Hartland Observer

Thinking his rifle was not loaded, Ray Thibodeau, a 15-year old lad, aimed the gun at his heart and pulled the trigger Saturday. The gun was loaded and the boy was instantly killed. With two companions of about his own age he was on a hunting expedition near Green Ridge, four miles from Fort Fairfield. The boy was the son of Ely Thibodeau, a farmer. A shocking accident occurred Saturday at Westfield whereby Mr. E. B. Briggs, forty-five years of age, lost his life. The house of a neighbor was on fire and in assisting others Mr. Briggs was knocked down by a falling chimney and sustained fatal injuries from which he died Sunday morning. He leaves a wife and three children who have the deep sympathy of the community in their sudden affliction. Funeral service was held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the late home of the deceased. He was a brother of Chas. G. Briggs of Portland, formerly of this town.

Aroostook Republican

Julius A. Laursen, of Westbrook, Me., formerly of New Denmark, had his two little fingers on his left hand pinched Monday while at his daily duty at the S. D. Warren & Co., paper mill. While working on the stack while it was running at full speed he happened to put the edge of the block on the roll instead of the full side. The block turned around and by mistake he ran his fingers in. It is expected that he will be laid up for two or three weeks. Robert Silver, a young man belonging to Lunenburg, N. S., had his right leg broken below the knee when he was felling a tree at Three Brooks last Friday afternoon while working for J. D. McLaughlan. Another workman, Perry Conn, also of Lunenburg, escaped narrowly when the tree lodged and kicked back off the stump going between the two men. Silver was pinned against another tree. A rough cot was improvised and after being treated by Dr. Coffin was sent on Monday to the Woodstock hospital.

Must Kiss Leaf of Bible

Andover, N. B. Nov. 29—Kissing the back of one's hand or the tip of one's thumb while grasping the Holy Book does not constitute taking the oath before the court. Judge Carleton, in the Victoria county court, in session here, pointed out the fallacy of lax court practice in the matter of taking the oath, and caused a juror in a civil suit to go through the form a second time. He directed the court crier to open the Bible and the juror to bend and kiss the open pages.
