

At Beulah Camp

Generous Offer Made by Mr Bullock.

The attendance at the service at Beulah Camp Friday was large. Rev Mr Walker occupied the pulpit at both services and delivered two interesting sermons. At 2:30 p m an ordination service was held, at which Messrs H S Dow, A F Turner, and F H Clark were ordained to the ministry. At the service Rev M S Trafton preached the ordination sermon, Rev H H Cosman asked the questions. Rev P J Trafton gave the hand of good fellowship, Rev J H Coy read the charge to the candidates, Rev A H Trafton read the charge to the people, and Rev G B Trafton offered the ordination prayers. One of the candidates, who was to have been ordained was not present and will be ordained at the Rivers de camp meeting in August. At 4 p m a business meeting of the alliance was held at which the matter of improvements on the camp grounds and the new hotel was taken up. It was found that the improvements came to $11,000. In discussing the ways and means of meeting the expenditure a generous offer was made by Mr Joseph Bullock. He stated he would give dollar for dollar for all money raised to the amount of $4,000. A canvass of the camp was made and $1,500 secured. It is expected to raise the remainder of the $4,000 which will give $8,000 toward wiping out the debt. It was decided to keep the grounds and hotel open until September 1, and Rev Dr H P Sanders was appointed to take charge of the services until that time. Rev F A Blake and Rev H C Archer were appointed a committee to arrange for running the hotel until September 1. The camp meetings will be brought to a close on Sunday night.—St John Globe.

World's Missionary Conference at Edinburgh.

Moncton, July 5th.—Rev J A Glendinning, a returned missionary from the Baptist field in Telegu, India, and who was one of the delegates from New Brunswick at the recent World's Missionary Conference in Edinburgh, has returned to Moncton, where he is spending his furlough. Mr Glendinning gives an interesting account of the great gathering in Edinburgh, where about three thousand delegates were in attendance from all parts of the world. It was a remarkable conference," he said, "remarkable for the business like efficiency with which the reports were prepared. Nothing slipped or haphazard appeared at any point." As previously reported, eight commissions reported on various topics. Mr Glendinning gives an interesting account of the manner in which the proceedings were conducted. One day of the conference was devoted to each report. The morning and afternoon session were occupied with the debate upon the report of the day, and in the evening there were platform addresses upon important matters more or less closely connected with the work of the day. Each morning at their homes the delegates received the conference daily paper containing the programme of the day; all notices and announcements and the minutes of the preceding day. Corrections to the minutes were suggested by means of written communications to the business committee. Usually within fifteen minutes of the opening, each day, the chairman of the commission reporting that day was in the midst of the introduction of his report. All reports, of course, had to be taken as read the chairman merely presenting the gist of the report, and explaining and emphasizing where necessary. Then followed the debate. Any delegate wishing to speak to any point of the report under consideration sent up a card through the usher, giving his name and stating the point upon which he wished to speak. From the large number thus sent in the chairman of the meeting selected those who should be given an opportunity. Each speaker was allowed seven minutes in which to make his point. This method was found eminently satisfactory though of course many who wished to speak were disappointed."

Sparking of the interest taken in the proceedings, Mr. Glendinning says that at every session it became more difficult for non-delegates to obtain seats. "The conference," he says, "was remarkable for the number of delegates of distinguished social and political position who were present as eager participants throughout the conference."

"It was a remarkable conference for what it means for the future of foreign missions. It is impossible to predict just what the results will be; but the conviction prevailed that the conference, as a great council of war will be of tremendous importance to the missionary enterprise."

Rev. Mr. MacGillivray was accompanied by Rev. Mr. MacGillivray, pastor of St. John's Presbyterian church, Moncton. The latter has not yet returned, having been granted recently a three months' leave of absence.—St. John Globe.

Demonstration Orchards in Ontario

An awakening is taking place among the apple growers in many sections of Ontario, due to the fact that the demand for fruit is much greater than the supply. For years splendid orchards in different parts of this province have been sadly neglected, with the result that they have ceased to be profitable, and in some cases were an actual loss to their owners. This was particularly the case in the Georgian Bay district. Last spring, however, the representative of the local branch office of the Department of Agriculture situated at Collingwood, made arrangements to conduct a number of demonstration orchards, somewhat after the manner of the "Illustration Orchards" which are being conducted by the government in various parts of the Maritime provinces.

Recently an editorial representative of THE CANADIAN HORTICULTURIST, a monthly fruit growers' magazine published at Peterboro, Ont. visited this section and made a tour of the six demonstration orchards situated in that district. He found that already great interest is being aroused among the fruit growers in the vicinity of these demonstration orchards as a result of seeing what can be done with an orchard by proper spraying, pruning and cultivation.

A well illustrated article dealing with the apple growing situation in Ontario generally, and in the Georgian Bay district in particular, appears in July issue of THE CANADIAN HORTICULTURIST. It also contains, among other things, timely and instructive articles on thinning and summer pruning control of codling moth, peach leaf curl, and the text of the new Destructive Insects and Pests Act. A copy of this issue may be had on application to the above address.

