Wonderful Praise Accorded Peruna the Household Remedy

Mrs. Maria Goertz, Orienta, Oklahoma, writes:

"My husband, children and myself have used your medicines, and we always keep them in the house in case of necessity. I was restored to health by this medicine, and Dr. Hartman's invaluable advice and books. People ask about me from different places, and are surprised that I can do all of my household work alone, and that I was cured by the doctor of chronic catarrh. My husband was cured of asthma, my daughter of earache and catarrh of the stomach, and my son of catarrh of the throat. When I was sick I weighed 100 pounds; now I weigh 140.

"I have regained my health again, and I cannot thank you enough for your advice. May God give you a long life and bless your work."

A Food Faddist's Fix.

Mr. John D. Rockefeller, jr., was congratulated in his office recently on the fact that he, like the poet Maeterlinck and other famous men has taken to the motorcycle.

"And has bicycling benefited your health?" his congratulator, a journalist, ventured to ask.

"I think it has," Mr. Rockefeller replied. "I won't ask you, though, to take note of my clear eyes and good color, or I might find myself in the food faddist's fix.

"A food faddist was lecturing to a large audience on the marvellous results to be obtained from chewing soup, or eating nut butter, or something of that kind. He was not a very imposing person physically, but swelling out his chest, he slapped it thrice with his palm and cried:

"Friends, two years ago I was a walking skeleton, a haggard, miserable wreck. Now, what do you suppose brought about this great change in me?"

"He paused to let his words sink in, and a voice asked: "What change?"

Says Church is not Declining.

The church, in the liberal sense, is not dying and its power is not declining. A community of any size can not be maintained without its church, writes a contributor in THE DELINEATOR for March.

The people who seek the amusements of the athletic fields and the parks on Sunday may, of course, not attend church on that day but great hordes of them are church members and expend goodly sums each year to help support the churches to which they belong. They want the church in their community. They are proud to have it there and to be members of it, and to maintain it in a creditable if not fairly luxurious fashion.

They like to feel that they can go there if they care to, and that they have a personal interest in it, and that, like the traditional birch in the corner of the school-room, it is always a wholesome reminder that keeps them from the extremes to which they are attracted by the exigencies of the present day commercial life and the attractions of modern sensational amusements.

I believe that even the attendance of the churches own members could be bettered if the church services and general church activities were brought into closer touch with the peculiar tendency of the times. Let their be ladies' aids and sewing societies and ladies' clubs for the study of things of church and secular interest. Let there be kindergartens and sewing and cooking classes and similar practical attractions. Let the men have church clubs and brotherhoods and church suppers where they can enjoy themselves and incidentally discuss matters of church and community interest.

Mr. Dooley and the Magazines.

"Well, sor," said Mr. Dooley, "I wonder how much it costs to have a pome or shory printed in wan iv these pop'lar magazines along with all th' good advertizin'. I suppose it coomes high. The fellows that runs thim magazines must be growin' rich out iv the potes and nov'lists. I don't object, mind ye, to their makin' a fair profit out iv their business iv idjicatin' people where to git th' bist breakfast food, or th' most sparklin' hair dye, or what kind iv revolver to shoot thimselfes with. That's all-right. But what I object to is whin I pay tin or fifteen cints fr a magazine expectin' to spind me evenin' improvin' me mind with the latest thought in advertisin' to find more thin a quarter iv the whole book davoted to lurrachoor.

After He is Gone.

(Aitchison Globe.)

In order that she may be guided by his gentle influence in the future. Mrs. Lyander John Appleton has had her husband say into a phonograph, "Make that go as far as can." After he is gone, and she is a widow, she will have the phonograph repeat this record to her whenever she starts down town to spend as much a dime.

Canadian National Hymn.

