A Prize Contest
open to the Farmers of Canada

$3,600 in Cash Prizes for Farmers

READ the conditions of the Prize Contest we are conducting for the farmers of Canada. $400.00 in prizes will be awarded to each Province. These prizes will be divided into four groups, consisting of:

PRIZE "A"—$100.00 to be given to the farmer in each Province who will use during 1911 the greatest number of barrels of "CANADA" Cement. PRIZE "B"—$100.00 to be given to the farmer in each Province who uses "CANADA" Cement for the greatest number of purposes. PRIZE "C"—$100.00 to be given to the farmer in each Province who furnishes us with the photograph showing the best of any kind of work done on his farm during 1911 with "CANADA" Cement. PRIZE "D"—$100.00 to be given to the farmer in each Province who submits the best and most complete description of how any particular piece of work (shown by photograph sent in) was done.

Every farmer in Canada is eligible. Therefore, do not be deterred from entering by any feeling that you would have little chance against your neighbor. For remember, Prizes "C" and "D" have no bearing whatever upon the quantity of cement used.

As a matter of fact, your success in this contest will depend to a great extent on your careful reading of our 160-page book, "What the Farmer Can Do With Concrete." In this book—sent free on request to any farmer, full instructions are given as to the uses of concrete, and plans for every kind of farm buildings and farm utility. You'll see the need of this book, whether you are going to try for a prize or not. If you have not got your copy yet, write for it to-night. Simply cut off the attached coupon—or a postcard will do—sign your name and address thereto and mail it to-night.

Please send Circular and Book.

FLORENCEVILLE

A pleasant social gathering took place at Johnson Thompson's on the evening of Wednesday, the 14th inst, in view of his proposed departure with his family for Moncton at an early date. Refreshments were served after which Rev. D Fike on behalf of friends presented Mr. Thompson with a Bible and Goodbyes. Mr. Thompson responded with warm appreciation, referred to the kindness he had met with here, his regard for the place and for the people, stated that any good work he had done he could not help doing, and enjoyed upon the friends to go on with the good work. Speeches were also given by B. Charlton, H P Gillespie, A D McCain, R Simms and M Berris. Mr Thompson has been a diligent zealous self denying Christian worker while he has been a resident here, and will be much missed. He and Mrs Thompson have also been ready at the call of trouble to respond with ready sympathy.

The special meetings closed impressively on Tuesday evening, the 13th inst. Mr. McArthur emphasized the thought of our being saved for service, and the duty of supporting heartily and faithfully cooperating with the pastor. The same idea was urged by Mr Knight who also advised the choir to hold together and aim at progress but as to members and efficiency availing themselves of the special opportunity they had for learning to read music readily. A goodly number decided during the meetings to adopt the Christian life, and new enthusiasm was a manifest accompaniment of the special effort. On Wednesday Mr. McArthur left for his home at New Castle and Mr Manuel and Mr Knight, started for Riley Brook there to hold a similar series of meetings. It rained heavily there, nevertheless 18 were at the first meeting and 41 at the second. Mr Knight returned to take Mr Manuel's services on the 18th and gave us a strong sermon on Paul's Conviction plan and hope in relation with and loyalty to Jesus Christ. The solo he sang was Building for Eternity.

His reports that five meetings have been held at Plaster Rock that a baptism of children was to be held there in the forenoon and an adult baptism in the afternoon, that the Communion was to be dispensed and about 25 were expected to unite with the church Mr Knight returns to Riley Brook today Monday.
