NEWS FROM THE COUNTY.

Wicklow.

Rev. Mr. Somers, Hartland occupied the pulpit in the Methodist Church Sunday. The stork visited the home of John D. Fulton last week and left a fine baby girl. Miss Marion T. Ety, returned Friday from a pleasant visit with friends in Presque Isle and Fort Fairfield. Chas. Giberson, Herbert Olmstead and Carey Estey along with several delegates from Bath waited on the Government last week in the interest of the Bath-Wicklow bridge. Mr. Albert Olmstead, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Andrew Bell, Fielding, returned home on Sunday. Beecher Hutchinson and family moved to Mars Hill, Tuesday where he has bought a farm. Miss Anna Blackie, Upper Brighton, has been spending several weeks with relative and friends here. T. H. Estey spent Sunday in Woodstock, the guest of his sister, Mrs. S. B. Appleby. Miss Jane Brooks, of Gordonsville, is visiting at the home of Henry Estabrooks. Raymond Hutchinson returned home from the woods last week. Miss Gladys Estey returned Tuesday to Fredericton to pursue her studies at the P. N. S., after spending the Easter vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Estey. Miss Nellie Blackie, of Upper Brighton is visiting friends here. Every one would have been charmed had they seen the remarkably brilliant display of Northern Lights on Sunday night about 10 o'clock. Misses Anna and Lena Hutchinson have moved to Upper Wicklow where they will be housekeepers for their brothers, Raymond and Randolph Hutchinson. Mrs. Chas. Holmes is visiting Mrs. H. H. Estabrooks. Latest report from Clarence Estey, who moved from here to St. Cloud, Florida at Xmas, says that he has entered the grocery business. We wish him every success in his new line of work. Messers Frank Estabrooks and Harry Shaw, of the Bank of N. B., spent their Easter vacation at the former's home.

Green Bush.

Spring has arrived with its mud and warm March winds and so THE DISPATCH arrives with some items from Green Bush. Amos Knowles, of Oakland, spent a few days here visiting old neighbours. Herbert Marsten is building a house. Messrs. Jasper Hillman and Sanford Gibson have returned from the woods. Lic. M. S. Blaisdell and wife left for Hartland to attend the quarterly meeting there. Mr. and Mrs. Judson Hillman are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter. Messrs. Watts and Harry Tompkins spent Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Tompkins. Frank Tompkins and son, of Dow Settlement, have been sawing wood here. They are good sawyers and well liked by the people. Miss Stairs, our teacher, left for Fredericton to spend her Easter vacation. Charles Barnett has recently purchased an apparatus for making honey. Mr. Lint, who has been ill for a few days, is recovering. David Tompkins was recently called to Southampton on account of the sickness of her brother, John S. Brooks.

Upper Kintore.

As the line gale has not blown us away, we make our appearance again. "Broken Links" was to be played by local talent Wednesday evening, March 23, in connection with a basket supper for the benefit of the Upper Kintore hall. Mr. Frances Mavor, of Kintore, is spending a few weeks with her daughter, Mrs. George Barclay. Mrs. Harry Glenville, of Houlton, is visiting with her mother, Mrs. Alex. Phillips. Most of the small lumber parties have finished hauling into Brown's mill, which seems to be doing good work. Quite a few of the young folk attended the Social at Kintore on the 18th. When a nice bunch of money was collected for the church. Little Isabel Christie fell on the ice Saturday and hurt herself quite badly, but we are glad to say not seriously. Talking to Mr. Marzser one of our leading potato merchants your correspondent was informed that the Ochan market is good for 20,000 bbls., but weekly, as they are being shipped from all points, England, Germany and United States included, the supply exceeds the demand. If these countries with their large cities and millions of people can export potatoes. Canada will need to go easier in that line and make her immense acres produce articles which these countries have to import.

Andover.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hagerman, of Keswick, have been the guests of Mrs. H. Tabbits. Miss Nita Wallace, Woodstock, spent the holidays with Miss Pearl Waite. Senator and Mrs. Baird and Mrs. Joseph Porter were visiting Mrs. Sadler, at Long Island, last week. John Curry, of the U. N. B., spent his vacation at his home here. Erma Kelly came home from Fredericton for Easter. Fannie Lawson spent Easter with her mother here. Misses Eva Cameron, Pearl Waite and Bessie Curry have returned from a pleasant visit at Ogilvy's camp, at the Gulquac. Mike McCluskey, of the B. of M., spent Easter at his home, Grand Falls. Herman Turner, of the B. of M., Fredericton, spent the week end with his mother here. Mrs. Wilson, Grand Falls, spent last week with Mrs. T. R. Cameron. Miss Rosa Hoyt visited friends in Woodstock over Easter. L. McKnight spent the holidays in St. Andrews and vicinity. Mrs. H. G. Boulton was "at home" to her friends Monday afternoon. Mr. George Burtt is the guest of his daughter, Mrs. T. J. Carter.

