 it. He thought there was something wrong with the building of the jail or it would not have needed this repair.
 Coun Melville thought the jail was very deficient. It was not built like the Record Office.
 Coun J R Brown for the Finance Committee, said that the authority to float a bond was given, and the money was fully secured. The Sec. was away.
 Mr Vince—The bond was duly cancelled. $1000.00 and interest was paid on the debt, which now is $13,000.
 Coun Bell (Richmond) reporting verbally for a special committee as to matters at the boundary line. He consulted with Mr Stevens and the other member of the committee. He had also spoken to Mr Colpitts, who said there was some talk of joining with the American people in putting a special official on the line. On account of the committee and the Inspector not pulling together, the report was somewhat meagre. It was decided that this report be laid on the table until after the report of the Scott Act Inspector was submitted.
 Council took recess.

The Battle for Health.

How to keep well.
 This is the problem Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food has helped many thousands of people to solve by reason of their extraordinary blood forming and system building qualities.
 The only sure foundation for health is rich, red blood and a vigorous nervous system.
 Both of these result from the use of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food. Even though you know of this great restorative as a cure for nervous exhaustion, prostration and paralysis, you may have overlooked it as a tonic to build up the system when it gets run down and you feel weak and miserable.
 Mr. James W. Weaver, Pt. Dalhousie, Ont., writes:—"For three years I never knew what a full hours sleep meant. Heart pains and headaches almost drove me wild. Eight boxes of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food have entirely cured me."

Address of Welcome.

A large number of the members of St. John Presbyterian church with their friends assembled Thursday night and tendered a very pleasant reception to their new pastor, Rev. J. H. A. Anderson, and his wife. During the evening W. J. Parks, on behalf of the session and congregation, presented an address of welcome to the new pastor and Mrs. Anderson and family. A number of the clergymen of the city were present and made brief but hearty speeches welcoming the new minister of St. John church.
 The ladies of the congregation served refreshments and an enjoyable programme was presented.—St. John Telegraph.

Save This, Anyway.

Here is a simple home-made mixture as given by an eminent authority on Kidney diseases, who makes the statement that it will relieve almost any case of Kidney trouble if taken before the stage of Bright's disease. He states that such symptoms as lame back, pain in the side, frequent desire to urinate, especially at night; painful and discolored urination, are readily overcome. Here is the recipe. Try it:
 Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Take a teaspoonful after each meal and at bedtime.
 A well-known druggist here in town is authority that these ingredients are all harmless and easily mixed at home by shaking well in a bottle. This mixture has a peculiar healing and soothing effect upon the entire Kidney and Urinary structure, and often overcomes the worst forms of Rheumatism in just a little while. This mixture is said to remove all blood disorders and cure the Rheumatism by forcing the Kidneys to filter and strain from the blood and system all uric acid and foul, decomposed waste matter, which cause these afflictions. Try it if you aren't well. Save the prescription.

Expect Great Things of Yourself.

A soldier once took a message to Napoleon in such great haste that the horse he rode dropped dead before he delivered the paper. Napoleon dictated his answer, and, handing it to the messenger, ordered him to mount his own horse and deliver it with all possible speed.
 The messenger looked at the magnificent animal, with its superb trappings, and said, "Nay, General, but this is too gorgeous, too magnificent for a common soldier."
 The world is full of people like this poor French soldier, who think that what others have is too good for them; that it does not fit their humble condition; that they are not expected to have as good things as those who are "more favored."
 They do not realize how they weaken themselves by this mental attitude of self-depreciation or self-effacement. They do not claim enough for, do not expect enough, do not demand enough for themselves.
 You will never become a giant if you only make a pigmy's claim for yourself, if you only expect a pigmy's part. There is no law which will cause a pigmy's thinking to produce a giant. The status follows the model.
 Most people have been educated to think that they were not intended to have the best there is in the world; that the good and beautiful things of life were not intended for them; that they were reserved for those especially favoured by fortune. They have grown up under this conviction of their inferiority, and, of course, they will be comparatively inferior until they claim superiority as their birthright. A vast number of men and women who are really capable of doing great things, do small things, live mediocre lives, because they do not expect enough, do not demand enough of themselves. They do not know how to call out their best.

Womanly pains, head pains, in fact any pain anywhere can be completely stopped in 20 minutes with one of Dr. Shoop's Pink Pain Tablets. Ask your Doctor or Druggist about the formula. It is printed on the box—and it can't be bettered. Try one dose and be convinced. Box 25c. Sold by All Dealers.

A Wife by Wireless.

(Washington Star.)
 Wireless "up-to-dateness" has scored a new mark of difference from the old ways of doing things. The other day a woman sailed from New York to meet her fiance in Europe, where they were to be married. She did not know on sailing day where she was to find her affianced, but had no doubts and went off happy, for he, being a thoroughly modern member of this highly scientific, time-saving social scheme, had cabled her to say that he would send her detailed instructions by wireless as soon as he had arranged his affairs to take a few days for his honeymoon. He could not know whether he could meet her in Cherbourg or Bremen, but would send word before the ship reached the former port.

