WOODSTOCK, N. B. MAR. 3, 1909.

Miss Fay Burr of Centreville has been the guest of her cousin, Miss Inez Bradley. Mrs. Henry Bradley returned last week from a visit with friends at Centreville.

Among those who went to St. John to attend the sale of the Kentucky thoroughbreds were Dr. L. DeC. MacIntosh, James Montgomery, C. E. Allen, and H. N. Dickinson. Mr. Allen and Dr. MacIntosh purchased the mare "Ponela", with her four weeks-old colt. The mare is brown in color and is rising eleven years. She stands 16 hands one inch, and weighs 1,225 pounds. The mare was bought in Kentucky by Peter Clinch for $125. The local men paid $300 for her.

Revival services at Perth conducted by the Reformed Baptists of that place assisted by members of that body from Hartland and Fort Fairfield, are meeting with good success. It is expected that a church will be organized there soon.

After a long visit with her cousin, Levi Sherwood and family of Fort Fairfield, Miss Dora Sherwood has returned to her home at Avondale.

At the mid-year examinations at Acadia College, Harvey Reid, of Hartland, led his classes in all branches but Latin. It will be remembered that young Reid won the Carleton County scholarship last year, and is now taking his freshman year. His marks were: Latin, 80; French, 85; Physics, 90; English, 90; solid geometry, 95; plane geometry, 95. Seventy-two is the pass mark. Not only is Mr. Reid the recipient of congratulations from the college faculty, but from his many friends here as well. In this report a strong recommendation of the Hartland Superior School is also implied.

Mrs. Geo. Wilkinson, of Grand Falls, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Reid. A short time ago the eight-roomed house occupied by Mr. Wilkinson and Mr. Carvell, of Lakeville, on the Transcontinental about four miles from Grand Falls, was burned and the two families lost nearly all of their belongings. The two gentlemen are employed on the engineering staff of the railway.

On Tuesday evening the Misses Owens entertained a number of young people.

Morse's teas are the best in Canada. Sold in Hartland only by Hagerman & Baird. 25c. to 60c. lb.

One carload five rose flour, corn and feed just arrived at Hagerman & Baird's.

Wesley Shaw, a well known farmer of Mainstream died on Thursday morning after an illness of consumption from which he had suffered since last fall. He was 58 years and two months of age, and leaves a wife who was a Miss Stackhouse, two sons, Harry and John (the latter employed as barber at Allen's shop, Hartland), and three daughters: Mrs. Harvey Faulkner, Mrs. Lee Orser, and Miss Sadie at home. The funeral was held at Mainstream on Saturday by Rev. J. B. Daggett.

The shockingly sudden death of Urban Shaw brought grief not only to his own family but to many who knew him throughout his lifetime. He had been in the hospital at Woodstock where he was operated upon for a carbuncle on the head. On Tuesday he was discharged and started for his home at Mount Pleasant in company with his son. While travelling in the train he was seized with several faint spells, and when he got off the train at Peel he was suddenly stricken again. A few moments after being taken into the post office, at the siding, he expired. He was a son of the late Charles Shaw, a man of a past generation and of honorable memory, and a brother of ex-Councillor Charles J. Shaw of Victoria Corner and Rev. John L. Shaw of St. John. His wife, who was Martha Boyer, daughter of the late Asa Boyer, died some years ago; but there survive five sons: Murray V., with whom he lived, Lebaron, John, Carson (in South Africa), and George. The daughters are Mrs. Edward Everett of Bangor and Mrs. Gordon of Forth Minister, Mass. The funeral of Mr. Shaw was held at Mount Pleasant on Thursday, the services being conducted by Rev. J. H. Copeland, pastor of the Baptist church at Rockland.

Mrs. W. D. Keith spent a day or two in Woodstock last week.

On Tuesday a merry party made up of the younger members of the Baptist congregation enjoyed a driving party to the lumber camp of Albion Shaw out on the "Pole Hill" road. Those who went were Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Hayward, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Morgan, Mrs. Jenkins, Mrs. Hewlett Smith, Misses Lide Reid, Inez Bradley, Emma Cogswell, Janet McMullin, Fay Burr (Centreville) Ota Jensen, Iva Somerville, Emma Clark, Lulu Van wart, Georgia Phillips, Blanch Kefley, Annie Davis, Nellie McAdam; Messrs. Horace Nixon, Arthur Currie, Frank Day, Frank Aitken, Harry Hagerman, Howard Kennedy, Warren White, Harley Clark, Levi Clark. The drive was much enjoyed and a most delightful evening was spent in the quaint camp. There was phonograph and other music and refreshments of oysters, sandwiches, cake and coffee.

