The New Station.

Supt. Downie and Mr. Wetmore came to Woodstock on Thursday evening, and on Friday morning Mr. Downie was waited on by a number of citizens including His Worship Mayor Jones and J. T. A. Dibblee, president of the Board of Trade. Mr. Downie informed the delegation that the C. P. R. authorities had passed an appropriation for a new station to be built in the yard at Lower Woodstock. He said that the company were willing to purchase the Smith property, for which they were willing to pay from $6,000 to $8,000, and that the kind of structure built would depend upon the amount paid for the above named property. Mr. Downie further said that if the Smith property could not be secured for $8,000, they would make arrangements to build a little to the south of the present station.

Mr. Smith had a conference with Mr. Downie after the delegation left, and stated, we believe, that he would sell for $9,000.

The matter is still under consideration, and it is thought that the deal will be put through shortly.

Michael Malaney.

Mr. Michael Malaney died at his home in Woodstock at 9.30 on Friday morning, aged 77 years, after a short illness. Deceased was born in Sligo, Ireland, in 1833, came to this town in 1847, when 14 years of age, and has lived here ever since. He is survived by the widow, three son John P., William and George, and three daughters Misses Mary, Margaret and Mrs. Octave Lavoie, all of Woodstock. The funeral took place at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon, and after prayers were offered in St. Gertrude's church by Rev. F. J. McMurray, interment was made in the Catholic cemetery.

Abraham Brewer.

Abraham Brewer an old and respected citizen died at his home, Birdton, York Co., of heart trouble on Tuesday of last week, aged 78 years. He leave to mourn their loss a wife, four sons, William, Birdton; George, Cardigan; Emerson, Canon City, Colorado; Abram of this town; four daughters, Mrs. Alonzo Jones, Barit's Corner, Keswick; Mrs. Chas. Oliver, Mrs. Thomas McLean and Mrs. George Lee of this town. The funeral service was on Thursday at Keswick, the Rev. Mr. Fenwick officiating.

Mrs. James Hamilton, of Woodstock, is a grand child. There are also 38 grand children and 10 great grand children.

Mrs. Geo. Lee, Mrs. Tom McLean and Abram Brewer, children of deceased, went to Keswick on Wednesday to attend the funeral.

Laid to Rest.

The funeral of the late Mrs. H. H. Woodworth, whose sad death occurred last week, took place from the residence of her sister, Mrs. H. H. Dunham, St. John, on Sunday afternoon. The services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Hutchinson, Baptist clergyman, and music was furnished by a quartette from the St. John Main Street Baptist Church. Mr. David Pidgeon, cousin of deceased, sang "Safe in the Arms of Jesus." Very many floral tributes testified to the sincere sympathy of friends. Among the flowers were a wreath from Lebanon Lodge, Sackville, and one from the New Brunswick Pharmaceutical Society. Notwithstanding the very inclement weather the funeral was very largely attended. The remains were placed in a receiving vault until spring.

The sympathy of the community goes out to Mr. Woodworth in his sore affliction. Mrs. Woodworth was of a bright and happy disposition and her sudden death caused much regret among her many friends here.—Sackville Tribune.

SLEEPING DRAUGHTS AND SOOTHING MIXTURES

A mother should never give her child a sleeping draught, soothing mixture or opiate of any kind except on the advice of a doctor who has seen the child. All these things contain poisons and an overdose may kill the little one. When you give your child Baby's Own Tablets you have the guarantee of a government analyst that this medicine does not contain one particle of opiate or narcotic and cannot possibly do harm—but always do good. The Tablets promptly cure all stomach, bowel and teething troubles, and give healthy, natural sleep. Sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

It is rumored that several ladies intend giving a grand ball in the Hayden-Gibson Theatre on Easter Tuesday evening.

Town Council.

The regular meeting of the council was held on Monday evening.

The town treasurer's report for the month of February showed receipts of $2333.81 and expenditures $799.29.

Henry Smith was heard in reference to placing a street lamp at the lower part of the town. He said he had been requested by the residents in the vicinity of Upham Brook and railway crossing to petition the council to place a lamp at this point. They were willing to pay a third of the cost, and the C. P. R. would pay a like amount, the council to pay the balance. The matter was left with the light committee to report on Friday evening.

Coun Watson gave notice of a motion to either amend or rescind that part of the license law referring to the selling of beer. He thought it should be made more effective or rescinded. He also spoke of some necessary repairs which should be made to the sleeping room in the town hall and moved that a committee be appointed to make the repairs. Carried.

His Worship read a letter from the School Board stating that some steps should be taken to have the school children under the age of 14 years, kept off the streets at night as they cannot study their lessons, and the average marks at school the past season have been very low.

Coun Watson said he was in accord with the School Board's view. He believed in the old time curfew bell.

Coun Allingham did not think it was the fault of the children. The parents should be educated. He did not think the council had any right to interfere in the matter.

Coun Hagerman thought there was a law on the Statute books covering this matter.

Coun McManus moved that the matter be left to a committee of three to report Friday night. Carried.

Coun Watson said he had been requested by the Scott Act Inspector to ask the Council for $40 to aid him in his work. He moved that an order be drawn on the treasurer for the amount. Carried.

Mayor Jones gave the council a brief description of his trip to the meeting of the municipalities at Campbellton, and said that he had invited the delegates to meet in Woodstock next year.

