

BRONCHITIS

Colds, Coughs, Catarrh, and Throat Trouble.

Every sufferer from coughs, colds, bronchitis, and all throat and chest ailments, needs a soothing, healing medicine, which goes direct to the breathing organs in the chest and lungs, attacks the trouble at its source, disperses the germs of disease, and cures the ailment thoroughly. And this medicine is "CATARRHOZONE."

The germ-killing balsamic vapor mixes with the breath, descends through the throat, down the bronchial tubes, and finally reaches the deepest air cells in the lungs. All parts are soothed with rich, pure, medicinal essences, whereas if a liquid or tablet remedy were used, the affected parts could not be reached, and harm would result through benumbing the stomach with drugs.

"CATARRHOZONE" A Breath-able 'Direct' Medicine.

For certain cure, for relief in an hour, use Catarrhozone, the only direct, breathable medicine. Two months' treatment, guaranteed, price $1; smaller size, 50c, at all druggists, or the Catarrhozone Co., Kingston, Ont. 12

Gentlemen:—Your Committee on Canada Temperance Act Inspector's account, beg leave to report that they have examined the same, together with the vouchers and find them correct, and recommend the passage of said bill, except an item of $40 00 for the storing and taking charge of the liquor seized which item we recommend to the full Board for their consideration.

Your Committee beg leave to submit a statement from the Inspector to be read before this Board, concerning seizures and searches for liquor, also of those driven out of the business and those convicted of second offence.

We made a search at George McIntyre's place at Kirkland and found no liquor.

We made two searches at James Carr's and Isabella Carr's at Kirkland and found liquor once which was destroyed and the parties convicted.

On motion of Coun. Williams, the report was received and ordered placed on file.

Coun. Estey moved that $900 00 be assessed on the Parish of Wicklow for poor purposes. Carried.

On being heard, S. A. Inspector Colpitts said, "I would say that our difficulties on the line continue. When we get at one they go out and rent to another. We succeed in getting one of them occasionally. One thing that has helped us, is that seizures made in the town, are of liquor to be distributed throughout the county. We are getting the traffic down more to a hand to mouth system than it used to be. When people in the community will write, not giving names, it is difficult to secure convictions, but when a few people will come out and say we will help the cause, we have never failed to get the stuff pretty well out. Now we have to fight the pocket peddling business, where the liquor was formerly sold in bars.

Coun. William—I notice you have about the same convictions this year as last. How do you account for convictions being so many—as many as years ago.

Inspector—They change their tactics from time to time.

Coun. Tracey—Do you call on these places unless there is a complaint?

Inspector—Not unless there is some back work to be looked after.

Coun. Tracey—I live near Bridgewater. I never saw a time when someone was not selling.

The building used to be on the line, but the Americans drove them away and then they are on our side. People go by scores there on Sundays and at times it is not decent for women to pass by. They really sell stuff you could not call anything but poison. One day I was called by telephone to come to the assistance of a man. When I arrived there were two doctors working. They both declared it was as narrow escape from death as they had known. You can hardly smell liquor on that man's breath. There was some man hauled him home, closed the door and left. It must have been veritable poison that man took.

Inspector—I remember going up with two officers. We went and searched but we could not find anything. The rum-sellers try every trick. While you might find two constables there who would do something, but if we start the liquor men get word of it by telephone.

Coun. Bell—Have you been over Eel River way?

Inspector—Not lately. I have been sick lately.

Coun. Bell (Richmond)—A man told me there were four people selling liquor there now.

Inspector—We drive one crowd out from the lines and another crowd comes in.

Coun. Bell—What good does that do seizing that little that came in, when there is more coming in all the time.

Inspector—We have settled the question that we can seize.

Coun. Tracey—Is the penalty for third offence six months in gaol?

Inspector—It is four months. It is hard work to get a conviction or a first offence. When you try the second and third it is harder work yet.

Coun. Tompkins—There are complaints that you do not go out to the Mirimichi. There is an old man Bell out there an old offender who is still at it.

Insp.—We went after Bell, but we found him away. He is a broken man and if he is put in jail the doctors will order his release.

We got a case against Barter in Pilsener beer, and we had the beer analyzed and we have had a conviction. The magistrate has given us three convictions on lager beer, and we have a better chance on that than before.

Coun. Balmain—The main trouble seems that Mr. Colpitts is not omniscient or omnipresent. He cannot be in all places at once and the telephone has not helped him out for by it offenders have heard of his whereabouts. These whiskey sellers are crafty fellows. He has done the best he can, and he has to use his own judgment. I believe Mr. Colpitts wishes to do the work as a duty. I move he be confirmed as Inspector at same salary as last year. The town of Woodstock put out Mr. Colpitts some time ago and they were glad to get him back.

Coun. Perry seconded the motion.

Coun. Melville thought Mr. Colpitts after being hired by the county had hired himself out to the town. He did think more work could be done on the Boundary line than was now done.

Coun. Tracey agreed with what Coun. Melville said about keeping the places down along the boundary lines. He had nothing against Mr. Colpitts.

Coun. Melville said nobody questioned Mr. Colpitts' honesty.

Coun. Williams—You noticed we cut Mr. Jones' bill.

Insp.—I saw so.

Coun. Williams—Do you think that you had authority to employ him?

Insp.—Well not strictly legally.

Coun. Williams—Cullins has skipped.

Insp.—I was sorry when I heard he had gone.

Coun. Williams—I don't think you will see him again.

Coun. Perry said that Couns. Tracey and Bell should be able to assist Mr. Colpitts very much if it would help him away from the Board, as actively as they questioned him here.

A great many people criticized Mr. Colpitts, but they were very slow to help him. I believe Mr. Colpitts does the very best he can. We know how hard a thing it is to keep down the rum-seller, but I believe it is kept down in this County very much. One day in Grand Falls will satisfy you that there is more rum sold in Grand Falls in one day than in Carleton County in a year. Was it fair to expect Mr. Colpitts to give all his time for $400 00 a year?

Coun. Scott—I think the Ins. has showed us everything quite clear, I think Mr. Colpitts has done well, and I think he is just the man we want for the future.

Carried unanimously.

Parish officers of Simonds were confirmed:

The following bills were ordered paid:

Dr. N P Grant..... $ 4 00

" T W Griffin..... 4 00

John R Tompkins (sheriff)..... 47 30

Coun. Balmain moved that the Finance Committee with the Sec-treas. be authorized to borrow a sum not exceeding $5000.00 for ordinary expense. Carried.

Coun. Melville moved that the deputy sheriff be paid $2.00 a day for his attendance at this session.

Coun. Tompkins seconded the motion.

Coun. Phillips did not see why this bill should be paid.

Coun. Melville said it had always been customary to pay the deputy for his attendance.

Coun. Smith—I think in the year 1906 I made a motion that Deputy Sheriff Foster get his $2 00 a day.

Secy-Treas. referred to the minutes and found this to be correct.

Coun. Phillips—While, if this is customary I do not object, it seems to me an unnecessary thing.

Coun. Brown said that the photographer strongly advised leaving the taking of the photo till June.
