WOODSTOCK, N. B.

JULY 1st, 1910

One year ago to-day we changed our methods of doing business from giving Credit to Strictly Cash and we have found it very satisfactory to our customers as well as ourselves.

In making a change from usual methods, it is sometimes, a little difficult for some to understand why it is done, but in order to use EVERYBODY the same, we adopted and have carried out the following rules

FIRST. Goods to be paid for before leaving store.

SECOND. When you pay for one pair you have the privilege of taking several pairs to select from.

THIRD. If you do not wish to pay for any then you may take out odd shoes only, that is one shoe of the styles selected.

PLEASE REMEMBER. If our goods do not fit or please you we cheerfully refund your money

Presentation to Mrs E C Turner.

The ladies of the Methodist church, Jacksonville gave a most enjoyable garden party on June 30th, in honor of Mrs E C Turner, who left last week for Florenceville where Mr Turner is stationed for the coming year. The grounds around the parsonage looked particularly attractive and presented a pretty scene with the dainty dresses of the guests and the merry laughter of the young people. At the close of the bountiful supper which was served on a long table set on the lawn, Mrs Margaret Wiley arose and with a few well chosen words expressed the appreciation of Mrs Turner's faithful work during the four years Mr Turner had been pastor of the church here. Mrs Wiley then presented a purse of money from the ladies in Jacksonville, Northampton, Waterville and Upper Woodstock, the circuit upon which Mrs Turner has so diligently assisted her husband. "Praise God from Whom all blessings flow," was then sung, after a few words from Mr Turner on behalf of his wife. Outside guests were Dr and Mrs Phillips, Rev W H and Mrs Johnston, Rev Mr and Mrs Creed, Mrs J Charlton Berrie and Rev George Tilley, B. A.

Mrs Charles Walton

The village of Wilmot was shocked on Sunday, June the 5th, to hear of the sudden death of Mrs. Charles Walton which took place at her home shortly after tea. She was in her usual health all day when suddenly she was seized with hemorrhage and before medical help could arrive had expired. She leaves to mourn an aged husband, two sisters, Mrs. Stevens of Minneapolis and Mrs. McGuire of Newburg, and one brother in Maine. She was 73 years old. The interment took place a Lakeville. Mrs. Walton will be much missed in the community where she lived.