The matter of appointing a superintendent of roads was discussed but no appointment made.

The Provincial Legislature.

The budget debate was continued today (Tuesday) by Mr. Robinson. He complained that the province had not got the best of terms when the London loan was negotiated and that instead of 102, which the provincial secretary claimed was received, the province actually got less than par. Now the bonds are quoted in London at 104. He contrasted Mr. Flemming's loan with that of Mr. Tweedie's million loan when the latter got his money by tender at 96 for 3 per cent. bonds. He charged the Government with misrepresentation of the financial position of the province at election time in 1908 and claimed that under their administration the public debt and ordinary expenditure had increased faster than under the old government.

Instead of a surplus there was, he said, a large deficit. Items which should have been charged to current revenue were omitted or charged to the Capital and if the accounts were properly kept they would show a balance of expenditure over revenue of $169,325.

He wondered what the government would have done if it had not had the taxes received under the old Highway Act to use. Notwithstanding Mr. Flemming's assertion to the contrary, Mr. Robinson claimed that the auditor-general's report showed that the items chargeable to 1908 were carried over to 1909 and thousands charged on the latter year were for work done in 1908. There was a large increase in the salaries and expenses of the executive. He found fault with the government's lumber policy and said that in 1909 lumber cut was not smaller than usual.

He blamed the Government for not bringing the domain act into effect as they promised. The Government was still spending money on the lawyers, although they blamed the predecessors for doing so and they had thrown over election pledges to treat liberals and conservatives alike. He ridiculed the Audit Act which he said made no real alteration in the affairs as they existed before it passed.

The school book policy was costing thousands yearly no matter what the Government said to the contrary. Debate adjourned, the Solicitor-General having the floor.

County Court.

The March term of the County Court opened in the new court house Thursday morning, His Honor Judge Carleton presiding.

The following gentlemen composed the Grand Jury, with John Flemming as foreman: John Lindsay, John Flemming, Geo. Watson, F. McKenzie, Douglas Stevens, Harry W. Stevens, J. Rankin Brown, Jas. W. Gibson, H. E. Gallagher, W. B. Belyas, R. L. Allingham, C. Campbell, C. Carman, Jas. McManus, F. Dalling, I. E. Sheasgreen, E. Smith, Wm. Raymond, E. C. Morgan, H. Birmingham, Geo. Mallory.

His Honor Judge Carleton thanked the grand jurors for their attendance. He spoke of his first visit to Carleton County, six years ago, in his official capacity. The difference was so apparent today, that comment was unnecessary. The new court house for the administration of justice was a credit to the municipality, the bar and the citizens generally.

There were two criminal cases on the docket; The King vs. Newell Pennell, an Indian, charged with abducting the 13 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milton, of Cloverdale, and The King vs. Levi J. Thomas, charged with stealing a sum of money from John Blackie, proprietor of the Queen Hotel. J. C. Hartley is prosecuting for the Crown, and T. C. L. Ketchum, for the defence.

In the absence of John Blackie, who is seriously ill of pneumonia, and of Newell Pennell, who made his escape from jail a few weeks ago, the court adjourned until the last week in March.

An incident occurred that caused a ripple of laughter to spread over the court room, when the judge drew the attention of the clerk to the fact that a dictionary instead of a Bible was being used to swear in the Grand Jurors.

The members of the Grand Jury presented His Honor Judge Carleton with the following address:

Grand Jury Room, Woodstock, N. B.
March 8th, 1910.

TO THE HONORABLE JOHN L. CARLETON,
Justice of the County Court.

May it please Your Honor,—We the Grand Inquest of the County of Carleton wish to congratulate you in having the honor and pleasure of opening this new Court House in the noble County of Carleton, which we are satisfied is the finest in the Maritime Provinces. And sir, permit us to say that no small share of the honor of having this fine building is due to you, who was one of the ablest advocates for better accommodation for the Courts of Justice in this County. The building is a credit to the County Council and all who had to do with its construction, as well as being an ornament to the town of Woodstock.

We notice with satisfaction, a bill before the House of Assembly to provide mileage for the Grand Jury, and hope that in the near future they will be paid a per diem allowance as they are obliged to leave all kinds of business to attend Jury duty.

Hoping you may be spared to attend to the duties of your high office for many years, is the wish of the Grand Jury of Carleton County.

Delansy McLeroy, of Houlton, was in Grafton last week, the guest of his brother Robert McLeroy.

Austin Adams, of Centreville, was in town part of last week, a guest at the Turner House.

In the New Brunswick Legislature last week, the bill to allow the town of Woodstock to aid J. D. Dickinson & Son, Ltd., by guaranteeing their bonds to the extent of $10,000, and the bill relating to the property devised to Lewis P. Fisher and the town of Woodstock by the late John W. Connell and which is to become a public park, were also agreed to.

A LARGE audience, composed of the members of the St. Patrick's literary and debating society and their friends, assembled in St. Patrick's hall Sunday afternoon and listened to an interesting and instructive lecture on "The monks of the middle ages" by Judge Carleton, of Woodstock. The speaker held the close attention of those present for an hour and thirty minutes, during which time he reviewed the work of the monks and quoted many historical proofs of his statements. In those days there were no trusts or poor houses, all of which have come with the so called enlightenment of the past few hundred years. At the close, the lecturer was tendered a vote of thanks.—Milltown cor. St. Croix Courier.
