

THE DISPATCH.

Published by the Estate of Charles Appleby.
K. APPLEBY Business Manager

Subscription $1.00 per year in advance.
Jotted States subscribers, $1.00 in advance.
Advertising rates on application

FLORENCEVILLE

The misses Mary and Helen Chapman, of Kincardine, have been visiting their aunt, Mrs. Peter Chapman.

Miss Hazel B. McCain, who has been visiting in the west for some time, returned home on Tuesday the 12th inst.

E. M. Weller, of Portland, Me. is spending a while at his home here.

Hedley Jewett left Saturday morning to attend the exhibition at Fredericton. Quite a number of others are taking advantage of this trip.

Mr. Miller, from Manitoba, is making a tour of the Schools of the Maritime provinces, and was a caller at Florenceville consolidated on Friday.

Mr. Gariety, of Boston Mass., is visiting friends here.

C. H. Kilpatrick recently sold two pigs that weighed eleven hundred and sixty pounds.

KIRKLAND

We are having very cool weather now. Heavy frost and water froze in the tubs and ditches along the road.

Robert Jackson, from Lawrence, Mass., has arrived home.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McDougall and family, from the States, are visiting her mother, Mrs. Hannah Bell, and his relatives in this place.

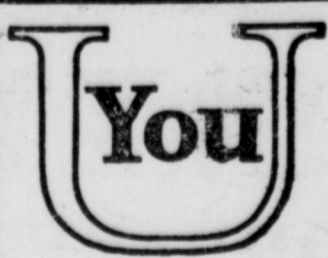

Mrs. Robert Bryden, from Westport, Maine, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Graham, of Maxwell.

There is to be a party at the home of Mrs. J. H. McNerlin on the evening of the 16th, in honor of their guest, Miss Hester Avery, of Knowlesville.

Mrs. Margaret McAllister, from Temple, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Denning, who is ill.

Charles Maguire was recently married to a young lady who came from Scotland, named Miss Annie Ross.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Crawford made a business trip to town Sept. 14th.

will like the fine flavor of Red Rose Tea. It has the cup goodness that comes only from Red Rose quality—the reason why it holds first place in thousands of Canadian homes. Will you try it.

Miss O'Hara teaches the school in Maxwell and Miss Manuel from Knowlesville, teaches the school at Golden Ridge, York Co.

F. B. Meagher, Inspector of Schools, was along here Sept. 14th.

There was a Harvest Supper held by the Anglican Church recently. About the sum of $40 was realised from the sale of articles and supper.

UPPER QUEENSBURY.

The weather has been rather cold the last few days, it reminds us of sturdy old winter that is coming near.

Miss Hazel V. Parent is spending Sunday with her parents in this place. Hagerman Bros' are busy threshing.

Messrs Harry Currie, William Manuel, Bert Hoyt, and Percy Moir George have gone to Uncle Sam's domain to the potato diggings.

Mr James King and family of Bangor have moved to this place.

Wm. B. Parent and family expect to move to Vancouver B.C. in the Spring.

Mr Parent has offered his farm and lumber land for sale.

Messrs Hanson and Corey have been threshing in this place with their new machine.

Nearly everyone is looking forward to attending the Fredericton Exhibition. Hayward Huestis has gone to take charge of the school at Charlie Lake.

We are all looking forward to Sir Wilfred's triumphant return to power on Sept. 21st.

JACKSONVILLE

Rev. W. N. and Mrs. Johnson with little Miss Enid have returned from a pleasant holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. Turney, accompanied by Master Allan spent several days in St. John recently.

Miss Estabrooks, of Chester returned home Monday after a short visit with Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Turney.

Misses Wilhelmina Hayward Alma Harper, Edna Clarke, Kate Whalem and Myrtle Sharkey have gone to Normal School in Fredericton.

Miss Helen Harper has taken a school in Grafton and is able to be home every week end.

Miss Ruth Harper has returned to her school at Northampton where she has taught several terms.

Miss Gaynell Longis gladly welcomed again as principal of the school in the village. Miss Somers, of Port Elgin, is in charge of the Primary Department and is winning many friends.

At the regular monthly meeting of W. M. S. of the Methodist church, Mrs. Wiley the President on behalf of the ladies of the Society presented Mrs. Archibald Plummer with a life membership certificate and twenty-five dollars to pay for it.

Mrs. Plummer was much overcome but replied to Mrs. Wiley's address in her usual aptway. Mrs. Plummer has been treasurer of this Auxiliary for several years and resigned this year purposing to leave for the west.

We are hoping now that the family may remain here and not deplete our neighborhood of people so respected and beloved.

