Stevens-Armstrong

A very pretty and impressive wedding took place at noon at Trinity Church, Andover, N. B. Wednesday November 16, when Miss Mildred Armstrong, younger daughter of Naomi Armstrong, of Fort Fairfield, was united in marriage to Arthur Albert Stevens, elder son of Mr and Mrs H D Stevens of Fort Fairfield.

The church was decorated with potted plants, etc, by the girl friends of the bride. The ceremony was performed by Rev J R Hopkins, the single ring service being used. The bride was given away by her uncle, Chester M Howard of Somerville, Mass. The wedding march was nicely played by Mrs William Hoyt, and beautiful music was rendered by the choir.

The bride was prettily attired in white silk crepe de chine over satin with satin trimmings and pearl ornaments, with usual veil, and carried a white prayer book, lilies of the valley and smiles.

The bridesmaid, Miss Ethel Armstrong, a sister of the bride, was becomingly attired in white silk over pink silk, and carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations. The groomsmen were Thomas E Houghton, a cousin of the groom. The groom and groomsmen appeared in the customary black.

Immediately after the ceremony the invited guests were taken to Murphy's Hotel, where a luncheon was served by Mrs Bertha Weitz. Four girl friends of the bride, Misses Martha MacCallam, Sadie Currie of Hartland, Miss Beatrice Walling and Miss Beatrice Baird of Andover, did the serving.

The bride received many valuable presents, among them being cut glass, silver and a check from her mother and one from the bridegroom's father.

The young couple left on the afternoon train amid showers of rice and confetti for a short trip to St John, Fredericton and other New Brunswick cities. On their return to Fort Fairfield a reception will be held in Harker's theatre Thursday evening, Nov 24, dancing being a prominent feature of the evening.

The bride's home has been in Andover till within the past two years. During the time she has resided in Fort Fairfield she had made many warm friends by her pleasing and womanly qualities. The bridegroom was born in Fort Fairfield, and is a hustling young farmer, who has a pleasant word for all, and a big heartedness that is appreciated by everybody.

Dr and Mrs Stevens have the kindest wishes of all for a happy married life.—Fort Fairfield Review.

MRS ROLAND T HANSON

The body was brought to Bath, Carleton County, on Friday last where interment was made. Rev J H Puddington conducted the funeral services in the United Baptist church on Saturday morning last in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends.

Mr Peters was married some few years ago to Miss Eugenia Barker of Bath who survives him. The deceased was highly esteemed in his adopted City of Lowell and his many friends in this County will sorrow to learn of his early death.

Temperance Meeting

The Sabbath School lesson for Nov 13 to be a temperance one, the Ref. Baptist Sabbath School made a departure from the ordinary routine and appointed a Mass Temperance Meeting, inviting speakers from the other schools in town to make a ten minute speech on the different phases of the temperance question.

Dr J E Jewett Temp Superintendent of the school, called the meeting to order at 2.30 o'clock.

Opened with singing
Reading of lesson by C N Scott.
Prayer by Mrs C D Dickinson.
Singing by school.

Speech by C L Smith on the evils of the cigarette habit and cited several striking instances that had come to his notice, would like to give the speech in full but space will not permit but in short. It was good.

Song Rock of Ages by Mrs R E Holyoke was well rendered.

Robert Kennedy was next, speaking on the liquor habit and was short, sharp and decisive and gave a real living example of the best cure for intemperance in his own experience. He went down before God and had his sins forgiven and has not wanted it since.

Singing of "Happy day" by Quartette;— F L Mooers, H Lockwood, G H Arnold and E M Campbell. Speech and reading by Mrs C D Dickinson and who the temperance cause in town put her in mind of the ebb and flow of the tide.

This town might be clean if the christian people said so. Have about become discouraged in every way but prayer. Took us back to time of Noah when the earth was filled with violence and had to be destroyed; then cited to the coming of our Saviour.

F L Mooers gave a short speech on profanity and showed the uselessness of the habit, and how it dishonored God. Began first in slang words. Some good points made.

It was proposed that instead of the quarterly temperance lesson being taught in the Sabbath School that a mass meeting be held in the different churches in turn in which short addresses would be made, and a little interest aroused in the temperance cause.

Closed with singing.

