Dr A Pierce Crockett, of St John, was a caller here on Saturday last.

Edgar Cass, of Fredericton, was a visitor here last week.

Two large barns belonging to John Gormerly, of South, Johnville were totally destroyed by fire last week. Origin of the fire unknown.

Mr and Mrs Manzer Thornton, of Perth, spent a few days here last week, the guest of Mr Larlee, C P R Station Agent.

Mrs Chas Inman (nee Miss Clara Jones) spent a few days with her parents here last week.

Bristol

The W. C. T. U. met at Cedar Lawn on Thursday, August 11th. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. George Tompkins. The following officers were elected for the year ending in June 1911:

- Mrs Eaa Brittain, president. Mrs Geo Caldwell, secretary. Mrs George Tompkins, treasurer. Superintendents of departments— Mrs A W Phillips, Evangelistic. Mrs Frances McLean, flower, fruit and delicacies. Mrs Brittain, mother's meetings. Mrs George Caldwell, narcotics, visitation of schools.

What might have been a very serious accident occurred at the bridge near Lockhart's mill on Thursday afternoon when the above mentioned structure gave way under the pressure of loaded teams and Charles Dyer with his horses and load of lumber was precipitated into the water. He escaped unhurt. Lockhart's energetic crew are busy today, Friday, throwing over the stream a temporary structure.

The buildings of M. Welch present a fine appearance, testifying to the good work of H Gardner and son as painters.

Miss Ellen Gibson of our village was successful in examination for Second Class. She expects to attend the next Normal term. Miss Beulah Phillips intends to enter Mount Allison Academy.

Mrs Foss has rented the McIntosh house. The carding mill is turning out excellent work.

The Consolidated telephone has been placed in the flour mill.

Master George Brittain is getting well again. Wm Love, Glassville, was in town Monday.

R L Phillips passed through here on Tuesday.

Len Smith, Florenceville, was in Bristol on Thursday.

Mr and Mrs James Phillips of Fielding, entertained their friends—upwards of a hundred—on Thursday evening.

Miss Jennie Atkinson is at home.

Mr and Mrs Gordon Caldwell have an infant daughter.

Miss Geneva McKenzie has been in Florenceville for two weeks.

Duncan Rogers, dealer in wagons, farm machinery, wire fencing, stoves, is doing a hustling business.

Miss Florence M Peet was well received in this place. Her lectures were fully attended and much appreciated. In her happy way, she complimented the people for their hospitality and on the convenience of the Foresters Hall.

ANOTHER CORRESPONDENT.

The weather this last week has been quite favourable for hay-makers. Already some of the farmers are saying, "I am all done."

Frank Watson and Mrs Harlie Watson of Woodstock drove up last Saturday returning on Monday.

Mrs Charlie Burnham who came home on a visit from Alberta some few weeks ago, returned for Vancouver in company with her sister Mrs Aubrey Gaines of Florenceville.

The fire brigade had two calls last week, fire was at Joseph Cuts' a farmer about a mile from the village when they got to the fire one building, a good sized hog house was all in flames. This building stood about six feet from a large barn. The force was so strong and the men worked so earnestly that they practically tore the burning building down and hauled it away while in flames.

Next fire was at Charles Meed's, caught in the roof of his house and soon was extinguished by the alertness of the fire brigade.

The young people of this place had a very enjoyable time at the home of Mr and Mrs James Phillips about a mile from town. Two couples drove out, some with double teams some with buckboards, some with single teams. Mr and Mrs Phillips were on the lookout for our appearance. After we had our teams snugly stabled and fed, we went to the house where everything was in readiness for a good time. Played all kinds of parlor games, sang the best songs, just a good old-fashioned country time. Young people that is the place to go to have fun. About 11 o'clock luncheon was served consisting of coffee, brown bread and different kinds of cake. After luncheon we played a few comic games which we all enjoyed, then it being about 1 o'clock we went home. We wish Mr and Mrs Phillips success in their new and happy home.

Mr George Foss, our new miller is doing a fine business. Anybody having grain to grind or mash or wool to card just try him and you are sure of a good turnout and satisfaction. He has a man employed and they are both busy even at this time of year. What will George do when the harvest is ripe?

M W Caldwell is doing a hustling business in his new store, he has a good stock and reasonable in charges. Try him and see.

Aunt Harriett was a caller in Bristol last week. Makes one glad to see her little body around sometimes.

D W Rogers is going some in the machine and carriage line.

There seems to be quite a lot of liquor sold in Bristol lately as every Saturday evening there is such a pow wow that it is not safe for women and children to be on the street.
