HOWE'S GREAT LONDON SHOWS

Not Circus Fever, But a Laudible Desire To Be Instructed, As Well as Amused.

No tented amusement enterprise on earth has met with such continuous praise and applause as has Howe's Great London Shows. An ovation greets this clean and beautiful organization at every point in its annual tour.

From the genesis of the show until its present colossal perfection there has not been a solitary season in which it has not led its fellows in the multiple and general excellence of its attractions and now towers above and dwarfs all other tented exhibitions in comparative insignificance, and this season it presents such an opulence of sterling and meritorious attractions as to entitle it to be designated as a vast Amusement Golconda whose wondrous wealth of entertainment is unlimited and immeasurable. Howe's Great London Shows are prolific in leading and sensational features, and fully equipped with the finest stable of horses and the most skilful and finished bareback riders, gymnasts and acrobats in the profession. The show has a large, well-ordered and well selected menagerie, containing living, vigorous specimens of all that is strange, rare and curious within the range of natural history, and this Royal Roman Hippodrome is a realistic reproduction of that of the days of the Imperial Caesar.

It may be said, however, that to these always prominent and desirable attractions have been added, for the current season, many features so stupendous in magnitude, so overpowering in unprecedented grandeur and impressiveness, and so enormous in the expense necessary to this production, that the features mentioned, grand and wonderful as they are, can at best play a secondary part. Don't forget the date, Woodstock, Monday July 25th.