Consider the advantage the modern woman has over her sister of the past. In the old days the bride-to-be might seek in vain for her swain across the great pond. Now the magnetic currents guide her unerringly to the harbor of matrimony. "Meet me in Europe," says the successful wooer. "Where?" asks the willing maid. "Oh, wherever it is convenient; I'll send an aerogram before you land." It is so perfectly simple and so delightfully economical of time. There have been telephone weddings; why not wireless weddings? Then maybe will come wireless divorces. This is a prompt world.

REPEAT IT:—"Shiloh's Care will always cure my coughs and colds."

The Sleeping Beauty.

Frederick W. Lehmen president of the American Bar Association, was discussing at a dinner in St. Louis a case where some of the evidences had not been above suspicion. "Well, he said, "there were certainly flaws in this evidence—terminological inexactitude so to speak. It reminded me of the girl in a hammock. "A pretty girl, in a hammock slung in an apple orchard, awoke suddenly and frowned at the young man who stood before her."

"You stole a kiss while I was asleep!" she exclaimed.
 "Well, stammered the young man, you were sleeping so soundly—you looked so pretty, so tempting, I—yes, I admit I did take one little one."
 "The girl smiled scornfully.
 "One!" said she. "Humph. I counted seven before I woke up."

Dickens Stories In China.

The Chinese, says a writer in the "Wide World Magazine," are rapidly taking up Western ideas, and translations of English, French, and American novels are now in increasing demand. Our romantic and sentimental treatment of love affairs, however, is a thing so foreign in Oriental ethics that the hero of the ordinary European novel appears to the Chinese mind as a person of perverted moral sense and doubtful sanity. Translations of Dickens, therefore, impress the Chinese reader less than they amaze him, and detective stories and tales of adventure command a more sympathetic audience.

LA GRIPPE'S VICTIMS.

Left Weak, Miserable and a Prey to Disease in Many Forms.

La Grippe starts with a sneeze—and ends with a complication of troubles. It lays the strong man on his back; it tortures him with fevers and chills, headaches and backaches. It leaves him a prey to pneumonia, bronchitis, consumption and other deadly diseases you can avoid La Grippe entirely by keeping your blood rich and red by the occasional use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. If you have not done this, and the disease lays you low, you can banish all its evil after effects with this same great blood-building, nerve restoring medicine. Here is proof of the wonderful power of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills over disease.

Mr. P. E. Paulin, Collector of Customs at Caraquet, N. B., says:—"In the winter of 1907 I had a very severe attack of la grippe, which broke me down entirely. I had to take to bed for several weeks. During that time I employed a doctor, but without benefit, fact I seemed to be getting worse and worse. I did not sleep; suffered from night sweats, and had no appetite. I was really a physical wreck. On a former occasion I had used Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for general debility, with great benefit so I decided to again try them. I sent for half a dozen boxes and began to use them at once. When taking the second box I began to feel quite a change in my condition. I was able to walk about the house and my appetite was improving. From that on I gained strength every day, and before the six boxes were done I was able to return to the office and attend to my work. Now I enjoy the best of health, and although 63 years old, am feeling quite young. I think Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a splendid medicine for troubles of this kind."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a blood-making, nerve-restoring tonic. In this way they cure anaemia, indigestion, rheumatism, neuralgia, St. Vitus dance, and partial paralysis. They are the best medicine in the world for the ailments of girlhood and womanhood. Sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

STATISTICS IN MEDICINE

OLD REMEDIES RETAIN THEIR POPULARITY

Investigations of French Physicians Show that Large Production of Synthetic Medicines is Not Crowding Out the Old Favorites.

A late despatch from Paris says: Prof. Grimbert presented a notable paper before the Academy of Medicine on therapeutic tendencies in the last ten years. Basing his figures on medicines furnished to 219 large asylums and hospitals by the State Pharmacy, he finds that the old-fashioned medicines retain their popularity.

An expert authority on being interviewed states that the tendencies of the medical profession in Canada are along exactly the same lines. He gives the following old-fashioned vegetable mixture as the safest and best treatment for all stomach and liver troubles, constipation, disorder of the kidneys and bladder, and states that many of the leading physicians use these ingredients in some form, often by some fancy and expensive name:—

Fluid Extract Cascara..... ½ oz.
 Syrup Rhubarb 1 oz.
 Carriana Compound 1 oz.
 Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla 5 oz.
 Take one teaspoonful after each meal and at bedtime.
 This acts in a pleasant way, and is free from the bad effects of strong purgatives and synthetics.
 We advise all our readers to cut this valuable formula out and use it. Any druggist can supply these ingredients at a small expense. You can mix them at home if you prefer.