ROBERT MILLER.

Robert Miller, aged 76 years, died Oct. 25th, at the home of his brother, Alexander Miller, Exeter, N. H. He was paying a visit to his brother when he was stricken with paralysis on Oct 4th and lingered until Oct. 25th.

Mr Miller was a native of Uddington, Scotland, and with his brother, the late Hugh Miller of Glassville, came to St John in the Steamer "Admiral" in 1851. In 1859, Mr Miller was married in St John to Miss Mary A Brown of that city, and in December 1909 celebrated their golden wedding at their home in Dorchester, Mass. His wife, seven daughters and two sons survive him. They are: Mrs Henry Lovely of Gordonsville, N. B., Mrs John W Best, Mrs Ernest A Goodwin, and Miss Mary A Miller of Lynn, Mass. Mrs Elmer D Berry of Key West, Florida; Mrs Albert Wiggins of Henniker, N H; John A Miller of Hudson Mass, and Kenneth O Miller and Miss Katherine R Miller of Dorchester, Mass.

Mr Miller was one of the Pioneer settlers of Glassville, N. B. and knew well the hardships of those early days. Twenty years ago he moved his family to Lynn, Mass., but was a frequent visitor to Glassville. He was a member of the Congregational Church at Portsmouth, N. H., where he formerly resided before going to Lynn, and a charter member of the Lynn Caledonian Club. Deceased was a man of excellent worth of character, and his word was his bond.

Burial services were conducted by the Rev Lucias H Thayer of the Congregational Church of Portsmouth, N. H., assisted by the Rev Arthur E Harriman of the East Baptist church of Lynn, Mass. The floral tributes were many and beautiful, and testified to the loving memory of the deceased. Among them was a wreath of Scotch heather from the native land of the deceased, and a large pillow from the Lynn Caledonian Club with the words "Our Brother." Members of the Club were the pall bearers, and burial was in the family lot at Pine Grove Cemetery, Lynn, Mass.

Mr Miller was a brother of Mrs Wm Love Sr. of the Glassville House, who survives him also Alexander Miller of Exeter, N H. David Miller of Haverhill, Mass and John Miller of San Francisco, Cal.

NERVE AGONIES

All Nervous Diseases Cured By Dr Williams' Pink Pills

Nerves that are overworked or weak quickly indicate their distress by pain. That pain may be neuralgia or inflamed nerves, usually affecting the head, but often the spine and limbs. It may be nervous dyspepsia, easily started by worry, excitement or weakness. It may be St. Vitus dance, a common affliction among children, or neurasthenia, a condition of general nervous exhaustion accompanied by acute melancholy. Worst of all the pain may signal the early stages of paralysis or nervous decay. All these disorders signify that the hungry nerves are clamoring for nourishment in the form of good, rich blood. The numerous cures of the above named nervous diseases and weakness in both sexes by Dr Williams' Pink Pills, are accounted for by the fact that these Pills actually make new, rich blood and so supply the starved nerves with the vital elements needed to strengthen them. Mr Wm. G Jones, Westmead, Man, says: "A few years ago it was my misfortune to suffer from nervous debility brought about through a severe attack of la grippe or influenza. When the first effects were felt I used to wake up in the middle of sleep trembling like a leaf, and in a bath of cold perspiration. Later the trouble grew so bad that I scarcely got a wink of sleep, and would toss about in bed, growing so weak that I feared for my life. A doctor was called in, and then another, but without avail. I became more and more low spirited, and with out any apparent reason would have fits of crying. While in this condition, a nervous wreck, a pamphlet was given me telling me what Dr Williams' Pink Pills had done for others, and I determined to give them a trial. By the time I had finished a few boxes I began to get some sleep, and this greatly encouraged me. Then my strength began to return, my nerves grew steadier and in a few weeks more I was feeling as well as ever I did in my life, and you may be sure I always gratefully recommend Dr Williams' Pink Pills to every one sick or ailing, as they restored me to health and strength after all other medicines had failed."

You can get these Pills from any medicine dealer or by mail at fifty cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr Williams' Medicine Co, Brockville Ont.

Besides his brother, Thomas, who keeps a grocery store in Rockland Road, he is also survived by two other brothers, John, residing in this city, and Patrick, a farmer in Norton.
