In connection with the development of the potato trade a big business in barrels is opening up in this province. It is stated that B. Frank Smith, ex-M. P. P., is opening up a barrel manufacturing business at Florenceville and expects to make about 50,000 barrels annually, for which there is a market in the up-river counties of the St. John river potato belt.

A REPORT from Manhattan Hospital, New York, says,—Miss Ava O'Donnell, a Carleton County young lady who entered the Hospital last fall has made such rapid advances in her work as to be appointed Head nurse of the Surgical Dept. of that Institution. The fact of Miss O'Donnell being chosen from among so many nurses to fill so responsible a position shows how efficient the Superintendent must have deemed her.

THE manse at McKenzie Corner was the scene of a very pleasant gathering Wednesday evening when the many friends of Rev. R. and Mrs. McDonald gathered in large numbers and surprised them in a very agreeable way, when after spending a very happy evening enjoying games, music, lunch, etc., the company dispersed leaving Mr. McDonald richer by a generous contribution in cash and other necessities.

A VERY pleasant time was spent at a party given at the home of Mrs. Hugh Davis as a surprise to Miss Mary Ann Henderson of this village, who is honored and respected by all who have had the pleasure of her acquaintance. Miss Henderson will always be kindly remembered in this locality as she was instrumental in the organization of the Sunday school in her own home with a class of boys. The guests remembered Miss Henderson in a substantial way, for which they received her heart-felt thanks.—Debec Cor. St. John Standard.
