heard until they get a chance to hit the good temperance cause a blow and stand up and say liquor had never hurt them when people knew differently.

ALDERMAN FAWCETT.

Amazing Increase in Potato Crop.

During the season of 1907-08 the potato shipments from Carleton, Victoria and York counties amounted to about 600,000 bushels. These shipments were made to Ontario and Quebec and this season up to December, 1908, the C. P. R.'s shipments from the same territory to Ontario and Quebec amounted to 1,000,000 bushels. When the complete returns are made up they will likely show at least 2,000,000 bushels shipped from that territory during the entire season.

The C. P. R. is also providing lots of competition for the Bangor and Aroostook Railway for the Aroostook county potato business, and 250 cars have been shipped out of Aroostook county already this season by the C. P. R. The present movement from the river counties of this province to Boston and other American markets will also be a heavy one.—The Gleaner.

Golf lovers and learners will have their pleasure in knowing that Walter G. Travis, the famous former champion, is revising his book on "Practical Golf," to meet the changes in the game itself. The publishers, Harper & Brothers, plan to have it ready in good season for the spring revival on the links.