Miss Helen, second daughter of Mr and Mrs Plummer is occupying a good position in St. John after graduating from business College in that city.

Miss Deborah Clarke is again teaching in the school at Upper Jacksonville. This young teacher has a splendid influence over her pupils and studies them as well as imparting knowledge to them. With such earnest teachers in all departments of our schools, the young people have a grand opportunity of improving themselves, and preparing for the future.

Bury Capt. Calder In Mt. Pleasant

The funeral service of Capt. Henry A. Calder, who died on board the schooner Montana Wednesday evening as he was returning from the Alaskan coast, was held from his late residence 2416 West Sixth street, yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. Canon Hilton of the Episcopal church, officiating. Interment was in Mount Pleasant cemetery.

Capt. Calder came from Gloucester, Mass., five years ago, where he commanded vessels for several years in the halibut fisheries. He was well and favorably known, as evidenced by the beautiful floral tributes, among which was a flag from the Masters, Mates and Pilots' Association, of which he was a member; also a beautiful mounted anchor from Capt. John Carroll and crew of the schooner Montana, who attended in a body.

Capt. Calder leaves a widow and two brothers on this coast. Rev. Dr. Calder, of Portland, Ore., and Walter H. Calder, of Vancouver, B. C. His father, mother, one brother and three sisters are living on the Atlantic coast. The Seattle Post-Intelligencer.

Miss Addie Calder, of this town is a sister of Captain Calder.

RICHMOND.

Mr. and Mrs. John Thoms, Long Settlement, spent a few days here with relatives.

Mrs. Thomas McIntyre and daughter Alice, went to Fredericton on Saturday to attend the exhibition.

A very handsome monument has been created in the Presbyterian cemetery at Richmond Corner by Mr. Hugh Montgomery in memory of his wife.

CARD OF THANKS

J. C. Milmore and family desire to thank their friends for their kindness and expressions of sympathy occasioned by the death of Murray, son and brother-is now a summer as well as a winter remedy. It has the same invigorating and strength-producing effect in summer as in winter. Try it in a little cold milk or water.

SCOTT'S EMULSION

ALL DRUGGISTS

JACKSONVILLE

The usual monetary has been broken lately by the indispensable political meeting. This week it was the turn of the Liberals, who engaged the Cheese Factory Hall for the purpose. The public turned out in force and the hall was filled. All the prominent Conservatives were returning the compliment the the liberals paid the Tory meeting ten days previously.

Mr. Harry Havens presided, and the speakers were Hon. George Upham M. P. P. Messrs. Farley and Dougon of Woodstock.

Mrs. Chipman Tilley is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Chas. Crawford of Debec, for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Turney, and Miss Turney attended the funeral of their aunt Mrs. Palmer, at Middle Simonds, on Sunday. Mrs. Palmer died early Friday Morning after a prolonged illness.

A feeling of disgust and indignation has been aroused here by the appearance of a reptile hitherto unknown in this locality, viz:—The Hooligan.

This specimen of the genus homo has made its objectionable presence evident by plugging with foul cigar stubs, a water pump used by four dwelling house and the public school.

A resident who did not suffer himself by the bit of ruffianism, offers a reward of five dollars, which will readily be added to by other residents, for any information which will lead to the conviction of the perpetrators.

The Baptist Church is under the necessity of buying a new organ. So far as can be learned they propose to make a special effort to raise the funds by Choral Festival at Thanksgiving time.

GARMENT DEPARTMENT

THE NEW COATS AND SUITS ARE HERE
Something Different, Something Better for the Money, is Our Way.

We have already sold more suits than we expected to sell for the whole season and now new suits are arriving daily.

It is our custom to have nothing but the best, the highest grade and the latest styles, and our prices are even lower than for the ordinary kind shown by other stores. A moment spent in our garment room will convince you of our statement.

Those who live at a distance and cannot inspect our beautiful selection of suits and coats, by dropping us a postal we will forward by express any number of suits or coats to select from.

We have just received from the manufacturer fifty model coats 50 to 54 inches in length. These were samples made to exhibit in their show rooms, these are fitted and semi-fitted backs and range in price from $10 to $15, our price for these samples will be

$4.98, $5.98 and $6.98

Every garment a prize for the money, other new long coats with guaranteed silk linings, Blacks, Blues and Browns, very attractive and prices low considering style and quality.

The suits have been somewhat changed since the first showing, by waiting a few weeks, we secured the very latest designs and can show you suits with extra long coats, nicely tailored, guaranteed silk linings, made of all the new materials and at prices to suit all.

A visit to this department will be appreciated whether you purchase or not.

The Modern Store of Aroostook.

The Store of Better Values.

Richards'

Market Square,

Houlton, Me.