Florenceville.

The Misses Hughine A. McCain, Rose A. Parley, Clara Shannon and Sadie P. McKay, teachers, are spending their Easter vacations at home. Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Thompson and family have moved into the M. Cain house. Rev. D. Fiske returned home on Thursday from his mission on the Tobique. Rev. D. Wetmore is holding a series of special meetings at Connell. Mrs. M. R. Tuttle is on a trip to St. John. D. W. Hamilton of Fredericton is visiting his sister Mrs. Casper Caldwell. Rev. D. Fiske preached Easter Sermons at Greenfield, Sunday morning and Bristol in the evening to good audiences. Johnson Thompson gave valued assistance to Rev. J. D. Wetmore in the special meetings held at Peel, and is assisting also in those now being held at Connell. Mr. Thompson also wrought faithfully in Sunday School work in Greenfield during the absence of Rev. D. Fiske. Miss Cecil Sisson of Andover spent Easter with Miss Mabel Gallupe.

Debec.

Rev. Edmund Ramsey went to Kirkland, Wednesday, March 23rd, to attend the funeral of Mrs. James Davidson. Interment was made in the Presbyterian cemetery, Kirkland. At the meeting of the quarterly board of the Methodist churches of the Richmond circuit, a unanimous invitation was extended to Rev. E. Ramsey to remain as pastor for a second year. A variety show is being held in the Forresters Hall this evening. Their various attractions are bringing large crowds from the village and surrounding country. Potatoes are being shipped in large quantities. While the price is extremely low at the present time, the indications are that they will be selling at a better figure in the near future. A large pleasure party with Mrs. Gordon Neal as chaperon visited Scott's Siding, where the large portable mill owned by White and Patterson is situated. The party was most hospitably entertained and a most enjoyable time is reported. La Grippe still continues prevalent in and about the village. Those affected at present are Mrs. Ira Carson, Wilbur Carson, Emma Nason, Mrs. Wm. Craie, Mr. and Mrs. James Kirkpatrick, and Mrs. Howard Nason. Scarlet Fever has again broken out in the village but no alarm is felt as the disease is of a mild type. Mrs. J. K. Flemming, wife of Hon. J. K. Flemming, the Provincial Secretary, spent Tuesday in Debec, visiting relatives. Miss Georgia Deakin, sister of Mrs. F. R. Blair, spent the week at this village. Sprague Flemming, Arthur White and Gerald Sanderson, of Scott's Siding, spent Sunday at Debec. Howard Nason has been absent from the village on business. The lumber teams that have been working in this section, have all come out of the woods. Mrs. F. R. Blair, wife of the C. P. R. agent, has returned from St. John, where she has been visiting relatives. Mrs. E. A. Staire, of Clarkville, York county, was in Debec, being called here by the serious illness of her mother, Mrs. Charles Clark.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Meuthur and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kirkpatrick drove to Woodstock one evening last week to attend a play. A D. Holyoke, real estate agent, of Woodstock, was in the village recently. Mrs. Thos McDonald, spent a pleasant time in the village visiting relatives. Thompson Flemming, of Spearville, was recently the guest of Mrs. Gordon Neal. There was no preaching service in the hall Sunday night. Mrs. Milton Green, of Green road, spent a day early in the week with Mrs. G. Neale.

Perth.

Miss May McLeary returned on Monday from a short visit at Simonds. C. H. Wentworth, Boston, was in town on business on Friday. Mrs. C. C. Craig who has been very ill for some time is now gaining slowly. Miss Doucet, of Bath is nursing her. A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Geo. E. Armstrong on Monday last. Harry H. Hopkins has returned home, after taking a short course at the Fredericton Military school. Rev. Mr. Weddall, Woodstock, occupied the pulpit of the Methodist church here on Sunday. Miss Jamieson, of Florenceville, is the guest of Miss Carrie Armstrong. The ladies of the booklovers' Club gave a pleasant dining party to Port Fairfield on Tuesday. Rev. J. B. McDonald occupied the pulpit of the Baptist church Sunday, and it is understood has accepted the pastorate of the church here. A disastrous blaze broke out on Monday at noon which destroyed a boat house and carpenter shop belonging to George E. Armstrong. George Moorehouse has purchased a fine new piano from Mr. Ross. The Andover basketball team played the Presque Isle team Wednesday evening, with a score of 57-3 in favor of Andover. The Andover team has arranged for games with Odhis and St. Andrews to take place soon. Mrs. S. J. Brown is visiting friends in Woodstock. Miss Bessie Carvell is spending Easter at her home in Lakeville. Miss Mabie McLeod left on Thursday for a short vacation at St. Stephen. The funeral of Mrs. Charles Gay, who died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. M. H. Craig, Caribou, was held from the Primitive Baptist church here Sunday. E. W. Lulse and Mrs. M. H. Craig, son and daughter of Mrs. Gay are left to mourn the loss.
