Centreville.

The Delegates appointed by the meeting held here about ten days ago in the interests of the St. John Valley Railroad have met the different Boards of Trade at Fredericton and bring very encouraging reports to the people here.

Prices of farm produce are advancing and the farmers are buying large quantities of fertilizer. In the Upper Provinces New Brunswick potatoes heads the list as to prices and quality and the prospects are good that the farmers of New Brunswick will hereafter find a ready market and good prices for as many potatoes as they can produce.

Rev. Mr. Ayers is holding special meetings at Williamstown and is much encouraged at the success met with there. The meetings are largely attended and the people are expecting a revival of the services continue.

Dr. H. A. Green has rented the Perkins Hotel for a term of five years. He reports a very successful year in the Dental line and says he expects to double his business the coming year but there are few men so successful that a better judicious advertising would not benefit.

The men who left here for the Pacific Coast a short time ago write home that they are delighted with the trip and seem to think that with the apparent privileges within easy reach a contented life may reasonably be expected for those who wish to make their home there.

Eugene Gilland has the contract for building the basement walls of the new school building to be erected this summer.

The Sons of Temperance are now holding successful weekly meetings and leaders are chosen to carry out a programme each week and the weekly entertainments are becoming very popular.

C. W. Sherwood is still confined to his room but is reported to be much improved in health.

Kilburn.

The special services which have been conducted here for the past two weeks by Rev. J. A. Ives have been productive of great good. Quite a number have expressed a desire to live a Christian life, Rev. Jas. Down of England preached in the Methodist Church here last night.

The twelve year old son of Andrew Davidson, Kincardine was fatally injured while coasting. Dr. Earle was in attendance but medical skill proved of no avail. The young lad was buried at Kincardine on Wed. last. Rev. Mr. Pringle officiated at the funeral. A large number went from here to attend the funeral.

The six months old son of Milford Howlitt, Bairdsville, died on Saturday night. Death was due to croup. Dr. Wiley was in attendance. The funeral service will be held tomorrow afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Howlitt have the sympathy of the people of this community in their deep affliction.

A young man named Craig belonging to Perth died very suddenly last week from black diphtheria. Churches and Schools are closed as a result.

A great number of teams have been coming out of the woods.

The third Quarterly Meeting of the Andover Circuit will be held at Bairdsville on Tuesday afternoon Mar. 30th.

Florenceville.

The basket social held on Saturday evening, the 20th inst, in the Masonic Hall, East Florenceville, was an encouraging success. Proceeds to go to the Baptist church.

A fine baby girl arrived on Monday, the 15th inst, to brighten and gladden the hearts and home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Willard.

Mrs. Frank McNally, of Beechwood, after a two days visit at W. W. Jewett's, returned home on Wednesday, the 17th inst.

Rev. Thomas Pierce who has been suffering severely from rheumatism has made a trip to St. John. His appointments yesterday were taken by Principal F. C. Squires and H. V. Gillespie, Mr. Squires delivering a temperance address and Mr. Gillespie taking the prayers. In the absence of Mr. Squires, P. S. Semple, teacher of the boys' class, acted as Superintendent of the Sunday School.

The funeral of Miss Helen Appleby of Woodstock took place on Saturday p. m., 20th inst. The remains were brought by train and interred in the Baptist burying ground. Quite a large number met the funeral company at the station and drove in procession to the cemetery; Rev. G. D. Ireland conducted the services. Within a little over five years, lawyer Stephen B. Appleby, his son Charles, editor of THE DISPATCH, and one daughter, Helen, have been buried here.

The death of one of the oldest residents of Lower Greenfield, Mrs. Ellen Kilpatrick, relict of the late Joseph Kilpatrick, took place on Saturday, 20th inst, at 10 a. m. She had suffered from ill health for some years, but her strong constitution bore her up. She was about seventy-nine years of age. The family consisting of five sons and six daughters, are all living. Mrs. H. H. McCain and Mrs. W. E. McCain, Florenceville; Misses Margaret and Annie at home; Misses Agnes in the U. S.; Mrs. Ernest Sippell at home; James, at home; Andrew, at Presque Isle, Me.; Augustus, in Vancouver, B. C.; Edgar, East Florenceville; Ward, also in some part of the far west. The funeral takes place today. The well directed energy, thrift, industry and integrity of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kilpatrick, reinforced by their family have left their impress in the fine home and beautiful farm, which form so worthy a unit in the large group of fine homes and beautiful farms for which Lower Greenfield is noted.

Hedley Jewett leaves today for Beechwood to engage in the maple syrup and sugar industry. The two evaporators employed by the McNally's there, can boil down, I understand, about 126 gallons per hour.
