Russell Comedy Company.

Brunswick Friday may 18—In Town Hall last Monday night a company of artists headed by A. Russell Jones presented a clever and amusing entertainment, including a variety of acts and sketches and the laughable comedy Mr McPhee's Reception. The production is a new one and no expense has been spared in making a combination of artists that will please the public. One of the leading acts is that given by Annie Ross, singing comedian, whose clog dancing is worth the price of admission. Ray Marshall a pretty sobrette, is also a charming dancer. Miller & Princeton presented a novelty musical act that made a big hit. Cunningham & Pierce are a strong comedy sketch team. John Ferguson is a clever Irish comedian. One of the most wonderful vaudeville numbers in the program was the rifle shooting by A. Russell Jones. The company gives an entertainment without a dull feature. Many will be interested to know that the show is managed by C. H. Prouty, who is one of the best known and most popular travelling managers in this part of the country. Hayden-Gibson Theatre Tuesday June 9th.
