One of the Italians in Taylor's force while at work in the big cut at Gould Brook on the G. T. P. on Monday was severely injured. A stick of dynamite, one of a charge of several sticks, failed to explode, but in some way the failure was not noticed by the man or foreman. Later in the day the injured man, Nicolo Cavalli, while working set off this stick, receiving injuries in the face and left arm. His escape from sudden death was miraculous as he was standing directly over the hidden charge. Mr Taylor at once hurried the injured man to the Woodstock hospital, where it is hoped good medical attendance may save the man his eyesight.

Young's Cove Road.

The fields are white with snow this morning, a very rare occurrence for this season of the year.
But last Saturday, April 20th, the people in this place saw something which they never saw before, even to the oldest resident. The wind was from the south with a very heavy snow storm and at the same time, we had a very heavy thunder storm, the lightning was very sharp and the thunder very heavy and it lasted nearly all Saturday afternoon.

Although the weather has been cold and snow has been falling for nearly a week, the grass is growing very rapidly.

For the first time, in the thirty years that the Steamer May Queen has been running on the Grand Lake and St. John route, she, after having attached her bow and stern lines to the wharf at Young's Cove yesterday morning on her down trip, had to proceed on her way without making a landing, on account of the heavy wind which was blowing at the time, and it was with difficulty she was kept from going ashore.

Mr. Lenord, General agent for the National Mfg Co, with Maritime Branch at Moncton was here yesterday in the interests of the Co.

Mrs. C. H. Mott and eldest son, Otty, have been spending the week in St. John, visiting friends.

Mrs. W. T. Snodgrass who has been in poor health is improving.

Centreville,

C. M. Sherwood is building a large addition to his store, adding a cold storage plant.

Many of the town folk were pleasantly entertained by the Gibbs family last week. Much interest was taken in the contest.

The Rev. Mr. Waldon is conducting a series of revivals with great success.

We are going to hear of the Rev. Mr. Furgeson's resignation. He intends going to Caribou.

Arbor day is past, much was done by beautifying the school grounds with many ornamental trees.

E L West has sold his valuable Hackney mare, to David Good, of Goods Corner.

Florenceville

Mrs. Martha Phillips, of Bristol, who spent the winter in Florida, has been visiting at Casper Caldwell's.

Basil Elkins, of Lower Greenfield, who has been ill for over a year of tuberculosis, died on Thursday a m, the 5th inst. His remains were interred in the family burying ground, by the school house on Friday p m. The services at the house and grave were conducted by Rev. D Fiske. John, 14th Chapter, was read as had been requested by the deceased. The Text was Luke 19:10. Basil's was the fifth death that has taken place in the Elkin's home from the same disease; the mother, three daughters and this one son having thus passed away. There is a touching pathos in the loneliness of the two remaining sons, William and Robert. May the Divine Comforter grant them richly His sustaining grace. Basil was 22 years of age.

Flags have been hanging at half mast in consequence of the death of the King, Edward the Peacemaker; Truly to him did this appellation apply. Never before does your correspondent believe was a sovereign so conspicuous for this beautiful characteristic. His taking away at so vastly important a crisis in British politics is a lesson to British statesmen and subjects, that no life however capable is necessary. God alone is Ruler.

Chester.

Rev. D. Fiske occupied the pulpit of the United Baptist Church on Sunday evening.

Arbor Day was observed on Friday last in the Wicklow school. The grounds present a most pleasing appearance. Neat flower beds were made and a hedge planted under the efficient guidance of the teacher, Miss J. Elizabeth Maddox.
