NEWS FROM THE COUNTY.

Jacksonville.

Mrs. David Gibson of Northampton is visiting friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Alterton spent the Wednesday last with Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Harper.

The Jacksonville Amateur Musical Company made a great success of the play put on by them on Tuesday evening of last week. Mr. Harry Dunbar of Woodstock added greatly to the pleasure of all by his rendering of some Harry Luder's songs and some old ballads. Seventy-five dollars was realized.

On Thursday evening the young people drove to Hartland where the play was again presented and over forty dollars added to the fund for which the money is being raised. Miss Mable Phillips deserves great credit for the way in which she has drilled the young people and for the general management of the whole affair.

The mite box opening of the W. M. S. and "Friendly Workers" Mission Circle of the Methodist Church will be held publicly on Wednesday of this week. This meeting is annual and all are invited to attend.

On Saturday the Woman's Aid Society of the United Baptist Church will meet in the home of one of its members.

Chester.

March has come with smiling, health-giving, joyous face. This being the month in which our spring begins let us for a moment glance backward and review the weather through the winter. All agree that the past three months, our so called winter months, have displayed wonderfully bright, fine days with just enough frost in the air to make one's blood circulate freely. Not once, if greatly mistaken, has our main line of the C. P. R. (I speak of the division between McAdam and Edmundston) been blocked, and at no time has there been a fall of snow heavy enough to hinder hauling or driving even for a day if one were compelled to go. The few storms which have come were all of short duration and generally at night. The day following, as a rule, was bright and cheering. New Brunswick, especially Carleton Co., will become famous for its salubrious climate if the winters which follow resemble that just past.

Many may say to the above facts, "Our winter will manifest itself yet." There is time for some severe weather certainly, but remember, reader, it cannot last long when the sun has reached his present position and his rays have attained such power and permanence.

A baby daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Stanley A. White on Feb. 23. She was joyfully welcomed by her parents and two little brothers.

The residence of E. R. Squiers, J. P., narrowly escaped destruction by fire one night recently. During the early part of the night Mrs. Squiers was awakened by smoke and aroused Mr. Squiers. They quickly descended to the kitchen to find the room full of flames. With great presence of mind they utilized a barrel of rain-water near at hand, and succeeded in extinguishing the monster. The room was greatly wrecked, and probably only Mrs. Squiers' timely waking prevented a tragedy, as the other inmates of the house knew nothing of the occurrence until next day. A spark from the stove was undoubtedly the origin of the fire. Mrs. Squiers' valuable canary was smothered by the smoke, before the fire was discovered.

Great improvements were made last week on the lines of the Consolidated Telephone Co., where they cross the river at this place. New posts were set and more wires strung, giving the entire system a far more progressive look. The "New Brunswick Telephone Co." would do well to look carefully after line through this place. Certainly we understand that the local manager of the latter company's exchange at Florenceville has a great territory to superintend, but sagging posts and loose flapping wire, give the lines passing along as public a highway as our main road leading to Florenceville, a dilapidated appearance even if the telephone service is fairly good.

Mr. Gideon Estabrooks sold his fine two-year colt on Friday to Mr. Hubert Brown, Clearview.

Mr. Percy Bell, Bristol, is threshing for Mr. H. Scott McCain.

Misses Annie and Mattie Maddox also start for Vancouver on the same date. Their many friends here deeply regret their departure.

A number from this locality attended the funeral of the late Mr. C. W. Brittain from his residence, Bristol, Friday, 2 o'clock, p. m. The remains were interred in the Presbyterian burying ground near the home of his stricken wife, children and elderly parents. Great sympathy is expressed for all the sorrowing loved ones so suddenly called to mourn the overwhelming loss of so kind a husband, father and son.

Mrs. Campbell and Misses Lima and Hazel Fulton, Wicklow, took tea Saturday with Mrs. O. S. Shaw.

Mr. C. B. Wheeler, is still busily engaged in his lumbering operations.

Miss Marion Estey, Wicklow, and Frank Estabrooks, Bank of N. B., Florenceville East, spent the week's end with Mrs. Henry Estabrooks.

Owing to the unavoidable absence, last week, of the president, Mrs. Herbert L. Olmstead, the "Ladies Auxiliary" was postponed until Tuesday or Wednesday of the present week, when it will meet as formerly announced, at the home of Mrs. T. Estey, Wicklow.

Miss Mable Estabrooks expects to leave Friday for a short visit in Presque Isle, and at the home of her sister, Mrs. Andrew Kilpatrick, Marysville, Me.

The "Women's Missionary Aid Society" will meet on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Hugh Tweedie, Wicklow.

Master Gordon Tweedie, River de Chute, is the guest of his aunt, Mrs. Otis Shaw.

Bath.

Rev. McHopper of Meductic occupied the pulpit of the United Baptist church last evening.

Miss Mary A. Bohan returned home from visiting friends in Fredericton on Saturday.

The Consolidated Telephone Co. Ltd., of this place are extending their line to Centreville.

W. Riley Trafford, of East Florenceville was in this place on Monday.

Harry J. Smith, of this place left on Tuesday last for Vancouver, B. C.

Mr. Michael Keenan and others are to begin the erection of a steam saw mill on the Alfred Giberson flat here soon, this will be a splendid site for such a mill and a very much needed thing here.

Mr. McDonald, of the Presbyterian church, held the services at the home of deceased. The pall bearers were J. Leslie Kennedy, Noral Edgar, Herbert Gidney and Clarence Jackson. About forty teams followed the hearse to the cemetery beside the Episcopal church where the remains were buried.
