Sent up for Trial.

Levi J. Thomas alias Daley, was brought before Police Magistrate Dibblee on Thursday morning charged with stealing a sum of money from John Blackie, proprietor of the Queen Hotel, on Sunday morning, Jan. 16 h.

T. C. L. Ketchum appeared as Council for the prisoner. John Blackie swore that the prisoner stopped at his hotel on Saturday night, Jan. 15 h and that he discovered his loss on Sunday morning, after he had left. The money was in a pocket book in his coat which was hanging in a closet. There were $195.00 in bills and $9.50 in silver. When he found the pocket book in the morning there was only $35.00 left in it.

Albert McBride swore that the prisoner had called at his house Sunday morning and had breakfast and told him that he had robbed a bank in Woodstock and he wanted to be driven to Bloomfield Corner. He offered to pay me well if I would drive him there. Mr. McBride said the prisoner worked for him and he had always behaved well. He told me he was a native of Pennsylvania.

Deputy Sheriff Armstrong described the capture of Thomas under a barn owned by Bernard Falsom a few miles from Monticello on the American side and of finding $114.00 in his pocket.

Police Magistrate Dibblee, after hearing the evidence, sent Thomas up for trial at the County Court, which meets in March.

Phillips-Miller.

Miss Emmeline Phillips, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Phillips of Bristol, N. B., was united in marriage to Mr. John Miller, of Glassville on Wednesday Jan. 12th by the Rev. Thomas Piers.

The wedding took place at the residence of the bride's parents and was a very quiet one, owing to the illness of the bride's father.

Immediately after the ceremony a bountiful luncheon was served. The happy couple took the down express for an extended wedding trip.

The bride's going away gown was brown broadcloth with hat to match and Alaska sable furs.

They will reside in Bristol.

Correction.

In the report of the proceedings of the County Council, just over, it was stated that the rate of assessment for road purposes in Aberdeen had been changed from 20 to 25 cents on $100.00. It should have been stated that the rate remained at 20 cents and that $50.00 was ordered assessed and paid to the Highway Board of Aberdeen.

A New Station.

On Tuesday afternoon, of last week, the following gentlemen waited upon Supt. Downie, of the C. P. Rr, who was in Woodstock, and talked over the proposed passenger station: Mayor Jones, Alds. McManus and Ketchum, President J. T. A. Dibblee of the board of trade, Rev. G. D. Ireland, Geo. W. Upham M. P. P., E. W. Mair, Coun. J. R. Brown, G. E. Balmain, C. Allan Smith and J. N. W. Winslow.

Three plans are being considered—wood, to cost $20,000; brick, to cost $26,000, and stone, to cost $30,000.

Mr. Downie said that it was not possible to get sufficient land to build where the present passenger station is. The land where the old freight station was is too near the bridge but that the W. D. N. Smith lot in Wellington ward was suitable and if the land could be secured at a fair price the passenger station would be built there early in the Spring.

We understand the Smith property is valued at $10,000. The C. P. R. authorities are willing to pay $7,000 for it, but will not go any higher.

MISS AGNES HYDE, the leading Scottish entertainer, will be at the Hayden-Gibson theatre with the Scotch singers from Glasgow, under the auspices of Ivanhoe Lodge, K. of P. This is the event of the season at an musical point of view.

Mrs. CHARLES DICKINSON will speak in the Salvation Army barracks on Thursday evening of this week.

It is rumored that Dr. Folkins, the practicing physician at Canterbury, will remove to Debec.

BORN.

SHAESGREEN.—At Woodstock, on Thursday, January 27th, to the wife of I. E. Shaesgreen, a boy.

DIED.

BROOKS.—At Waterville, Jan. 19, 1910, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Brooks, aged three days.

A Very Pretty Home Wedding.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at Stevensville, Montana, on Tuesday evening, Jan. 18th at 7.30 p. m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Duffield when John Whitesett and Miss Hattie I Toms were made man and wife. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Geo. W. McCombe of the Baptist church in the presence of the relatives of the contracting parties. Following the ceremony a sumptuous wedding dinner was served and the happy couple departed for their home on Mr. Whitesett's ranch, adjoining town. On arriving there they found the place in possession of a party of young people, who showered them with rice. Refreshments had been provided and the newly married folk received a number of useful presents.

Both parties are highly respected residents of Stevensville and have hosts of friends who will be pleased to extend to them all the congratulations and good wishes imaginable. Mrs. Whitesett is a comparatively recent arrival from Centreville, N. B. having been here about a year, and is a sister of Mrs. W. A. Duffield. Mr. Whitesett has resided in the valley for several years and is well and favorably known.

A linen and miscellaneous shower was tendered Miss Hattie I Toms by her friends on Monday evening previous to her marriage.

Aroostook Junction.

The new hotel at Aroostook Junction is nearing its completion, debarring a few finishing touches. This building when completed will be one of the finest in the county, and it speaks well for the contractor, Henry Post.

