The very sudden death of Charles A Wiggins occurred on Friday morning at 1 one a. m. the 7th inst, leaving a widow, one sister, two daughters and one son to mourn their sad loss. They are as follows, one sister, Mrs. Bedford Tower, of Bangor, Me., two daughters, Mrs. Thomas M. Wiggins, Young's Cove Road, N. B., and Mrs. William McBride, Oakeville, N. B. and one son W. H. Wiggins, of Sebastapol, California.

Mr. Wiggins had been in failing health for two years, but was never obliged to keep his to keep his bed very long, but the end came quickly and was a great surprise to many.

Mr Wiggins was born at Young's Cove, Queen's Co. N. B., but has been a resident of this place for many years, and in all his dealings with his fellow man he has always been found honest and upright by all. He was a consistent member of the Church of England, and as long as his health permitted he was always in attendance.

He was a member of the I. O. F. and was also a member of the Orange Lodge, and was highly respected by all. The funeral took place Sunday 9th inst at 2 p. m. at his late residence. The service was held at the house, the Rev. Mr. Francis officiating.

The Foresters marching in a body from the house to the cemetery, and at the completion of the Church of England service at the grave, they performed the last rites of the order to their late brother. It was a very imposing and touching ceremony.

CROSS, SLEEPLESS BABIES ARE SICKLY BABIES.

When little ones are sleepless and cross it is a sure sign that they are not well. Probably the little stomach or the bowels is out of order, or the child may be suffering from teething troubles. Give Baby's Own Tablets and see how quickly the child grows well and happy and sleeps soundly—not the drugged sleep of "soothing" medicines, but the natural sleep of health. Mrs. Edward Sicoord, Maskinonge, Que., says: "I have used Baby's Own Tablets for indigestion and other troubles of childhood, and they always work like a charm. They always keep my little one well." Sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Position of Parties.

London, Jan. 17.—At the conclusion of today's polling in the general elections, the parties stood as follows:

Unionists 92, Liberals 77, Laborites 16, Nationalists 13. Net gains for the Unionists 29.

The government fared much better today than their most ardent supporters expected. The Unionists gained 19 seats, the Liberals 4 and the Laborites 1, making a net gain for the Unionists for the day of 14, one less than they gained at fewer elections on Saturday.

This practically assures the return of the Liberals to power with a fair majority, for among the places still to poll are those in Scotland and Wales, which are always solid Liberal.

BORN.

BROOKS.—At Waterville, Carleton Co, Jan. 16, 1910, to the wife of Ernest C. Brooks, a son.

Death of Hugh Hay.

Hugh Hay, senior partner of the old established and well-known firm of Hugh Hay & Son, passed away at 6 30 o'clock on Sunday evening after a short illness of pneumonia in the 81st year of his age. Mr. Hay had just recovered from a serious illness and intended taking a trip to Atlantic City to visit his son, when he contracted the cold which terminated fatally.

Deceased was born in Cumberland Bay, Queens County, on November 24 h 1828, and moved to Richmond when a young man, where he engaged in milling. He then came to Woodstock, and in 1855 established the Glasgow House, which is today the oldest established business in Woodstock. Mr. Hay made many trips to the English markets where he personally selected his goods.

In the death of Mr. Hay, a conspicuous figure in the industrial and commercial life of the community has been removed. He was of a progressive nature, and always took an interest in anything pertaining to the welfare of the town. His loss will be felt by all classes of citizens. He was a member of St. Paul's Presbyterian church, and for many years was on the Board of Managers, and was Chairman of the Building Committee when the present church building was erected.

Mr. Hay was twice married. His first wife was Melissa DeB que, of Meductic. His second wife was Christina McKenzie, daughter of Captain McKenzie, McKenzie Corner.

The children of the first marriage are: W. W. Hay, of Woodstock, Dr. Hugh B. Hay, of Chipman, Queens County, Mrs. L. P. Farris, of White's Cove, Queens County and Clarence, of Aberdeen, Dakota. Of the second marriage there were two children, Arthur, who died several years ago, and Dr. Charles M. Hay, now in Atlantic City, and one brother Walter Hay of McKenzie Corner.

The funeral took place on Tuesday from the residence of W. W. Hay, Chapel street, at 2 o'clock, Rev. George D. Ireland officiating. The pall bearers were: Donald Munro, H. A. Connell, John McLaughlin and L. E. Young. The interment was made in the Methodist cemetery.

When Royalty is Entertained.

