Chester

The Union Sabbath School held a picnic Saturday afternoon in the grove near the United Baptist Church. A most enjoyable time both to young and old, was spent.

Miss Annie McCain is sewing at Mrs H H Estabrook's.

Miss Agnes White spent two days last week visiting Mrs William Tweedie, Middle Greenfield.

Gideon Estabrook, who was ill last week with an attack of acute pharyngitis, is improving at this writing.

The roads in this section present a splendid appearance since the road work was done last week under the capable road master W E McCain.

During the heavy thunder storm of Monday, July 3rd, the lightning struck the screen door of Hugh Tweedie's kitchen. No serious harm was done the house or any of its occupants. The door was splintered to some extent. Mr Tweedie received a slight shock.

Dr F W White, Carletonville, was a caller in this place Friday professionally.

Plaster Rock

The Presbyterian Picnic which was held here last week was a great success. An excursion train well crowded with people arrived at noon from Florenceville. The Florenceville band furnished music. Dinner and supper were served in Odd-fellows Hall by the ladies. Different sports were carried on in the afternoon. The merry go round and refreshment stands did a thriving business. Altogether the grounds presented a gay holiday appearance. About $500 was raised which will be for church purposes.

Mr George Lunn who has been principal of the school here during the past year, left on Monday for his home at Carletonville. Mr Lunn's many friends hear with regret that he will not return next term.

Misses Geneva and Annie Shaw, of Woodstock, spent last week, guests of Mr and Mrs Fred Barton leaving on Saturday for a short visit with Mr and Mrs J B McNeil at Carletonville.

Much sympathy is expressed for Mr Felix Quisette at the death of his wife at the home of her brother Father Ryan. Mrs Chisette leaves, beside her husband, one child less than a year old.

Joe Marjesson, who has been ill for some months, died on Wednesday evening at his home at Three Brooks.

Miss Margaret Tennant is visiting her sister Mrs Fraser for a few weeks.

Eldon Davis, insurance agent, was in town a few days this week.

The Marston spent Sunday at Andover. Frank Barkhouse spent Saturday in Perth.

Hermann Reed spent Saturday and Sunday at Reg's Island.

Miss Bessie Phillips, teacher at Rily

Rev Mr Hamilton of Andover preached in the Presbyterian Church on Sunday evening.

On Monday evening a large number of young people held a surprise party at Mrs Post's in honor of Miss Clara Alexander. Owing to the heavy thunder storm not so many were present as were expected. During the evening games were played and music was provided by Misses Mollie Toland and Iz Smith. Clara Alexander and Nellie Green. Refreshments were served at eleven about this time. Theo Marston presented to Miss Alexander a work basket and in a neat speech told her how she had been appreciated and that she would be greatly missed by the young people in this place. Miss Alexander although taken completely by surprise thanked those present for their kind thoughts of her. Those present were Mr and Mrs Wm Post, Mr and Mrs Hayward Post, Mr and Mrs Howe, Mr and Mrs Dan Giberson, Misses Nellie Green, Hilda Gross, Inez Smith, Mollie Island, Tamzen Post, Lily Jarvis, Clara Alexander, Messes Tiley Boyd, Henry Chase, Frank Barkhouse, Geo Baxter, T Grant, Perley Giberson, Will MacFarlane, Frank McLardy, Jack Harmon, Percy Evers, Herbert Green, Fred Young, Oscar Demerchant, Donald Post and Hilton Giberson.

Miss Alexander left on Tuesday for her home at Fredericton, and will leave there on the 20th for Calgary Alta.

Perley Giberson spent Sunday with friends at Three Brooks.

Donald Fraser Jr spent a few days of this week in St John.

YOUNG'S COVE ROAD

One of the worst Electric storms in years passed over this place last night. A continual flash and roar, with rain accompanying it but so far have not heard of any damage being done by it. A goodly number of our young men are away to Sussex to drill under the command of Major H C McLean 28th Dragoons. Among these who have gone are:— Messrs Newton Fanjoy, Beverly Ferris, Fred Wasson, C H and Arnold Wiggins, C H McNeil, H Earle Wiggins, Harry Gale, Forrester Gale, Leroy Gale, Earle Smith, Cyrus Clarke, Ernest Dyer, and Elden Irons. The most of them are raw recruits and no doubt they will have a gay time.
