THE -udden death of Mrs. Victoria Jane Edgar, of Woodstock, N. B., took place at 523 L ke avenue, Manchester, N. H. The deceased was 70 years of age and had lived there four years, coming from New Bruns wick While her death was unexpected and a shock to those who knew her, it is believed to have been the result of natural causes and no attempt is being made to make a mystery out of it. Besides relatives in the provinces, Mrs. Edgar leaves one daughter, Mrs. Jennie Smith, of Manchester, and several grandchildren at Lowell, Mass. She was a devout Baptist and a prominent church member. The body will probably be sent to Canada for burial.

At the Star Theatre

It has lately come, to the notice of the citizens of this town that if we are to have a Band kept together here, we must do some thirg towards raising funds for our Band. The Star Theatre management are going to give you a chance to help the Band without costing half as much as you will get for your money.

Oar own Woodstock Band will play at the Star Thestre every night next week from 7.30 to 10 p m playing during the usual inermission and interspersing the Different music every night, one continuous show and all for the usual admission, 10: to all parts of the house. This is something you can't aff rd to miss and when you know that the more people patronize this show the more likely you are to listen to our own band next summer, you will no doubt turn out in force and fill the house to the doores. Don't forget Band Week at the Star, Jan. 31st to Feb. 5th.