Dinner is the only meal at which the royal guests are expected to appear, when the King sits in the centre of one side of the table, as is his custom at home. Etiquette used to demand that only the royalties should be provided with menus, but this is not invariably observed at the present time. It is still "de rigueur" that there should be no finger bowls on the table, a custom dating from Jacobite days, when the partisans of the Stuart fused to pass their glasses across the finger bowls before drinking, which was their way of toasting "the King over the water."

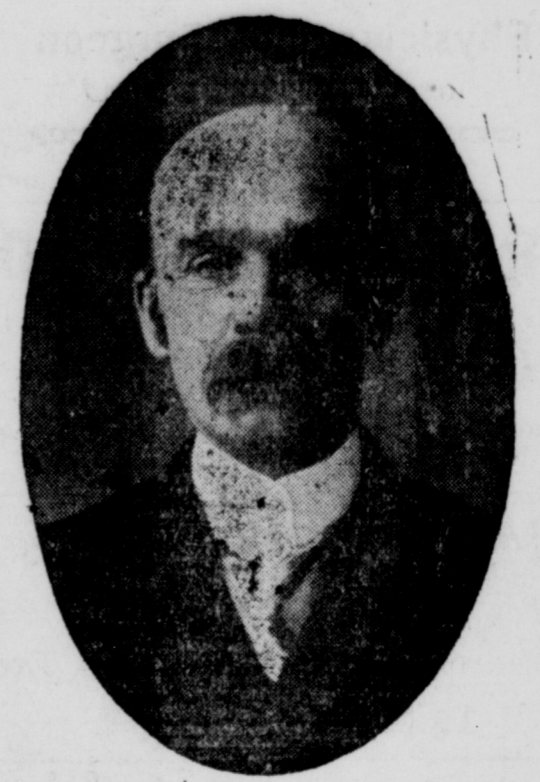

Should the royal guests be in mourning every other guest must appear in mourning of the same degree, and of course no one must dream of leaving before the royalties have retired. When the King is accompanied by the Queen the men must wear knee breeches and silk stockings, but not so when the King is alone. Another curious item of etiquette is that neither the Queen nor the Princess of Wales must ever be entertained by a bachelor.

A. D. Holyoke was in East Florenceville on Monday, adjusting the insurance on B. Frank Smith's mill which was burned on the 14th inst at Summerfield.

Town Election.

The town election were held on Monday, and although the vote polled was small, considerable interest was manifested. As will be seen by the figures given below, four of the old councillors were elected, and ex-councillor Fawcett, who also sat at last year's board was badly defeated. Following is the result:

Above is a cut of H D Stevens, who was unanimously elected Warden at the January session of the County Council. Mr. Stevens served several terms as chairman of the finance committee at the town council. He is a good business man and well qualified to fill the office to which he has been elected.

The Dark Days of Stomach Trouble

Obstinate Indigestion Can be Cured by a Fair Use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

No trouble causes more widespread suffering and discomfort than indigestion. The ailment takes various forms. Some victims are ravenous for food; others turn sick and faint at the sight of meals; but as a rule every meal is followed by intense pains in the chest, heartburn, sick headaches, dizziness and shortness of breath. Indigestion assumes an obstinate form because ordinary medicines only subdue its symptoms—but do not cure. So-called predigested foods only make the digestion more sluggish, and ultimately make the trouble take a chronic form.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cure indigestion because they go right to the root of the trouble. They make new rich blood that invigorates weakened organs, thus strengthening the digestive system so that the stomach does its own work. That is the Dr. Williams' way—the rational way—to cure indigestion and the ailments that arise from it. This has been proved time after time in the published cures wrought by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Miss Blanche Wallace, Dartmouth, N. S., says:—"I suffered greatly with my head and stomach, and often took fainting spells. I could not retain anything on my stomach and while I naturally craved food I really dreaded mealtime with the pain and discomfort that followed. I tried a number of remedies but got no relief. My mother was using Dr. Williams' Pink Pills at the time with so much benefit that she induced me to try them. The result was that soon the trouble had passed away, and I since enjoyed the best of health."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all medicine dealers or will be sent by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 by writing The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

In a Coal Pit Seventy Years.

(London Daily Times.)
Joseph Walton, of Darklands, Swadlincoote Burton, who has just retired to spend the evening of his life in a house next to that in which he was born, has achieved the remarkable record of working full time in a coal pit when close on 90 years of age. He has worked as a miner for about 70 years. He remembers the time when colliers worked twelve hours a day for half a crown, and he was one of the first to join the Miner's Association. Walton was one of a family of seventeen, and has two octogenarian brothers living.
