NEWS FROM THE COUNTY.

Bristol.

The Rev. W. P. Dunham rector of St. Adam passed through Bristol on Monday, 24th inst., on his way to the deanery at Florenceville.

The Rev. C. E. Maimann, of New Denmark and Mr. Gaskill, of Grand Falls, were the guests of Mrs. C. W. Brittain, on Tuesday.

Joseph Colton, of Johnville, was in Bristol on Thursday.

The funeral of Mrs. Theodore Rogers was held on Thursday afternoon at two o'clock and was largely attended. The service was conducted by Rev. D. E. Brooks.

Mr. and Mrs. Erlon Bell, of Stickney, Mrs. Harry Lipsett, Waterville, Mrs. Harry Tompkins, Millville, and Mrs. Wm. King, Woodstock, were in Bristol Thursday.

Miss Polly White sprained her ankle Wednesday. She is able to be out again.

Norman W. Atkinson has a fine stock of post cards, music and jewelry at the latest novelties—next door below post office.

We have been having very wet weather here for the last few days. The roads being bad there has been little or no business.

On Thursday the 27th, inst., the ice on the river started, but after running a very short distance became blocked again. This is something unusual for this time of year.

Practically all the men who have been at work in the woods are at home. Unless we get more snow right away there will be numbers thrown out of employment.

Mr. and Mrs. Tize Dyer are to be congratulated on the birth of a son.

Mrs. Alva Phillips and daughter, accompanied by Miss Wilson, of Florenceville, were in Woodstock for a few days.

The C. P. R. have a crew of men here putting in new steel bridges over the big and little Shikthawk. They expect to put in the larger one on Sunday.

On the evening of the 26th, Miss Annie Snyder, elocutionist, gave a very delightful entertainment. Miss Snyder's efforts were somewhat handicapped by the usual rough element in and around Bristol, helped by number who are at present putting in new bridges for the C. P. R. A little more backbone in the police force might help some.

It is hoped that in the coming summer the sidewalk will be finished and that the numerous openings for teams will be filled with gravel or cinders. At present it's an aggravation instead of a blessing.

Mr. John Hayward has closed his wood-working factory for the winter. It is not expected he will start work again before the first of March.

It is rumored that another store is to open in town. Bristol do grow.

Wicklow.

Jack Frost is a very welcome visitor here again this week. The ice in the river jammed down in several places but all hope we may have our bridge suitable for hauling in a few days.

Miss Addie Jewett is spending a few weeks with Mrs. Geo. T. Squiers.

Miss Mabel Estabrooks has been quite ill the past week with a severe cold.

Miss Lillian McCready, Jacksonville, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. H. L. Olmstead, returned to her home last week.

Mr. Hollon Estey and family, Florenceville, were visitors here Sunday.

While Mr. and Mrs. Bolster, Easton, Maine, were visitors at Mr. and Mrs. Upton Squiers' last week, one of their valuable driving horses had the misfortune of having its leg broken. Dr. White was summoned and under his skilful treatment thinks the animal will be around again in a few weeks.

Raymond and Randolph Hutchinson also Walter Southan, Solomon and Israel Drost returned from the woods last week. With no snow the camps have all been deserted.

While walking across the floor one day last week, Mrs. Edwin Squiers fell fracturing several ribs.

Miss Nellie Estey is able to be about again, having been laid aside the last two weeks with grip.

C. B. Wheeler is doing quite a business unnumbering this winter.

Otis Shaw has a crew sawing wood.

All eyes have been turned toward the west in the early evening to get a view of the comet for the last week.

Jacksonville.

Allan Burpee who has been occupying his old home for the past year, has gone to Cali-formia for the winter, to look after his claim in that state.

Mrs. Lydia Burpee, who has been living with her son, Allan, has gone to St. Mary's N. B. to make her home with her daughter, Mrs. Tucker. The homestead here will be re-opened in July.

Mrs. Benj. Burt has returned to her home here after several months pleasant visit in Centreville among her many friends there.

Miss Velma Tilley is at home again having finished a nursing engagement in Woodstock. Nurse Tilley is very popular in her professional work.

Ernest Estey returned from Boston, via Presque Isle where he has charge of potato shipping.

The many friends of Mrs. and Mrs. Geo. Hall are pleased to welcome them once more after an absence of three years in Anaconda, Montana. Mr. and Mrs. Hall will probably remain here.

Mrs. Howells Corbett, of Lakeville, is visiting Mrs. James Good and other friends. Mrs. Corbett is a member of the Baptist church here and was present at the Annual Roll-Call on Tuesday evening.

Miss Nancy Clarke has presented the Jacksonville Baptist church with an Individual Communion service costing twenty dollars. Miss Clarke is a rare example of sacrificing zeal for God. Christianity means something when the pocket is touched as well as the heart.

No one was disappointed by the splendid lecture on "London" which was delivered by Rev. W. N. Johnson in the United Baptist church on Tuesday evening last. Mrs. John Emery opened the program by rendering a Grand March on the organ, making a fine beginning for the subject to be discussed.

Rev. E. C. Turner, chairman, introduced the speaker in a happy manner. At certain points in the lecture, Mr. Johnson paused and a solo was rendered by Mrs. W. C. Good "My home is where the heather blooms" by De Koven, an organ solo by Miss Alice Tilley, two "Songs without words," Mendelssohn, by Mrs. Everett Ridley and Miss Watson "Rock of Ages." We hope that, through his vivid descriptive powers, we may take another trip to the great metropolis again, under the guidance of Mr. Johnson.

At the annual Roll-Call of the United Baptist church, a large number of the members responded to their names in person and by letter. A good sum of money was contributed.

Bath.

The death of Mr. Samuel Barker took place at nine o'clock at his residence here. The deceased was one of Bath's oldest citizens, he leaves a wife, three sons and four daughters all grown up.

Rev. B. Beatty occupied the pulpit of the United Baptist Church here last evening and delivered his closing address. Mr. Beatty has been on the field in this section now for the last four weeks, the last two were spent at Kilburn and vicinity.

John McCready has sold his store to Ezekiel S. Secord of this place who takes possession the first of April next. Mr. McCready is going to Vancouver B. C.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Barker of Listerville were in Bath on Monday.

Wm. A. Squires was a caller in Bath one day last week.

Most of the men and teams from this place that were in the woods have returned.

Florenceville.

Mr. and Mrs. William Moores and family leave Monday for Vancouver.

Miss Ida Wetmore of St. John, arrived on Monday 24th inst., and will act as typewriter and book-keeper for Dr. D. W. Ross.

Thomas Kinney an aged and respected citizen of Greenfield, died recently. Mr. Kinney had reached the advanced age of ninety years. The funeral was held on Wednesday 26th inst. Rev. J. D. Wetmore officiating.

Miss Jennie Pierce is ill with Bronchial Pneumonia.
