NEWS FROM THE COUNTY.

Centreville.

Rev. Mr. Walden occupied the Baptist pulpit here last Sunday morning and evening. A heavy shower coming on before the close of the meeting made a good many of the ladies feel quite anxious about the stock of millinery carried at the time. The storm continued all night accompanied by heavy thunder and lightning and on Monday set in for our regular days raining.

The school meeting will be held this year on Monday July 11th, giving all a chance to have their taxes paid and be legally entitled to vote.

Wm. J. Owens is still working with men and teams on the highway and will soon have his contract completed. Some little complaints have been made because this work was not done before but it can easily be seen that a much better job will be done by allowing the foundation of the road to get well settled before finishing the top coatings of gravel.

A good many of the young men of the place went to the drill grounds at Sussex.

The usual harvest excursion will take a number again to the western wheat fields and it is more than likely that some who will go will remain.

A telephone message to Harvey Kinney at Sussex caused him to make a quick trip to his home here, his son Clayton having been taken with a severe attack of appendicitis. The young man is recovering under medical treatment.

Rev. George Ayer preached his farewell sermon here last Sunday to a full house. Mr. Ayer goes to Jacksonville and has during the time he has labored on this circuit made many staunch friends.

Miss Alice Harold has been engaged by the Cogswell Settlement school trustees for another year with a substantial increase in salary.

Miss Belle Simonson came home for the holidays after the close of her school in York county.

Prospects for crops above the average were perhaps never better than now.

Painters are very busy here now. The Agricultural buildings are receiving their full share of attention.

People are more interested this week than ever in Ramsey's Points for the home. They seem to be the only artistic color creation in the paint line and are not dear. They are on sale at the store of Estabrook & Sherwood.

Plaster Rock.

July 3.—Mrs. J. N. Frapp was taken to the C. C. Hospital on Tuesday where she was operated on by Dr. Rankin.

Miss Lawson died very suddenly last week. She had only been ill a few days with measles.

A very pretty wedding took place at high noon on Wednesday the 29th, at the home of I. R. Cameron, when his only daughter, Eva Britt, was united in marriage to John William Pickering, of Darnley, P. E. I., by Rev. Gordon Pringle, of Kincardine. The ceremony took place on the lawn which had been tastefully decorated with ferns and flowers by the girl friends, in the presence of about sixty guests. The bride was attended by Mrs. Currier, of Carleton. She looked very pretty in a gown of embroidered silk mail with veil and orange blossoms and carrying a shower bouquet of roses. After the ceremony a dainty luncheon was served by the young ladies under the direction of Mrs. Waite and Mrs. McAlary. The happy couple took the afternoon train for their home in P. E. I., amid showers of confetti and old shoes, and followed by the best wishes of many friends.

Miss Jennie Tweedle, trained nurse, is at H. H. McCain's, taking the care of H. J. Gordon.

Mrs. Samuel York, has been a visitor at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Roy McCain. Over thirty from Florenceville, Greenfield and Chester attended the Presbyterian picnic at Plaster Rock, on Dominion Day. This number included the Carleton Cadet Band, who gave excellent service, winning for themselves much credit. Their leader, H. D. Thompson, is enthusiastic in his praise of the treatment accorded the band.

Rev. M. H. Manuel and bride, nee Miss Annie Hemphill, of Debec, arrived at the Manse on Friday, the 1st inst. They made their appearance at Greenfield on Sunday. An informal reception will be given them at the Manse on Wednesday evening. They will receive after Tuesday, the 19th inst.

Miss Kate Thompson entertained a number of her friends at tea, and presented a sun-shade to Miss Jennie Pierce.

Young's Cove Road.

The weather in this section has been so wet, that the farmers have not finished seeding.

While your correspondent and a "Globe" representative were driving on the road here the other morning, a very large bull moose crossed the road about eight rods in front of horse, it did not seem to be afraid, he rather liked the presence of newspaper men.

The summer school examinations in Unioa Settlement, was held in the school house on Wed. June 29th, a large number of parents of the scholars were present, who heard a very fine programme. The teacher, Miss Louise Ferris, is retiring this term, much to the regret of both scholars and parents. The scholars presented Miss Ferris with a very handsome gold ring, and one of the scholars, Miss Elva Fanjoy delivered a splendid address.

The summer closing of Mill Cove school, was held yesterday afternoon, the 30th. A very fine programme was rendered, and the school showed great progress under the splendid tuition of their teacher, Mr. E. L.