"In a recent competition, conducted by Collier's Weekly, to secure a national hymn of simple English words, which might be sung to the beautiful melody, "O Canada" composed by Calixte Lavallee, a French Canadian, Mrs. E. A. McCulloch, Toronto, won the prize over a large number of competitors". (The words of this hymn speaks for themselves, (Missionary Outlook,))but when joined to the grand harmony of Lavallee, the poem gains a power which thrills one, filling the heart with a happy pride in our Country and a desire to keep it pure and noble.)

Oh Canada! in praise of thee we stug;
From echoing hills our anthems proudly ring
With fertile plains and mountains grand,
With lakes and rivers clear,
Eternal beauty, thou dost stand
Throughout the changing year.
Lord God of Hosts! we now implore,
Bless our dear land this day and evermore,
Bless our dear land this day and evermore.

Dear Canada! for thee our fathers wrought,
Thy good and ours unselfishly they sought,
With steadfast hand and fearless mind
They felled the forest domes
Content at last to leave behind
A heritage of homes,
Lord God of Hosts! we now implore,
Bless our dear land this day and evermore,
Bless our dear land this day and evermore

Blest Canada! the homeland that we love,
Thy freedom came a gift from God above,
Thy righteous laws, thy justice fair,
Give matchless liberty;
We thank our God that we may share
Thy glorious destiny.
Lord God of hosts! we now implore,
Bless our dear land this day and evermore,
Bless our dear land this day and evermore.

Laymen's Missionary Movement.

The Laymen's Missionary Movement is planning a series of meetings for the Maritime Provinces from April 3rd to 15th.

Secretary Caskey of the Inter-Denominational Office in Toronto, with several of the Denominational Secretaries, will be in St. John March 12th, and from that time on will give their time exclusively to preparations for the meetings in this section.

They are already in correspondence with the Clergy and Laymen at different points, and anticipate holding meetings at the following centres; provided the Laymen and Clergy at these points desire the meetings;—
April 3, 4, 5, St. John.

- " 5, 6, St. Stephen & Moncton,
- " 6, 7, Fredericton & Chatham
- " 7, 8, Woodstock & Campbellton,
- " 10, 11, 12, Halifax,
- " 12, 13, Kentville & Truro,
- " 13, 14, Amherst & New Glasgow,
- " 14, 15, Sydney, North Sydney & Charlottetown.

There will be a two day session at each place, opening with a supper the first night, and a Conference the second day as to Methods of Work in the Community and the Individual Congregation.

It is expected that in addition to the Laymen's Secretaries there will be one or more Laymen from both Montreal and Toronto, as well as representatives of the Movement from St. John and Halifax, who will assist in the meetings.

It is expected that the points where meetings are not held will arrange to send delegates to the centre that is nearest them, in order to carry the enthusiasm of their meetings back to their own parish, as has been done all through Ontario and the Western Provinces.

"Pale and Depressed"

Anaemia, Bad Blood, Indigestion,
Sick Headache, Dizziness.

Success of Dr. Hamilton's Pills

For her life and health Mrs. E. K. Wilkinson is indebted to the marvelous curative properties of Dr. Hamilton's Pills. Her brightness, activity, and present good looks are due to nothing else but the enormous benefit she derived from using this grand medicine. From her home in Newton, where she resides with her large family, Mrs. Wilkinson writes: "For years I was pale, anaemic, and lacking in vitality. I was a constant sufferer from indigestion, and the distress and pain it caused me, coupled with ever-increasing anaemia, made me weaker day by day. Constant headaches, specks before the eyes, and attacks of dizziness made me feel as if life were not worth living. My constitution was completely undermined and the constant pallor and dullness in my eyes showed what a sick woman I was. I began to take Dr. Hamilton's Pills and the improvement although slow was sure. I gradually got back my strength and my appetite grew much stronger and I enjoyed my meals thoroughly. I felt happier and more contented and the sickly pallor of my face was replaced by a bright, rosy color which proved that a strong medicine was at work. In a few months Dr. Hamilton's Pills brought me from a condition of deathly despair to robust health."

You can obtain the same results by using Dr. Hamilton's Pills—25c per box, or five boxes for $1.00, at all dealers.
