HAVE RETURNED HOME

Ensign and Mrs Ash, Officers in charge of the local Corps here, who have for the past five weeks been on furlough owing to the very severe illness of Mrs Ash, arrived on Thursday at Woodstock again to carry on the work. Mrs Ash is far from being well yet, but seeing that they were needed so here decided to sacrifice herself in order that the Kingdom of God should not suffer.—J N.

QUIET EVENING.

Monday will probably be remembered as the quietest Halloween for many years. For sometime back the boys have been accustomed to making Halloween an excuse for all kinds of lawless conduct, but this year Chief Kelly evidently determined to put a stop to it. Extra men were stationed about the town while the chief himself in Mr Phillips auto went rapidly from place to place utterly disconcerting the boys and preventing the annual whole-sale destruction of property.

SPECIAL MEETING

A special meeting of Brunswick Rebe kah Lodge No 44 was held in the I O O F Hall November 2nd in honor of a visitation of their President, sister Mary Essery of Charlottetown, P E I, and Grand Marshall sister Olive Lindow of St Stephen, N B. On the evening of Thanksgiving Day, 31st ult, a very largely attended Thanksgiving meeting was held in Greenfield Presbyterian church. Products of Field and orchard graced the scene and incited the gratitude to the Bountiful Bestower. There was a full choir. Rev M H Manuel acted as chairman. A fitting and varied programme of nineteen items was happily carried through, every item rendered as every participant was there to take his or her part. The offering $18 was for Home and Foreign Missions, what was given in envelopes being specifically allotted by the givers, the loose collection was to be divided between the two missions. Mr Manuel in his address referred to the 500,000 blind people in India and the 21,000,000 of widows of that same country, so much needing the practical and sympathetic ministry of gospel leavend servants of Christ. The meeting was an inspiring one.

On Wednesday evening the 1st inst, a number of friends of Miss Louise Jewett gathered at her home in view of her intention to leave on Friday for her approaching marriage to Mr C E Hayward, superintendent of the New England Telegraph and Telephone interests. Their home is to be in Holyoke, Mass. The visit was that of a surprise party. It proved a pleasant one to Miss Jewett and her father, J E Jewett, whose last unmarried daughter was so soon to go forth from under the home roof. Games and conversation happily filled the hours. Refreshments brought by the visitors were passed round. Remembrances they brought with them were warmly appreciated. Among the gifts received by Miss Jewett were a number of gold pieces. On request Rev D Fiske stated the object of the gathering and conveyed the good wishes for "Miss Jewett's future. J E Jewett gave a feeling and fitting response. "Blest be the tie that binds," and "God be with you till we meet again," were sung. Prayer was offered by Mr Fiske. The meeting will be one of the bright mental photographs to hang in future on the wall of our young friend's memory. Miss Jewett left, as intended, on Friday. Her aunt, Miss Adeline Jewett, arrived from Toronto, and will take her place as home maker and keeper.

We have had one of the finest falls for plowing etc that the farmers can remember of. A great deal of work has been got through. Potatoes raised in price last week $1.15 per bbl.

Mr and Mrs Peterson, of Tracey Mills, were visitors at Beecher McCains on Saturday and Sunday.

Wesley Releaser has been a visitor for some days at A C Caldwell's. He has been quite ill, but your correspondent is very glad to learn of his marked improvement in health.

A presbyterial visitation of Greenfield congregation is arranged for tomorrow Tuesday evening, when Rev'd McDonald of Richmond, Ireland of Woodstock, Murray of Glassville and Pringle of Kincardine are expected to be present.

A Berry and J Buck were guests at Mr Fisher's on Sunday evening.

Mrs Holly Brewer, Grand Falls, is the guest of Miss Nina Wallace.

Wm V Darling returned on Friday from a week's visit to Toronto.

Miss Matthew went to Gibson for the holiday.

Curing Catarrh.

Accept Our Advice and Try this Remedy at Our Risk.

Catarrh is a disease of the mucus membrane. The mucus membrane is, one may say, the interior lining of the body. Catarrh therefore may exist in any part of the system.

When the catarrhal poison attacks the mucous membrane inflammation and congestion are produced and nature fails to throw off the accumulated poisons. The organ which has been afflicted ceases to perform its proper function as nature intended it should. The result is, complication upon complication, which may lead to other even more serious afflictions.

We honestly believe Rexall Muc-Tone will do wonders toward over-coming catarrh. It is made from the prescription of an eminent physician who made a long study of catarrh, and his great success with this remedy was an enviable one.

We want you if you are a sufferer from catarrh in any form, to give Rexall Muc-Tone a thorough trial. Use it with regularity and persistency for a reasonable time, then if you are not satisfied, come back and tell us, and without question or formality we will hand back to you every cent you paid us. This is certainly the fairest offer that any one could make and should attest our sincerity of purpose. It comes in two sizes, prices 50c and $1.00. Remember you can obtain it only at—E W Mair's—The Rexall Store.
