NEWS FROM THE COUNTY.

Debec.

Potatoes are moving more freely at present owing to the slight advance in price. Carson & Hay are our main buyers. De Wet Bros., of Hartland have shipped a great deal of pressed hay from Debec this winter. The three mills near Debec are now in operation, as the roads are good they are being well supplied with lumber. J. K. Flemming's camp at Ryan's Crossing has been a favorite place for driving parties this winter. There was a social affair at Mr. Walter Lawrence's last Thursday evening. Rev. Mr. McDonald of McKenzie Cor., held a prayer service at Mr. Flemming's camp on Friday evening. Many of our young people also attended. Miss Inez Daye, teacher at Limestone, spent the week end at Benton. The school at Elmwood is again vacant after being open for a week. There appears to be a great scarcity of teachers. Mr. Robert Kirkpatrick had the misfortune to break his wrist last week. Many of our young people attended the show in the Foresters Hall last week. There was a Temperance lecture in the Hall on Sunday afternoon, Feb. 7th. The dance held in the R. C. hall of this place was well attended. Miss Emma Deakin, of Benton, was visiting her sister, Mrs. Fred Blair, of this place, recently. We are pleased to see that all who have suffered from mumps, this winter, are able to be around again.

Florenceville.

Hugh McCain, who has suffered very much for some time with Bronchitis, your correspondent was glad to hear the other day, that his cough had stopped. Hedley Jewett is loading a car with potatoes at Beechwood for B. F. Smith. Geo. Ross has gone to Montreal in charge of two car loads of potatoes. Mr. and Mrs. Scott McCain had a party of friends in Wednesday evening the 10th inst. The evening passed enjoyably. Mrs. Andrew Stephenson, who suffered severely for years with eczema and resorted to different doctors and made use of various sorts of proprietary medicines for care, but without success, applied at length to Dr. D. W. Ross, who wrought for her a complete cure. Mrs. Stephenson gladly avails herself of thus publicly testifying her appreciation and gratitude.

J. V. Kearney, we are very sorry to hear, is laid up with Tonsillitis. Florenceville in the Basket-Ball game with Woodstock, on Friday evening, the 12th inst, was victorious—score 16 to 4. The Praying Florenceville Band had a crowded attendance at Bristol on Friday evening, the 12th inst. It meets at H. H. McCain's this evening, the 15th. The debate at the R. T. of T. Council on Friday evening, the 19th inst, is on "Resolved that the city is more advantageous than the country." T. Parker leads the affirmative, Fred Ross the negative.

Wicklow.

The Baptist Aid Society met at the home of Mrs. Gallupe on Thursday, February 11th, to celebrate her eightieth birthday. She received several nice gifts from her friends. An excellent supper was provided by the Society and the pleasant evening was much enjoyed by all. Mrs. McAnn and children of East Florenceville are visiting at Mrs. Clarence Estey's. Mr. Daggott held service here Sunday morning. Anna and Lena Hutchinson spent Saturday and Sunday with their brother at Upper Wicklow. Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Estey spent a day in Woodstock last week. Mrs. Albert Olmstead is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Bull at Fielding. Mrs. Hattie Gallupe of Robinson, Maine, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. S. Gallupe.

Kilburn.

Four cars have been loaded with potatoes here during the past few days. The price begun at $1 10 but advanced five cents then dropped again. Benj. Kilburn has sold out his store and stock to Frank Bishop. The young people will hold a Valentine party at Benj. Kilburn's tonight. It is to be hoped that the Dominion Government will allow the people to fish for salmon next summer as it did last summer. The newspapers state that another move is being made to build the St. John Valley Railroad. This much talked of project has often been built on air during election times but as no election is pending it looks as though it might be built on solid ground. Rev. J. A. Ives preached an earnest and impressive sermon on the "Christian race" last night. Potatoes are advancing in price. Several cars are being loaded at Kilburn by Guy Porter. Miss Grace Moffatt returned home Saturday last after an extended visit with her sister, Mrs. Curtis, of Portland, Me. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Jackson drove to Perth on Sunday last to visit his mother, Mrs. Jackson. We are all glad to know that Hayden Inman has recovered from his hurt enough to be out again.

Mrs. Silas Grant entertained the ladies of the Baptist Auxiliary on Wednesday. A profitable meeting was reported.

L. E. Rideout, who for some time has been engaged in work on the G T P, is the guest of his uncle and aunt, Mr and Mrs James Stewart for a short time.

The many friends of Guy Inman gave him a surprise party on Tuesday evening last, it being his birthday. A very pleasant time was reported.

On Friday, Feb 5th, Scotchman's night, a number of the friends of Mr and Mrs James Stewart from Kincardine, spent a very pleasant evening with them at their home at Kilburn. The early part of the evening was spent in games and other amusements of various kinds after which refreshments were served by the Hostess. Then came a program of Scotch Songs and Readings which all enjoyed heartily. Then the Rev. G. C. Pringle in his pleasant and cheery way spoke of the benefits derived from such evenings and also proposed a vote of thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Stewart for the manner in which they had been entertained which was fittingly replied to by Er. Stewart. The evening entertainment was concluded by the singing of Auld Lang Syne the way Scotchmen only can do it. When "Guid nights" were said all wended homeward at the "Wee, sma' doors' a. th; mornin' "

Andover.

Mrs. J. A. Perley and Mrs. M. S. Sutton went to Montreal on Thursday to visit Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Hanson.

Bath.

Rev. J. B. Daggot, of Hartland, occupied the Pulpit of the United Baptist church here at 3.00 p. m. yesterday.

A very pleasant evening was enjoyed by the young people at the fine residence of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kinney on Saturday, being Harry Kinney's birthday.

Prof. Mosher has opened a room to music pupils, in Tompkins Bros. building, where good vocal or instrumental instruction can be had. The professor is very busy.

Miss Clara Jones, teacher at Kilburn, spent Sunday at her home here.

Mr. E. D. R. Phillips paid a business visit to Woodstock on Friday last, returning on Saturday.

The farmers are beginning to lay in a store of phosphate for summer use for their potatoes.

The many friends here regret to hear of the death of Mrs. Francis Doherty, of Holmesville. Interment took place in the Jonsville cemetery on Saturday last. Mrs. Doherty had many friends here.

Mrs. Ruth Giberson, a resident of this place is reported very ill at the home of her uncle, Mr. Samuel Giberson, of Bristol.

Mrs. Robert Stanlake who also has been very sick, her many friends will be pleased to know is recovering.

The death of Mrs Lylda Sweeney, wife of David Sweeney of Windsor took place on the 20th day of January last at her home at the last named place. Mrs Sweeney was a daughter of the late Jeremiah Frost of Knowlesville to which place she removed with her parents from Argyle N. S. when that place was first settled. The deceased was a member of the Primitive Baptist Church of Armond, and was in the 55th year of her age, and leaves a husband David Sweeney, two daughters Mrs Hartley Sherwood of Carlisle, N. B. and Mrs Wilson of Winnipeg, to mourn their loss. The funeral at the home Windsor and at Knowlesville was largely attended, the services being conducted by Rev. G. A. Giberson of Bath, N. B. (Sentinel Press and Yarmouth Light please copy.)

The Long, Cold,

Dark Evenings,

Are coming upon us when the wise father and mother will look about for some means to keep the young people at home.

Nothing will do this more effectually than a musical instrument, a Violin, an Organ, or a Piano. I heartily recommend to your notice the renowned Gourlay Piano. Won't you come and have a talk with me about the matter.
