HARVEST THANKSGIVING.

Special Harvest Thanksgiving services were held in Christ Church and St Luke's church on Sunday last. Both churches were adorned with flowers, grain and fruit. At St Luke's, the music was of a special character, and was well rendered, the regular choir being augmented by singers of other churches who kindly gave their services for the occasion. Appropriate and forcible sermons were preached by the rector.

A GOOD POSITION

Can be had by ambitious young men and ladies in the field of "Wireless" or Railway telegraphy. Since the 8 hour law became effective, and since the wireless companies are establishing stations throughout the country there is a great shortage of telegraphers. Positions pay beginners from $70 to $90 per month, with good chance of advancement. The National Telegraph Institute operates six official institutes in America, under supervision of R R and wireless officials and places all graduates into positions. It will pay you to write them for full details at Cincinnati, O, or Philadelphia Pa.

THE WOMEN'S AUXILIARY.

Mrs W D Foster of St John paid a visit to the Deanery of Woodstock last week, when, as Corresponding Secretary of the Women's Auxiliary in connection with the Anglican church in this diocese, she addressed meetings at Richmond, Andover and Woodstock. In Richmond two meetings were held on Thursday last, one in the afternoon at Jackson Falls where a local branch of the Auxiliary was formed and another at Richmond Corner in the evening, when another branch was formed there. At both meetings there was a good attendance and much interest was shown in the work. Among those who went from Woodstock with the corresponding secretary were Mrs Alder, Mrs W B Belyea and Miss Raymond. The following day Mrs Foster and Miss Raymond went to Andover where a most successful meeting was held and a large branch of the Auxiliary was formed. On Saturday evening the secretary addressed the branch here in Woodstock in the Parish Hall. There was an excellent attendance, Mrs C D Jordan in the chair. After the meeting proper refreshments were served.
