Coun. Tracy was absent being in the military contingent attending the Coronation

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and adopted.

The Warden reviewed the work of the past Council as follows:—

As this is our last regular meeting during our present term, I may be permitted to review briefly some of the events occurring during the term. No doubt this will be the last meeting for some of us; some may retire of their own accord and perhaps others will be retired by the electors, be this as it may, I feel this Council is to be congratulated for the earnest and careful manner each member has attended to his several duties. The requirements are becoming so arduous and trying that we quite frequently hear murmurings as to the amount of work and some are inclined to retire on account of the stress of their own personal business.

The term has been quite an eventful one and the honor and pleasure has been ours of seeing the completion of this up to date and well appointed New Court House and our pleasure has been further enhanced by having the honor of holding the first session in the building in January, 1910. This council with others in the Province hold a unique position having served under two Kings. It is not necessary to remind you how deeply we were stirred with grief and devotion over the sudden and unexpected death of our late and lamented Sovereign Edward VII, (the Peace Maker), and now all interests are centred in the mother country where at the present time such elaborate preparations are being made for the coronation of our new King (George V) and I am sure no where in his vast domain will he have more devoted and loving subjects than the representations at this board and as well as the people you represent in this progressive, cultured, and prosperous County of Carleton in this connection, I know I voice the sentiment of every member of the board when I say that we are delighted that one of our members, Councillor Tracy, was among the selected officers from this Province to do honor to our new King at the coronation.

I wish to call attention to the new conditions of the Carleton County Hospitals. As you know by the will of the late L P Fishy he bequeathed to the Town and County his handsome and commodious residence as a hospital, it has been taken over by the directors and in the course of a short time will be occupied as such. This and previous councils have shown their interests by liberal financial assistance. The management is in the hands of a capable and painstaking Board of Trustees. The success which has been attained is largely due to the skill and high standing of the doctors in attendance and efficient matron and staff of nurses.

In conclusion I wish most heartily to thank every member of the board for the many courtesies shown and excuses made for me during the term so pleasantly yet so rapidly coming to a close.

Coun. Phillips on account of the Building Committee said they had fixed the floor of the gaol. They had not fixed the lock but had sent away for sample locks. They had procured a flag and even a flag pole and the flag was not up.

Coun. Balmain on behalf of the Finance Committee said they were empowered to borrow $5,000 if necessary; but he had not been informed nor had he ascertained that this was necessary.

Mr Hartley said that he had paid off two debentures one for the Court House and the other an old debenture, leaving the debt now a $39,000 of which $10,000 was for the gaol. All debentures pay 4 per cent.

WILLIAM DIBBLEE.

The death of William Dibblee, Police Magistrate of Woodstock, occurred on Saturday evening last, between ten and eleven o'clock. Mr Dibblee had been in poor health for some time past and had been confined to his bed for a month. He was in his 77th year.

Born at the old homestead just below town, the son of John Dibblee, a very prominent citizen of his day, and a grandson of the Rev Frederick Dibblee, first rector of this parish, one of the Loyalists, who settled here he started early in his life to learn the drug business with the late Dr Brown, and was in business for himself as a druggist from 1860 to 1877. After the fire of the latter year he sold out the business to A F Gardin who had been engaged with him as clerk. Shortly after this the act was passed establishing a police office in town and Mr Dibblee was the first Police Magistrate appointed. Since his appointment he carried on the duties of that office with ability and conscientiously, and he was recognized by the judges and the legal fraternity to possess qualities and knowledge which made him an excellent presiding justice. During his long tenure of office he had many important cases to adjudicate upon and it is generally admitted that he faithfully and impartially carried out his duties.

Being an official Mr Dibblee took no active part in political life, but on occasions on which he did address the public he showed himself to be a speaker of unusual ability and a debater of force.

For a great many years he was one of the examiners for the Wm Connelly Grammar school essay.

His political sympathies were Liberal but he took a broad view of public matters in general. He was extensively engaged in the insurance business and had the confidence of the companies he represented. A few years ago he formed a partnership with Mr Claude M Augherton under the firm name of Dibblee & Augherton. He was collector of Inland Revenue at the time of his death, having occupied that office for some years.

Mr Dibblee was always interested in outdoor sports. He was one of the founders of the old trotting park and an active member of the Woodstock Golf Club. A member of the Church of England, he had been continually on the vestry for over a score of years and was of great assistance in all matters pertaining to the welfare of the church.

His wife, who survives him, was Miss Katherine Ruel, daughter of the late John Ruel of His Majesty's Customs, Fredericton. The surviving children are two daughters, Rosa R and Helen R and one son John.

The funeral took place on Tuesday afternoon and was largely attended the remains being taken from the home to St Lukes church where the customary service for the dead was conducted by Rev David Jenkins assisted by Rural Dean Teed. Two favorite hymns of the departed Rock of Ages and Lead Kindly Light were sung. The pallbearers were Mayor Ketchum J T A Dibblee, A B Connelly and F H J Dibblee. The mourners were besides the pallbearers John Dibblee, son, Henry A Davidson Reginald and Thaddeus Dibblee Jack and George Dibblee C M Augherton R W W Frink and D W Newcombe who came from St. John to be present, and Albion R Foster.

The body was taken to the Parish church yard where the committal was said and it was placed at rest in the family lot. As a token of respect the stores of the town were closed during the hour of the funeral.

The marriage of Miss Edna Alberta Sisson eldest daughter of Arron Sisson to Mr James Woodford Ervin of Spokane, Wash., took place at the home of the bride on Tuesday evening at seven o'clock. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. G. B. MacDonaid, of the United Baptist church, in the presence of a few intimate friends and relatives. The bride looked very charming in a dress of cream net over cream silk. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses and ferns and the bridal veil was caught with orange blossoms. The bridesmaid, Miss Jennie Ebbett of Woodstock niece of the groom wore a dress of heliotrope and carried a bouquet of carnations and ferns. Miss Alma Sisson acted as maid of honor and was gowned in silk mull over heliotrope silk and carried a bouquet of sweet peas. Little Miss Margaret who carried the ring on a silver tray, was dressed in light blue silk. Mr Frank Sisson brother of the bride acted as groomsmen. The presents to the bride were costly and numerous and showed the esteem in which she was held. The wedding circle of the Baptist church gave her a handsome hammered brass lamp and the Bible class a handsome cut glass bowl. Mr and Mrs Ervine will leave on Thursday for Spokane, (Wash) where they will make their home followed by the best wishes of a large circle of friends
