

"Is Good Tea"

J. P. Malaney Committed for Trial.

The examination of John P. Malaney, formerly editor of the Press, charged by F. B. Carvell, M. P., with criminal libel, was held Friday before Police Magistrate Dibblee. W. P. Jones appeared for Mr. Carvell, and J. C. Hartley for Mr. Malaney.

F. B. Carvell, sworn, said: I am a member of the House of Commons. I have seen a copy of the Press, Jan. 17. J. P. Malaney was the manager-editor. I know the Willard Kitchen Co. I complain of the article which appeared on the first page of the Press. (Mr. Carvell read the article in question, which said Mr. Carvell was a member of the Willard Kitchen Co.) I saw another copy of that paper in the reading room of the House of Commons being read by members of the House. Mr. Lennox, a conservative member, had a copy. I know of the Willard Kitchen Co., contractors for a section of the G. T. P., and that is the only company that could be included in the article. I know that Willard Kitchen is manager of the company, whose contract extends from Piaster Rock to one and a half miles above Grand Falls, being built by the National Transcontinental Railway Co. This company has been engaged in the work since 1908, or it may have been earlier, and are still engaged in the work. I am not a member of said company and have never been. I have never been a shareholder in inuendo or in any manner whatever. I have no expectation of ever receiving a dollar from said company. It does not effect me to the value of one cent whether that company fails or succeeds, and never has affected me. At the time the article was published I was occupying my place in the House of Commons.

Willard Kitchen, sworn, said: I have been a contractor for 23 years. The company is a joint stock company called The Willard Kitchen Co., Ltd. I know F. B. Carvell. He is not a member of the Willard Kitchen Co., and has never been a member or shareholder, and is not at present. The shareholders are: Willard Kitchen, 198 shares; Mrs. Willard Kitchen and daughter, one share each; H. G. Kitchen, 150 shares; S. B. Whitehead, 75 shares; G. B. Whitehead, 70 shares, making 500 in all. The shares were originally all held by me except a few which were necessary to organize the company. The stock book showed that the issues of stock were made by W. H. Berry. The last issue of stock was made on the 8th of January, 1909, to G. B. Whitehead. There has been no other person interested other than Berry, who held one share and a few minor shares.

W. P. Jones offered the stock book in evidence, which was objected to by J. C. Hartley. Mr. Jones also offered the minute book of the Kitchen Co. in evidence, which was objected to by Mr. Hartley.

Willard Kitchen—F. B. Carvell has never been interested financially or any other way. The officers of the company are Willard Kitchen, president, and W. T. Whitehead, secretary.

W. T. Whitehead, sworn, said: I am a member of the Willard Kitchen Co., and have been a member since its organization. I transferred my shares to my sons, who are at present shareholders in their own right. I am still a shareholder. I hold five shares and my sons 75 and 90 respectively. F. B. Carvell is not a member of the company, and has never been to my knowledge.

Mr. Jones read from the act relating to members of parliament, which refers to Chap. 71, S. C., 1903, which is an act governing the construction of the G. T. P., providing that no member of the House of Commons shall be a party to or interested directly or indirectly in any contract. Mr. Carvell was charged with the commission of a crime really, although not in the criminal code, perhaps the greatest offence that could be charged against a member of parliament. Even although bitter feeling might exist arising out of political controversies, a member of parliament must take notice when he is charged with stealing the people's money, for it really amounts to that. He is also by this article held up to ridicule and contempt, and that is libel according to the criminal code.

Magistrate Dibblee committed Mr. Malaney for trial at the County Court which meets the second Tuesday in March, Mr.

Malaney being admitted to bail in his own recognizance of $500, with two sureties, Geo. E. Balmain and J. C. Hartley, $250.

In the Press of Monday last, the following statement is published:

A STATEMENT.

On Friday, February 4th, I appeared before Police Magistrate Dibblee, in the libel suit of Mr. F. B. Carvell, M. P., and after hearing the evidence of Mr. Willard Kitchen, president of the Willard Kitchen Company, and Mr. W. T. Whitehead, secretary treasurer of said company, and Mr. F. B. Carvell himself, I am satisfied that the statement made by me in The Press of Jan. 17th, of which I was then editor, that Mr. Carvell was a member of Willard Kitchen Company, was erroneous. Having learned the facts I am glad to make this statement.

JOHN P. MALANEY.

Woodstock, Feb. 7th, 1910.

It is understood that the above explanation is satisfactory to Mr. Carvell, and that the matter will not go into the courts.

Temple.

The weather being mild during the past week made the roads almost impassible with sleds so we are glad to have a little snow and cooler weather considering the amount of hauling to be done.