DR WM J ROLFE, THE AUTHOR, IS DEAD.

Dr William J Rolfe of Cambridge, Shakespearean scholar, author and editor, died on Thursday at the home in Tisbury, Mass., of his son, Charles J Rolfe. Dr Rolfe was born in Newburyport in 1827 and graduating from the Lowell High School and from Amherst College, became a high school teacher.

He was given degrees of master of arts by both Harvard University and Amherst College and his alma mater bestowed on him the degree of doctor of literature. From 1865 to 1907 Dr Rolfe was a prolific contributor to literature, as an editor and author. He is probably the foremost of Shakespearean scholars and much of his work has been in editing Shakespeare's editions and writing Shakespeare's life.

Other poets also received his editorial attention and he is the editor, too, of a handbook on Latin poetry of fairy tales and book on miscellaneous subjects. He is the author of a course in physics and of a European guide book. Dr Rolfe was married in 1856 Eliza J Carew, of Dorchester. He is survived by three sons, Prof. John Rolfe of the university of Pennsylvania, Prof. Geo Rolfe and Charles J Rolfe.—St John Globe.

At Camp Sussex

Sussex, July 7.—The annual march past and review of the troops took place this afternoon, the four regiments of infantry in their uniforms of brilliant scarlet parading before the D. O. C. and some of the officers of his staff. It was an inspiring sight.

Orders for entraining were issued to day whereby the troops will leave camp commencing tomorrow afternoon. Most all the Corps will have left camp by noon Saturday but the Army Service Corps will not depart until Monday.

Considerable interest was manifest this afternoon in the competitive drill engaged in by the companies of the 71st Regiment for the cup donated by Capt. Woodrich for the best drilled company. A company Capt Guthrie, of Marysville and "B" Company Capt. Murray of Burt's shared equal honors in the competition.

There was a brilliant performance in high jumping near the Y. M. C. A. tent this evening. Brooks of the U. N. B. Howe of Acadia and Goss of Acadia were the contestants Goss and Brooks cleared 5 feet 8 inches and Howe but two inches less. This is one inch higher than the intercollegiate record held by Eaton of Acadia. Brooks won the broad jump with a leap of 19 feet 2.4 inches Goss and Howe tied with 18 feet 5 inches. In his fourth jump Goss reached 18 feet 10 inches while Howe in his fifth got out to 19 feet 8 1-2 inches. Howe and Brooks also ran 100 yards in fast time Brooks winning by a narrow margin.

The baseball match to-night between the A. M. C. and 73rd Regiment resulted in a victory for the former by a score of 5 to 0.

Sussex, July 8.—Owing to the wet weather to day the sham fight at Camp Sussex had to be abandoned. A few of the men left to-night, but the greater part remain in camp till Saturday. The fact that C. L. Humphries is pleased with the camp is shown in the following extract from the camp orders for the day: The camp commandant desires to express his satisfaction at the manner in which camp duties have been performed by all ranks, during annual training and to especially thank the staff officers and officers commanding brigades and units for their assistance and for the zeal that has been displayed in carrying out camp orders and instructions. St. John Globe.

MORE CASH FOR EXHIBITORS AT DOMINION EXHIBITIONS.

Generous Increase Over Former Appropriations.

The generous increase in awards at the St John Dom Exhibition is possible through the grants of the Dominion, Provincial and Civic governments. Cattle prizes; especially in the Shorthorn, Hereford, Ayrshire, Holstein and Jersey classes have been increased 100 per cent.; in the Clydesdale, Shire and Percheron horse classes the increase is 50 per cent; Dairy breeds of cattle receive 125 per cent more money than on previous occasions, while sheep and swine breeders receive much greater incentive than heretofore. Poultry fanciers will be much interested in a new system of judging, and the prize list will vary with the number of entries in each class. Dairy awards have been revised upwards as well, after consultation with representatives of the Provincial department. A notable feature in this section of the show will be the separation in competition of the professional dairymen and the household butter-maker, special prizes being awarded for each. In the Horticultural department the prize list has undergone a lot of changes made with a view to improving the quality of exhibits. Naturally this has entailed the elimination of several classes of apple, not fit for competitive purposes so early in the autumn. The funds withheld on this account have been put into new classes. Potatoes will be judged in a new manner: instead of judgment being rendered in each individual variety, they will this year be classified in six types—White Round, White Long, Rose Long, Red and Black. The Women's Work and Household Science Department, also the Educational section, have been included in the increase of prize money. Entries in the Live Stock and Agricultural departments close August 1st.

BICYCLES OF QUALITY

Cleveland Rambler Standard

The Cleveland is without a doubt the peer of all the higher grade wheels—graceful in design, light weight, strong and rigid.

Built on the most scientific principals, two-joint bearing construction, accurately fitted, ground and hardened. Three-piece crank hanger, the most satisfactory, one-piece drop forged fork crown, no brazed joints.

With the Sills handle bars and cushion frame you get the pullman comfort over the roughest roads.

Absolutely Guaranteed

I also have the Rambler and Standard — two thoroughly good Bicycles, but a little cheaper than the Cleveland.
