Potatoes are selling at thirty cents per barrel. Some of the early settlers of Canada used to tell that stalwart men and women were raised in the old country on potatoes and buttermilk. With buttermilk as cheap proportionately as potatoes, it looks as though those who are studying how to reduce the cost of living might find a solution of the problem.

Thirty-five hens at "Riverview Farm" produced twenty-eight dozen of eggs during the past two weeks. We do not claim this to be a record breaker, but it is a good record.

J B Adam of Muniac, and Sam Brown of Kintore, are doing a big business in lumber, nearly everybody is hauling logs.

The Provincial Secretary claims a surplus for the past year. The opposition says that the figures are false. If the opposition can be relied on, it is evident that the man who said "figures wont lie" never studied that phase of modern politics.

Artemus Ward said that a town called Bunkumville, had a plank sidewalk running into it twice a week.

We think that if the proposed Valley Railroad only runs from Andover to Welford that the public will find it somewhat like the semi-weekly sidewalk that ran into Bunkumville.

Barry Inman was badly hurt while coasting on Wednesday.

Bessie Paul, of Moniac, who has been very ill, is somewhat improved. Dr. Moffat is in attendance.

Centreville

Hazen White went to Boston to consult a Specialist in regard to treatment for his eyes.

The Evangelists holding special services at Bridgewater Centre will hold a service in the Baptist church in Centreville on Saturday evening March 26th. A full house is expected.

Jack Lee is perhaps better pleased now than he will be when the baby cries at night and he has to walk the floor with it.

Wm. Owens is one of the busy men of this place.

John McLean will soon vacate the Cheny tenement which will be occupied by Thomas White in the near future.

Inspector Meagher has many words of praise for the teachers in our school, saying that the progress being made is almost a matter of surprise. The old school building and lot is for sale and seeing that this place is soon to be a railway centre, there should be no lack of good offers for that property.

There is a considerable quantity of lumber being hauled to the mills here but perhaps not much more than enough to meet the local demands.

Florenceville.
