COUNTY COURT.

The regular December term of the County Court opened yesterday morning in the Court House. His Honor Judge Carleton, presiding. There are two jury cases on the docket. TEACHER'S INSTITUTE

The joint Institute of the Teachers of Carleton and Victoria Counties will be held in Woodstock, December 22nd and 23rd. This Institute is always well attended and the program indicates that the interest this year will be equal to any in the past. As the meeting is held the last two days of the term it affords every one an excellent opportunity to attend. The usual one fare rates have been arranged for.—R E Estabrooks, Sec.

TOWN COUNCIL.

At Friday evening's meeting of the town council matters of routine were dealt with in connection with the winding up of the year's business. About all the bills are in hand and whatever showing the council makes, it expects to have everything in clear shape for its successors. The list of unpaid taxes was examined, and the officials were instructed to collect them all in by the end of the month. The Superintendent of waterworks stated that he expected to make a good showing after the 15th, which is the limit beyond which legal steps will be taken to enforce payment.

A GOOD POSITION

Can be had by ambitious young men and ladies in the field of "Wireless" or Railway telegraphy. Since the 8 hour law became effective, and since the wireless companies are establishing stations throughout the country there is a great shortage of telegraphers. Positions pay beginners from $70 to $90 per month, with good chance of advancement. The National Telegraph Institute operates six official institutes in America, under supervision of R R and wireless officials and places all graduates into positions. It will pay you to write them for full particulars.

NEW ICE RINK.

All the people who skate, and they are very many in this town, will be glad to learn that the season will not be over with the present open air skating on the Creek. Robert S Corbett and G W Grew are already well on with the construction of a rink on the creek just a little bit above the bridge. A large and commodious building is being put up. Arrangements are being made to have the band on certain evenings, and, in fact, it will be like the good old days when you could skate any evening in the week. This will be great news all around, for of all the winter sports there is nothing like skating. The Manager of the new rink will be B Green. Further announcements will be made later on.

AN OLD RESIDENT.

Mrs Ann Hoyt is a coloured woman of this town who is said to have arrived at the ripe old age of 105. At the time of writing she is very ill and is not expected to recover. Up to this illness she was able to talk intelligently and as her memory carried her back over so many years, she had many interesting memories of old times in Woodstock. To a visitor who was talking with her not very long ago, she said that she remembered when the land on which the church of England now stands was an open field, and when it was a great place to go "berrying." Of course she had many recollections of other matters connected with the early history of the town, but, unfortunately, for the future historian of Woodstock, like the recollections of many aged people, they have not been taken note of when the time was opportune.
