

Style is about the easiest thing to put into clothing

A hot iron works wonders—pressing and pulling cloth into shape. But, when, as in the long fine lines of the lapels—the well-made rounded shoulders and the firm coat front are honestly stitched into shape by careful tailors the result is clothing that will retain its good appearance through a long and hard life.

L. G. Kimball.

All who knew Brother L. G. Kimball of Fort Fairfield, familiarly known as Bro. Lev. Kimball, will regret to learn of his death, which to him was a translation, which took place at his late home on the evening of the 23rd inst. Brother Kimball was born at Waterville, Carleton Co. N. B. and was 44 years of age. He with his brothers Frank T. and Bird H. Kimball went to Fort Fairfield about 15 years ago and became one of the successful farmers of that place, when holiness was first preached at Robie, where he then lived, he was a strong opposer to it, but while Brothers G. B. and M. S. Trafton held a convention at that place, he got under deep conviction and sought and found the blessing, and from that time became its most zealous advocate. He with the brethren of like precious faith has been instrumental in untold good in Fort Fairfield and the surrounding country for many miles, both by their personal work and by employing prominent evangelists and holding holiness conventions at a cost of many hundreds of dollars, and during this present winter Brother Kimball has devoted his time to holding revival meetings in which he had great success. One of the best revivals ever held at Caribou in which there were nearly 200 seekers, among whom many were converted, and a large number were sanctified wholly, the revival is still in progress. He was called in the very height of his victory, his sun will never set. All who knew "Brother Lev" sincerely mourn his departure, and sympathize with Sister Kimball and the five children, who have sustained so great a loss. A very impressive service was held at his late residence on the 25th inst, conducted by Rev. M. S. Trafton, assisted by Rev. Mr. Richmond, Congregationalist; Rev. Mr. Ferguson, F. Baptist and Rev. Mr. Tingle, Methodist.

The Woodstock Male Quartette, composed of F. L. Mooers, George H. Arnold, H. Lockwood and E. M. Campbell were present and sung three selections which were highly appreciated. It was said by those present to be the most impressive service they ever attended. It was a real baptism of tears, where even strong men could not restrain themselves.—King's Highway.

Accidently Killed

Bristol, Feb. 28 h.—A sad accident occurred this morning, half a mile from Bristol Village, by which Chalmers W. Brittain was instantly killed. He, with an assistant, named Brooker, was thawing ice, preparatory to starting his flour and grist mill, when he slipped and fell, injuring his neck and becoming wedged in between the large wheel and the wall in such a position that Brooker had to go for assistance before being able to remove the body. Mr. Brittain was a prominent man in this community, taking an active interest in the Church of England, and also among the Odd Fellows. He leaves a widow and four children.

Madeline Phillips.

The village of Bristol was much saddened when learning on the morning of Feb. 21st of the passing away, during the night previous, of Madeline, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alva Phillips, at the age of 5 years, 10 months and 2 days. She had been ill about three weeks of typhoid and at times suffered much. Madeline was one of the most winsome and bright of the children in the community, loved by all who knew her, but especially dear to her parents and others in the home. Every effort possible was put forth to relieve and prolong her stay here but all was of no avail. Many expressions of sympathy are tendered Mr. and Mrs. Phillips in their bereavement and this was especially evinced on the afternoon of the 22nd when a large concourse of people assembled at the home and thence to the United Baptist church, where service was conducted by Rev. J. D. Wetmore, speaking from Job. I 25 "The Lord gave and the Lord hath taken away, blessed be the name of the Lord," and afterward all that was mortal of little Madeline was laid in the Hill Cemetery. Mr. and Mrs. Phillips herein wish to express their thanks to their many friends who showed so much kindness during the illness and at the time of bereavement.

Capt. A. H. Margison, of the 67th Battalion, has been gazetted adjutant. Lieut. G. F. Williams becomes Captain vice Margison.

Presentation.

A special meeting of the Reformed Baptist Praying Band was held in the Vestry of the church last evening. After a season of earnest prayer, they were joined by Mr. C. N. Scott's Sunday School Class, and an address was read by the president of the Band, B. M. Colpitts expressing the regrets of the Band and S. S. class to Harry Smullins, on account of the loss they sustain in his removal to Vancouver, B. C., after which President Colpitts presented to him as a token of esteem a very nice Bible, to which Mr. Smullins, who was taken completely by surprise, made a feeling reply.

This was followed by another surprise when F. L. Mooers, expressed the appreciation of the church, Sunday School and Praying Band, of the life and services of Brother B. M. Colpitts, and our regrets that he also was going to Hartland, and presented him with a fine Bible, which so deeply affected him that he was unable to express his appreciation.

Dr. J. E. Jewett then expressed the regrets of the Sunday school and Praying Band of the removal of Brother Harry Gardiner who is also going to Vancouver, B. C. to which Brother Gardiner made a feeling reply.

Pastor S. A. Baker expressed his regrets for the removal of these brethren, but counselled them to enter heartily into the christian work wherever their lot might fall. Several selections were sung and a very enjoyable season was closed by prayer by the Pastor.

Centreville.

Miss Peterson, daughter of John R. Peterson, of Royalton was buried at Tracy Mills, 1st Sunday. The funeral was largely attended.

Rev. M. Ferguson went to Fort Fairfield last week.

Rev. John Perry supplied for Mr. Ferguson here morning and evening and although ninety years of age has a wonderful command of thought and words.

A large delegation from Upper Knoxford and Clearview waited upon the Government last week in regard to the proposed bridge across the St. John river at or near Brown's Sliding. They were well received and came home feeling much encouraged and expressed themselves well satisfied without the bridge if the Railway is built down on the west side of the River.

Mr. Lewis Baldwin started for the North West last Saturday leaving Mrs Baldwin with her father in Centreville for a few weeks until his brother and family who have been visiting the old home in St. George return to their Western home.

C. F. West goes to Boston on Tuesday to learn the business of repairing and running the Auto and with his usual determination there can be no doubt but he will be most successful.

The question of the building of the Valley Railroad is about settled in the minds of the people but many are anxious as to who will build it or who will operate it after it is built, some claiming that if McKenzie & Mann operated the road it would be some years before freight could be brought from the West over the line, not until the Quebec bridge would be built. They seem to forget that the other Trunk lines could give no better service and that they are also dependent upon the building of the Quebec bridge for a through service from the West.

There seems to be a tender spot in the feelings of the farmers when you mention the price of potatoes. And the market opened up by the Government in Cuba does not appear to be a very extensive one.

The weather during the past week has been the coldest of the winter the mercury go as low as 32° last Saturday morning. A great many people have colds and if they took all the home remedies recommended no doubt many would be dead.

G. W. White is still in failing health but expressed the hope that with coming spring increased vitality will come to him and this is also the earnest wish of his many friends.
