NEWS FROM THE COUNTY.

Florenceville.

At the home of Mr and Mrs Alonzo Taylor another of the oldest residents of East Florenceville passed away on Thursday the 16th inst. in the person of William Boyer, aged 72 years. He has left an aged widow, who was a Miss Rideout and one of the former teachers in this county, also two sons W. W. and Fred and one daughter Mrs Alonzo Taylor to mourn their loss. The greeting of Mr Boyer was one of the pleasantest one could receive in a days journey. The funeral took place on Saturday a.m., the interment was made in the cemetery near the bridge. Services at home and grave in charge of Rev J. D. Wetmore, who preached an impressive and instructive sermon. B. F. Smith acted as funeral conductor.

Mr and Mrs Samuel McCain attended the wedding of Miss Ada Catherine Boyer at Woodstock on Wednesday the 15th inst.

William Smith left on Saturday for the Woodstock hospital accompanied by his father Llewellyn Smith. William was sick with typhoid fever.

The reorganization of the Greenfield Sunday School took place on the 19th. Officers James McCain, Supt; Thomas Caldwell and Rev D. Fiske, Assistant Supt; Claude McCain, Sec Treas; Charlie Kilpatrick, Librarian; and Miss Jennie Kilpatrick, organist.

Centreville.

Rev Mr Charleston, of Cogswell Settlement, died last Tuesday. The burial took place at Knoxford, on Wednesday afternoon when the aged pastor was laid to rest beside the remains of his wife, who predeceased him some three or four years. He had not been engaged in pastoral work for some time owing to his enfeebled condition of health. He was 86 years old.

Rev Mr Walden occupied the Baptist pulpit here last Sunday morning and evening. He also held service at Good's Corner in the afternoon at which places there were large and attentive congregations. It is to be regretted that he cannot be induced to remain and complete the work of revival broken off a short time ago.

Barrie Bartley, of Knoxford, was married last Wednesday to Miss McGrath of the same place. Mr and Mrs Bartley will make their home in Upper Knoxford.

Roadmaking has been started again and it is to be hoped that the unsightly winrows of stone along the sides of the highway, that have been thrown up year by year, will this year be removed. The frequent rains have made the roads so full of ruts that much work will be required to make them passable.

The Annual school meeting will be held on the second Monday in July this year. The trustees in Centreville District have engaged Robert B. Masterton, of Havelock, Kings Co., as Principal and Miss Bullock continues in charge of the Primary Department. Scholars in both departments have made good progress during the past term, and many express regret that Miss McLeod has decided to leave.

We hear a great many people are beginning to ask about Ramsay's Paints already. Everybody who has a home of any kind should see these fine paints at the store of Estabrook & Sherwood, Centreville.

The farmers in this section are well along with their seeding, perhaps a larger quantity of grain being put in this year than common. A young daughter of Charles Reed, of Williamstown, while working at Monticello had a very severe attack of appendicitis and was removed to the Hospital in Houlton, where an operation was very successfully performed and at last account Miss Reed was pronounced passed all danger.

Mrs Earl Miller, of California, is visiting at the home of her parents. Mr and Mrs George Reed.

Among recent arrivals in Centreville is

Les Scholey, son of Mr and Mrs H. T. Scholey.

The Agricultural Field Meeting was not as largely attended as was anticipated it would be, but the meeting in the Opera House in the evening was quite largely attended by the farmers who were too busy to leave their farms during the day.

The crops in this section never looked better at this season of the year. The hay crop promises to be very heavy.

Young's Cove Road

There was a lively time on and around Young's Cove Wharf, on Wednesday afternoon the 15th inst, when a horse attached to an express wagon and two horses attached to a heavy farm wagon, ran away, colliding with carriages and nearly running down pedestrians and throwing Miss Cora Mott who was driving the horse in the express wagon out and bruising her up considerable and it was only by a miracle she was not killed.

Gordon Clarke the hired man of Messrs D and C. H. Mott, who owned the horses which ran away, was considerably bruised by trying to get into the wagon after having been thrown out.

She steamer May Queen was just coming into the wharf when the horses started; but she was far enough out, that she did not scare the horses as they were used to standing on the wharf when the steamer docks. The horses ran nearly a half mile, then ran to the lake and swam out, they came near being drowned by the heavy harness and wagons attached.

Mr C. H. Mott spent the first of the week in St. John.

Mrs Dr T. J. O. Earle and daughter, Miss C. Z. Earle are spending a few days in St. John visiting friends.