The ice in the river is still firm at this place and we certainly were favored with such fine places to cross the river both here and at the ferry.

William Slaney has been ill but we hear he is improving in health which is encouraging. Charles Grant, of Woodstock, was in Temple, Saturday.

Mrs Herbert Marsten, of Meductic, was guest of her parents, Mr and Mrs Geo Shaw, last week.

Mrs Moore, of Wilberham, Mass, and Mrs J F Grant, of Grand View, were guests of Mrs W T Hatfield, Saturday.

P M Shaw spent Sunday at his home here. Sydney Ingraham spent Saturday with his parents here.

The roads have been very rough for some time and the mails detained but our driver, Mr Maxon, tries to be as prompt as possible.

A Brilliant Affair.

The second annual Ball by Dr. and Mrs. Green, of Centreville, came off last night and was a most brilliant affair. In addition to many of our town people, invitations were sent out to Grand Falls, Bath, Bristol, Lakeville, Hartland, Woodstock and Florenceville on this side of the line as well as to Mars Hill, Blaine, Robinson, Easton and Bridgewater in Maine and nearly all these places were well represented.

The guests arrived at the Hotel and were received by Dr., Mrs and Miss Green. From there an adjournment was made to Sherwood's Opera House which is splendidly suited for such a function.

When dancing commenced, at nine o'clock there were upwards of seventy-five couples in attendance and this number was added to considerably during the evening.

Palmer's full Orchestra of seven pieces furnished music and it is needless to say it was of a high order. The rendering of the Mocking Bird Solo by the Orchestra was highly appreciated. At midnight there was intermission during which a very tempting supper was served at Dr. Green's Hotel.

The dancing being resumed, a regular programme did not satisfy the desires of the dancers and many extras were added and it was nearly five o'clock in the morning before some of the merry-makers left the ball-room.

The floor was in charge of Mr. Will White who had as aids, Messrs John Gilland, Lee Nicholson, Henry Gallivan, Clayton Kennedy and George Wilkinson.

The ball was voted a magnificent success by all who attended, and many were the complimentary things said to Dr. Green and his good wife for having provided an evening of such rare enjoyment.

A trader passing a converted cannibal in Africa, asked him what he was doing. "Oh, I am reading the Bible," was the reply; "That book is out of date in my country," said the foreigner. "If it had have been out of date here," said the African to the European, "you'd have been eaten long ago."—Baptist Commonwealth.

A Great Doctor Speaks of a Great Remedy

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Strongly Endorsed by One of the World's Greatest Doctors—Hope for the Sick.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People is the only advertised medicine in the world that has had the public endorsement of a doctor of world wide reputation. Such an endorsement stamps this medicine as being worthy of the confidence of every person who is sick or ailing. A great doctor would not risk his reputation unless he was absolutely confident, through a personal knowledge, that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will do what is claimed for them. Dr. Giuseppe Lipponi, one of the greatest physicians of modern times, for years the trusted medical adviser of the Pope, writes the following strong letter in favor of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills:

"I certify that I have tried Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in four cases of the simple anaemia of development. After a few weeks of treatment, the result came fully up to my expectation. For that reason I shall not fail in the future to extend the use of this laudable preparation, not only in the treatment of other morbid forms of the category of anaemia or chlorosis, but also in cases of neurasthenia and the like."

(Signed) Dr. GIUSEPPE LIPPONI, Via dei Giacchi 332, Rome

The "simple anaemia of development" referred to by Dr. Lipponi is of course that tired, languid condition of young girls whose development to womanhood is tardy, and whose health, at the period of that development, is so often imperilled. His opinion of the value of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills at that time is of the highest scientific authority, and it confirms the many published cases in which anaemia and other diseases of the blood, as well as nervous diseases, have been cured by these pills, which, it need hardly be mentioned, owe their efficacy to their power of making new blood, and thus acting directly upon the digestive and nervous system. In all cases of anaemia, decline, indigestion, and all troubles due to bad blood, and all affections of the nerves, as St. Vitus' dance, paralysis and locomotor ataxia, they are commended to the public with all the greater confidence because they have the strong endorsement of this great physician.

Notice to Farmers.

I wish to call attention to the fact that owing to the extreme low price of potatoes, I was forced into the market to see if I could get anything for my potatoes. On landing the first car in St. John I cleared 90 cents a bbl. Now to try and break up this low price that is going on I am going to pay 80 cents a bbl. for what I can car away. Having no potato house I can only handle what I can car away. What is being done to the farmers is an outrage. I could only get 65 here and I cleared 90. Is it fair for the middle man to have half. Compare his work with the farmers and see who is entitled to the money. I will be found at Thomas Noddin's hay house.