The Misses McCollom entertained a few friends on Tuesday evening, the family having re-united at their Upper Brighton home after being separated by the absence of Mr. McCollom in the woods and Mrs. McCollom in Lowell. The guests were Misses Jennie Darkis, Maude Henderson, and Grace Tompkins; and Harry Gillin, Garnet Birmingham, Frank Gardiner. The evening passed very pleasantly.

Miss Ella Slipp of Fort Fairfield who has been here engaged in evangelistic work with the Reformed Baptist people, returned home last week.

Light groceries, canned goods, fresh and dried fruits, confectionery, at Chase's.

Miss Jennie Brown has been the guest of Mrs. Percy Graham for a few days.

Mrs. Fred Boyd of Woodstock was calling on Hartland friends on Wednesday.

Dorian Gray and family have been visiting relatives here during the past few days.

On Sunday forenoon an alarm of fire was rung for a slight blaze in the second story of the building owned by Mrs. Albert Orser and occupied by J. F. McElhiney as a hotel. The firemen responded quickly enough but there was a heavy loss of water and smashing of furniture due to over-zeal on the part of the assembled crowd. The loss to the building will not be heavy, but Mr. McElhiney's loss is considerable.

B. G. Rideout is advertising for a barber to commence work with him at once. Good wages will be paid.

J. T. G. Carr was in Woodstock attending the funeral of N. Foster Thorne, on Saturday.

Dr. Beirsto of Lakeville, was a visitor in the village on Saturday.

Mrs. W. Thornton has returned from her visit to Fort Fairfield.

Mrs. B. G. Rideout has returned from a visit to Florenceville.

Cards are out for the marriage of Miss Clara E. Matheson of this place, to Mr. Eugene M. Gilland, on March, 10th. The ceremony will take place at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. W. D. Keith.

At noon on Saturday while a number of workmen on Murdoch's section of the G. T. P. near Foreston, were preparing their meal and getting dynamite ready for the afternoon's work, when a stick of dynamite in the hands of a Hollander by the name of Gelleger, exploded as he was inserting the cap. His arm was blown off and his legs

ACUTE INDIGESTION

Cured Through the Timely Use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

There is no medicine can equal Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for stomach troubles. These Pills are not an artificial appetizer nor a stimulant. They act in nature's own way by making rich, red blood. This new blood gives vigor to all the organs. When it flows in the tiny veins in the stomach it stimulates them and creates that craving which people call "appetite." Then when the appetite is satisfied with food the blood gives the stomach strength to digest it. The nourishment is absorbed by the blood, and carried to every organ in the body. That is how Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cure stomach troubles and all blood diseases. That is how they give health and strength to weak, worn out people.

Mr. H. Thomas Curry, Port Maitland, N. S., says:—"About three years ago I was attacked with what the doctors termed acute indigestion. The first indication was a bad taste in my mouth in the morning, and a sallow complexion. Later as these symptoms developed my tongue was heavily coated, especially in the morning, and I felt particularly dull. My appetite began to dwindle, and even a light meal left me with a sense of having eaten too much. As I grew worse I ate barely enough to sustain my body, but still experienced the most acute pains. A wretched languor came over me which I could not throw off. It seemed as if I were always tired, with but little strength and frequent violent headaches. The remedies given me by my doctor, as well as many others failed to restore me, or even to relieve me. I was in this very unhappy state for almost a year when I read in a newspaper one day of the cure in a case similar to mine through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. This decided me to give these Pills a trial. It was not long before I felt some relief from the distress after meals, and as I continued the use of the Pills all languor and drowsiness and headaches left me and I began to enjoy increased energy and new strength. To-day I am a well man, enjoying the best of health, with never a twinge of the old trouble, and I attribute my cure entirely to the fair use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills."

These Pills are sold by all medicine dealers or you can get them by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

badly lacerated. A man standing close by suffered terrible laceration of the legs, also, four or five others received minor injuries. Dr. MacIntosh, the company physician, was called from Hartland, and Sunday night returned to this village with the two men who were the worst injured. Galleger is not expected to recover and the other man a native of Scotland, is in a bad way. Galleger comes from a good family in Holland, it is said. All the men of the camp were from across the water. Both the injured men are stopping at the Commercial hotel at Hartland.

Early Monday morning a special double-header freight, northbound, met with a peculiar accident two miles south of Hartland. The leading engine No. 54, jumped the track, and, turning over three times, went over the granite curbing and made three separate heaps of debris on the river ice. Driver Flemming and Fireman Post went with their engines, but miraculously escaped with minor injuries. The remainder of the train passed along, the track not being displaced. It was a most peculiar incident.

T. T. Hamblin, of Cabano, has been spending a few days with his family here. Miss Lizzie Owens visited Woodstock on Friday.