On Tuesday evening of last week the young people of this place enjoyed an oyster supper as a preliminary to the future possibilities of the hotel. A very enjoyable evening was spent by those present, music and dancing the leading feature. At about 12 o'clock the guests were invited to the spacious dining room, where an elegant supper was served, prepared by Messrs J Howard and J Taylor. Conspicuous in the arrangement were Messrs D. K. McLeod, school teacher of the district and K B Hawkins, one of the decorators now working on the hotel. In the absence of the lady of the house, Mr L E Hawkins acted as the host of the evening. All those present expressed themselves as well pleased with the evening's proceedings. Among the invited guests were: Mr and Mrs L Rivers, Mr and Mrs J Howard, Mr and Mrs H Sloat, Mr and Mrs D Grant, Misses Beulah Grant, Ethel Gibson, Annie Grantham, Florence Grant, Merle Spaulding, Minnie Skinner, Queenie Wiggins, Amber Wiggins, Annie Wiggins, Ethel Wakem, Messrs F Grant, R Grant, L Grant, E Mosher, C G Gines, J Fewer, F Pickell, G Wilson, N Turner, T Dunphy and J Roofin.

Mrs. H. Post wife of the contractor is visiting her husband here.

A MESSAGE OF HOPE

TO WORRIED MOTHERS.

There is no other medicine can equal Baby's Own Tablet for the cure of stomach, bowels and teething troubles. They come as message of hope to worried mothers as they make sickly, peevish, crying children bright and well. And the mother has the guarantee of a government analyst that this medicine contains no opiate or poisonous soothing stuff. Mrs Maurice Murphy, Glanford, Ont., says:—"I think Baby's Own Tablets the best medicine in the world. I knew of nothing that can equal them in curing stomach, bowel and teething troubles." Sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. William's Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

A SUMMONS was issued against John P. Malaney, Editor of the Woodstock Press by Police Magistrate Dibblee on Monday at the instigation of F. B. Carvell, the charge being criminal libel. Marshall Kelly served the summons on Tuesday morning. The article in question was copied from the Frederickton Gleaner, the substance being that Mr. Carvell was a partner in the Kitchen Co., now building a section of G. T. P. Railway. Mr. Carvell through his solicitor, Hon. W. P. Jones called upon Mr. Malaney for an apology, which not being made, the above act was instituted.

At a meeting of the committee of the Board of Trade Monday morning, J. T. Jennings and J. W. McCready were appointed to represent the Board of Trade at a meeting to be held at Centreville on Thursday evening, when the Board of Trade there will be reorganized and the Valley Railway taken up.—Frederickton Gleaner.

Death of W. B. Jewett.

F. L. Atherton received a telephone message Tuesday morning from Burnett Anderson Houlton, announcing the death of W. B. Jewett, which took place at a hospital in Portland Me., from the effects of an operation. Mr. Jewett had been in poor health for some time past although able to attend to his business.

Deceased was born in Woodstock in 1850 and learned the watch-making business with the late R. D. Baker. In 1874 he opened a jewelry store on his own account and was for many years the leading jeweller in town.

He left Woodstock about ten years ago and took up his residence in Buffalo and later removed to Houlton. He was of a jovial disposition and possessed of ready wit and has many friends in Woodstock who will regret to hear of his death.

He is survived by a widow, who was a Miss Sophia Raymond, daughter of the late John Raymond, of this town, and one daughter, Mrs. Fred Harrison of Houlton. There is a brother John living in the State of Maine. The funeral will take place on Friday and the interment will be made in Houlton.

Fourteen Years in Prison.

William Kelley, of Richmond, N. B., who was arrested for murderous assault on a revenue collector in 1902, was sentenced on Saturday, at Portland, Me., to 14 years in the Federal prison at Atlanta, Ga. In this case Kelley claimed he was arrested on New Brunswick territory and the matter is now before the authorities at Washington. Mr. F B Carvell, M. P., is Kelley's counsel. There is a strong feeling in Carleton county that Kelley is being badly treated.

A GREAT treat is in store for the people of Woodstock in the visit here of the Scotch Singers, of Glasgow, at the Hayden-Gibson theatre, Friday evening, Feb'y 11th, under the auspices of Ivanhoe Lodge No. 11, K. of P., composed of Miss Tina Crawford, the Scottish Prima Donna, acknowledged by press and public of Great Britain as the greatest living Scottish contralto. The associate artists of the company were personally selected by Miss Crawford from hundreds of applicants because of their particular fitness for the solo and ensemble work of the most difficult and exciting program.

HAVING promised to inform the public when I determined to leave Woodstock, I take the present opportunity of stating that I shall be able to serve the public in my specialty, viz the fitting of glasses and treatment of diseases of the Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat until March 7 h, 1910.—Dr. I. W. N. BAKER.

The concert held in the Hayden-Gibson Theatre on Tuesday evening last under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of St. Paul's Presbyterian church was a success. $153 00 was cleared. The ladies who had charge of the concert wish to thank the management of the theatre for their kindness.

The friends of Rev. Calvin Currie, of McKenzie, congregated at his home Friday evening, Jan. 21, and spent a very enjoyable time, and after partaking of a very sumptuous tea, which the ladies provided, departed, leaving Mr. Currie richer by more than $40.
