

County Council

In my report of last year I stated that there had been some convictions made against liquor dealers in St. John for shipping intoxicating liquor into this County and that the dealers had appealed three of the cases to the Supreme Court. The appeals were argued in April last at Fredericton and in June and November, judgments were given in my favour in all the cases. These decisions practically settle the question that it is unlawful to ship intoxicating liquor into a Scott Act County, and that the burden is upon the parties shipping it to show that it is for medical purposes or for personal use, and that the Police Magistrate here has jurisdiction to summon parties who send the liquor, before him, from St. John or elsewhere, and convict them, and to order that the liquor be destroyed. Of course the argument of these cases added considerable to the expense of enforcing the law, but it was absolutely necessary that the cases be fought out, and I am satisfied that these decisions of the Court will be of assistance to those who are endeavouring to enforce the Act in this and other Scott Act Counties. The fines and costs have now been paid and form part of the receipts of the year.

At the time of my last report there was another case pending before the Supreme Court, in which a druggist had replied a quantity of liquor that had been seized by me at the Railway Station. The Supreme Court decided this case also in my favor.

I have incurred a great deal of expense this year in connection with an information I laid against Charles N. Beal, a wholesale liquor dealer of St. John, for shipping intoxicating liquor, billed as Pure Apple Cider Vinegar, into this County. I seized the liquor under a Search Warrant, and in proving the case it was necessary to establish the fact that the liquor was shipped by Mr. Beal. We had a warrant issued and served upon the truckman in St. John whom we had reason to believe delivered the liquor at the station there, but the doctor refused to allow him to be brought here on the ground of illness. We had the case adjourned more than a dozen times, and we made investigations in St. John and found that the witness was too ill to travel and that we could get no other witness to supply the necessary evidence.

It is difficult to wholly prevent shipments of liquor into the County by rail because our officers cannot seize it without having a Search Warrant. In order to procure a search warrant we have to apply to a Magistrate after the liquor arrives at the station, unless we know it is coming, which is not often the case. As the liquor is usually taken away quickly by the parties to whom it is shipped, there is not time to have a warrant issued especially when the shipments are made to stations outside of Woodstock. We have made many seizures of liquor on the Boundary line and in other parts of the County. During the past year we have obtained convictions for the sale of lager-beer, which we have analysed, and now convictions can be made very readily for the sale, without proving that it is actually intoxicating in each case. In the year 1909 the following persons who were selling liquor illegally have, I understand, left the County, namely, George Scovil, John Carey, Jacob Reid, George McIntyre, Mary Gee, John Gee, and also an Italian who started to sell back of Bristol. Five persons have been convicted of second offences and four of them have left the County.

Sixty-nine cases have been tried and fifty-four convictions made. There are some cases now pending. The financial result to the County is that after payment of all bills and my own salary there is a deficit of three hundred and seventy-six dollars and sixty cents ($376 60) which is the net cost of the administration of the law for the year 1909.

I have annexed hereto a list of the cases and a statement of the financial result.

Dated this fifth day of January A. D. 1910

Respectfully submitted,

B. COLPITTS,

Inspector.

Chapped Hands AND Cold-Sores

Are your hands chapped, cracked or sore? Have you "cold cracks" which open and bleed when the skin is drawn tight? Have you a cold sore, frost bite, chilblains, or a "raw" place, which at times makes it agony for you to go about your household duties? If so, Zam-Buk will give you relief, and will heal the frost-damaged skin. Anoint the sore places at night, Zam-Buk's rich healing essences will sink into the wounds, end the smarting, and will heal quickly.

Mrs. Yellen, of Portland, says: "My hands were so sore and cracked that it was agony to put them near water. When I did so they would smart and burn as if I had scalded them. I seemed quite unable to get relief from anything I put on them until I tried Zam-Buk, and it succeeded when all else had failed. It closed the big cracks, gave me ease, soothed the inflammation, and in a very short time healed my hands."

Zam-Buk also cures chafing, rashes, winter eczema, piles, ulcers, festering sores, sore heads and backs, abscesses, pimples, ring-worm, etc., cuts, burns, bruises, scalds, sprains. Of all druggists and stores, or post free from the Zam-Buk Co., Toronto. Price 50c a box.

UNION BLEND TEA the Tea that satisfies

YOU know the kind of tea you like—will you let Union Blend prove its own case? That's all I ask. Simply go to your grocer, order a pound packet—or a half pound if you prefer—and see for yourself if it doesn't make half as many cups again as the kind you are using. Just count the cups. A tea at 40c. that goes half as far again as a 30c. tea is economy, isn't it? Your own teacup can be the judge—I'll stand by the decision it makes. Try it.

Union Blend one pound packets—the pound packets only—contain coupons that are worth money to you. But this is merely an advertisement—the tea itself is worth the price, fully.

Household Helps.

Potato parings dried carefully and kept in a glass jar are handy things to start a fire. Also infinitely safer than coaxing a blaze with kerosene or the even more deadly gasoline.

Ordinary table oilcloth makes a good covering for the kitchen floor. It wears well and is much cheaper than linoleum. To make it last longer it should be laid over a heavy felt paper such as is used under carpet. If the tables are covered with the same pattern of oilcloth it will give the kitchen quite a furnished up air.

A clothes peg if cut in half and inserted between the sash of a rattling window will prove a wonderful soother to nerves racked by constant banging at night. If the peg is two thick it may be easily whittled down to fit. It is also a wise precaution against robbers, as it is almost impossible to force up a sash so protected.

Soda water, which is an exceptionally good cleanser for most kitchen ware, should never be used on aluminum utensils, or they will speedily lose their bright look. Wash this metal in plain warm water and dry quickly on a clean soft cloth. Give an extra polish with a second cloth or piece of chamois.

With leaking jar, if all other means fail to insure them being air-tight, the edges of the lid should be covered with paraffine. Sometimes if two rubbers are put on instead of one, the leak will be stopped without recourse to any sealing substance.

A dip in boiling soapsuds once a week will have a wonderfully revivifying effect on a broom. It stands to reason, moreover that sweeping done with an unbathed broom will not be much better than an unswept state.

If you have a painted bath-tub it can be kept in good condition much longer if cold water sufficient to cover the bottom is first run into it before the hot water faucet is turned on. This will prevent the paint from blistering and cracking, nor will it so quickly turn yellow.

If a shower bath is out of question, but one of those attachable rubber tubings and sprays that can be bought for $1.00, and use it vigorously after your morning sponge. It is particularly essential to use a spray or showers of some kind after a hot bath to close the pores of the skin and prevent colds.

A soap shaker will be found a wonderful economy in the kitchen. The tiniest bit of soap may be utilized. In addition while a better lather may be made with the shaker there is never any danger of pieces of the soap adhering to the china as it sometimes has a mortifying habit of doing when maids are careless rinsers.

Conditions at High Levels.

Two German scientists, who recently ascended to a high level in a balloon, found that at 16 500 feet up they were obliged to inhale oxygen at intervals of from one to two minutes, otherwise they suffered from headache, palpitation of the heart, and shortness of breath. At a height of 23,000 feet to 27,000 feet it was found that they had to inhale oxygen continuously, one who stopped doing this for a moment, fainted from the effects. The effect of the strong sunshine, intense cold and insufficiency of air gave the face a terrifying appearance and produced cramps in the muscles.

It was also found that as the balloon ascended the number of germs decreased, and at 27,600 feet there was no germ life whatever.
