NEWS FROM THE COUNTY.

Centreville.

Miss Agnes Hovey of this place was married to Albert Simonson of the Centreville Cloth Store last Wednesday evening at the home of the bride. Only a few friends were at the wedding but all join whether present or absent in wishing them a long and happy married life.

There was a base ball game at Florenceville last week which was a very interesting affair. A good number of the young folks of the village went to see for themselves if the good reports they had heard of the players were true.

Fruit men in this section say that if the favourable conditions continue there will be an abundant fruit crop this year. The hay also gives promise of a crop much above the ordinary, but the continued wet weather has damaged the potatoes and oat crop to some extent. In some places potatoes have been replanted.

The Oddfellow and Rebecca lodges of this place will have their annual sermon at the Baptist church in Centreville on the 26th inst. The Rev. Mr. Driggett will preach on the occasion and there will be an imposing parade if the weather is favourable. No doubt there will be a large turn out as each of the lodges must number upwards of one hundred, and the brethren and sisters of other lodges have been invited.

An Agricultural field meeting will be held on the farm of S. W. Burr on Thursday the 16th inst, when Andrew Elliot, Esq. of Galt, Ont. will discuss the soil question, giving some practical demonstrations, and will also give some valuable information as to the qualities of farm animals. Everybody is invited to come.

Rev. Samuel Greenlaw occupied the pulpit in the Baptist church here last Sunday and it is expected that he will be asked to preach for the Centreville people again.

The Agricultural Society are covering the walls of the Exhibition building and will paint it and then finish the addition to the building which has been already commenced.

The Sherwood Co. are covering their new building with galvanized iron.

A Unique Birthday Party.

Upwards of thirty of friends and friends of A U Cronkhite, Long Settlement, gave him a pleasant surprise on Saturday, June 11 at his home where they gathered to remind him of his approach to another milestone in life. A social hour was spent and then the welcome call of supper was sounded which took the company to the field back of the house, where, spread upon the grass was a long row of table cloths loaded with all the delicacies that could tempt the appetites or tickle the palate of any man. After the supper was enjoyed, the company repaired to the house where Rev J B Daggett in an impressive and fitting manner presented Mr Cronkhite with an elaborate set of dishes from the Cronkhites and a beautiful arm chair from the Wesis. Other presents were given by friends. Mr Cronkhite was much surprised and greatly moved when he thanked the friends for their kindness and love which they certainly showed by the fact that the men were needed on their farms, also the love expressed by their g fts.
