ST GERTRUDE'S PICNIC.

The event of the summer season is the Catholic picnic which will be held in Woodstock next Tuesday, August 2nd. Though this picnic has been held annually for many years interest in it never wanes and each succeeding year finds a larger and more enthusiastic crowd in attendance. The different committees have their departments well under way and with fine weather the picnic will no doubt be a grand success. All the attractions that are usually put on at festivities of this kind will be on the ground and many others. All should go and enjoy themselves at this the best outing of the season.

THE CIRCUS.

The circus has come and gone. "Howe's Great London Show" was a very good performance. It was not a large circus. There was only one ring, and the menagerie was not large. But what they had was very good, and the work in the ring, quite as good, if not better, than anything that has been seen here before. The tumbling of the Japanese family was something worth seeing, and the tight wire exhibition of the best. Altogether it was a clean, good circus. The horses were very fine, and did some extraordinary work in the ring. The customers of men and women were new and pretty, and the whole thing was orderly and well conducted. There was a large attendance. There was no trouble with hangers on, and the morning following showed no arrests—not even a drunk.
