

YOUR WINTER OVERCOAT

How'll You Have It?

Long or Medium in length, Loose, Snug or neither in fit, Smooth or Rough Material, Velvet Collar or collar same material as coat.

You will find here the New Models and such as are considered in good taste and perhaps it will not cost you as much as your experience has led you to expect,

Men's Overcoats, $7.00 to $20.00

THE JOHN McLAUCHLAN CO., Ltd.

WOODSTOCK and HARTLAND

Boys' and Men' Clothiers.

CARPETS

A few patterns of Regular 50c. Linoleums at 40c. and 45c. per yard.

Remnants of Wool Carpets 3 to 12 yards long at less than cost.

The A. Henderson Furniture Co., Ltd.

THE OLD STAND.

Queen St. - A. C. DAY, Manager

Insurance

Fire We represent a number of the leading British and American Fire Insurance Companies

Accident and Sickness Our Policies cover you against Loss of Time, Loss of Limb and Loss of Life.

Life Canada's Oldest, Largest and Leading Life Company: "The Canada Life 63 years old assets $39,686,000. Write for particulars or call on ASTLE & COSMAN Queen Street Woodstock, N. B.

Duke of Connaught Starts For Canada

LONDON, Oct. 6.—The Duke of Connaught, accompanied by the Dutchess, sailed on the steamer Empress of Ireland from Liverpool to-day, to assume the office of Governor General of Canada. Prince Arthur and Princess Victoria Patricia did not go with their parents, but will join them at Ottawa later.

A large party gathered at the railway station here to bid the Duke and Dutchess good-bye. A portion of the steamer has been reserved for them, and the Duke's staff, aides, secretaries and physician.

Ill luck enters by fathoms and departs by inches. Truth is God's daughter.

First English settler in India made that country his home in 1579.

MR. R. L. BORDEN NOW PREMIER

The Laurier Cabinet Resigned This Afternoon. Canada's New Rulers.

Report is That Hon. J. D. Hazen will be Appointed Minister of Public Works.

Ottawa, Oct. 6.—The Laurier Government has resigned and Mr. R. L. Borden has been invited to form a Government.

The members of the Laurier ministry sat around the council table this morning for the last time. Only Hon. Mr. Graham was missing, having gone to Toronto last night.

The ministers assembled at eleven o'clock and before one o'clock the big basket which holds embryo orders-in-council and which has been filled and filled again for days, was finally emptied and there were no more recommendations with which to fill it.

The Laurier Government had finished its work.

Sir Wilfrid declared the meeting ended and shook hands with his colleagues, five of whom, Sir Richard Cartwright, Sir Frederich Borden, Hon. Sydney Fisher, Hon. William Fielding and Hon. William Paterson, sat with him at the first meeting of his Government fifteen years ago.

There was no note of sorrow in the separation. On the contrary the ministers were as merry as school boys on the eve of vacation. They joked with one another and hoped to meet again soon. They promised themselves a rest and to the newspaper men who were waiting outside the council chamber, they said it was all over and they were glad of it.

It was an entirely happy death bed scene. Sir Wilfrid Laurier went to his office and called in the staff of the Privy Council. He personally thanked the group of officials, who are immediately under him for their faithful services. He said good-by and urged them to serve his successor as faithfully as they had his Government.

There were tears in the eyes of more than one of the clerks as they shook hands with him.

Sir Wilfrid at three o'clock this afternoon drove to Rideau Hall in an open carriage with a smile on his face and his head held high. He tendered his resignation to Earl Grey, who, in accepting it, expressed his personal sympathy for Sir Wilfrid. The visit was very brief and cordial and Sir Wilfrid, still smiling, left Rideau Hall as leader of His Majesty's loyal opposition and drove to his home on Laurier Avenue, where he celebrated his release from responsibility.

Soon after Sir Wilfrid left Rideau Hall a messenger was despatched to Mr. R. L. Borden's residence on Wurttemberg street. He carried a summons from Earl Grey for the opposition leader to go to Government house. It was the document which the Conservatives for fifteen years have been fighting to receive.

Mr. Borden drove down looking far more serious than the previous visitor and accepted the invitation to form a Government.

It is expected that he will lay his cabinet before Earl Grey to-morrow or Monday.

It is understood the fourteen ministers have been selected but the portfolios have not yet been all arranged.

The general belief is that there will be four from the West, five from Ontario, four from Quebec, and two with a Solicitor General from the Maritime Provinces. The expectation is that Mr. A. S. Goodeve of British Columbia; Senator Loughheed of Alberta; Hon. Robert Rogers with a Saskatchewan seat; Dr. Roche of Manitoba, will come in from the West. Mr. Borden will represent Nova Scotia; Premier Hazen, New Brunswick, and probably Mr. A. A. McLean will come as Solicitor General to represent Prince Edward Island. For Quebec there will be Judge Doherty, Mr. H. B. Ames, Mr. F. D. Monk and Mr. T. Chase Casgrain.

For Ontario the slate is: Messrs. Andrew Broder, W. T. White, Hon. George E. Foster and Hon. Frank Cochrane and another. Whether it will be Colonel Sam Hughes, Major John Currie, Mr. Thomas Crothers, Mr. A. E. Kemp or a dark horse, no one seems certain.

Mr. Borden had Messrs. Cochrane, Doherty, Foster and some others in this morning for a conference over portfolios. The general report current here is that Hon. J. D. Hazen will be given Hon. Mr. Pugsley's old portfolio, Minister of Public Works.

John Wiley

On Tuesday, September 26th the funeral of John Wiley son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Wiley, took place at his home, 3rd tier.

The service was conducted by Rev. Geo. Ayers assisted by Rev. W. H. Johnson. The remains were interred in the Episcopal grave yard.

The deceased was a great sufferer having been afflicted with consumption for some years. He passed peacefully away in the early hours of Saturday morning.

Despite his affliction he was bright and cheerful held in high respect in the neighborhood.

Milner-Smith

Henry E. Smith of Jacksonville, late of England, and Louise Caroline Milner of St. Mary's York Co. late of England, were married at the Baptist Parsonage on Saturday Sep. 30th at 8 p. m.

A company of friends of the bridegroom gathered to witness the ceremony, and Miss Bessie Watson rendered the wedding March as the bridal pair entered the room.

The bride, who was unattended was dressed in white. More friends and neighbors gathered outside and offered their congratulations.

Immediately after the ceremony the bride, groom and assembled guests, proceeded to the residence of Mr. John Hopkins, where other friends had gathered and refreshments were served.

Mr. Smith and his wife came out from England as boy and girl 13 years ago. They made each other's acquaintance on the boat, parted on landing, never to meet again until the last summer when they renewed their friendship in Fredericton which consummated it in marriage on Saturday last.

Stevenson-Dionne

The home of Mr. and Mrs. George Dionne was the scene of a very pretty wedding at 2 o'clock Wednesday when their eldest daughter, Ethel, was united in marriage to Alexander G. Stevenson. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Gordon Pringle, M. A., in the parlor of the home.

The bride was given away by her father, and wore a travelling suit of blue cloth with hat to match. The bridesmaid was Miss Olive Dionne, sister of the bride.

The groom was supported by Delbert H. Haynes, cousin of the bride.

Both the bride and groom are well known. Miss Dionne has had charge of the dining room at the hotel while "Aleck" as he is familiarly known by a host of travelling salesmen and friends has been clerk at the hotel for nine years.

The happy couple left on the afternoon express going south for an extended trip.

Fire At Eastport

Eastport, Me., Oct. 6.—Forty thousand loss resulted from a fire which destroyed the plant of the Eastport Sardine Company tonight. The building and fixtures were valued at $30,000 and there was $10,000 worth of canned sardines ready for shipment stored in the building. Nearly a hundred hands are thrown out of employment by the burning of the factory.

Rheumatism Cured by Fig Pills

Not often do you hear of a 25c preparation being sold with a guarantee to cure you. An absolute guarantee goes with every box of FIG PILLS. They will cure Rheumatish, Backache, Bladder Trouble, Frequent Urinating, Burning Sensation, Painful Stitches, Sluggish Liver and all Stomach Trouble. If not, your money back.

Concert at Hartland

On Tuesday evening last, the Concert under the auspices of the congregation of the Church of England in support of the fund for the building of the church, was held in the Forrester's Hall. There was a large attendance. The concert was much enjoyed by those present by the way the different numbers were received. The singers were in fine voice, and the readings were delivered in splendid style.

Those who took part were: Sopranos: Mrs. W. D. Rankin, Mrs. W. A. Good. Contraltos: Mrs. Loggie Ross, Miss Seeley.

Tenors: Mr. Allan, Mr. F. L. Mooers, Base: Mr. Burnham, Rev. D. Jenkins.

Elocutionist: Mrs. Norman Loane. Reader: Mr. M. L. Hayward.

Accompanist: Mr. Howard, who accompanied in his usual efficient manner. The following is the programme:

FIRST PART.
1. Double Quartette, "The Bridal Chorus." Mrs. W. D. Rankin, Miss Seely, Mrs. W. A. Good, Mrs. Loggie Ross. Messrs. Allan, F. L. Mooers, Burnham, David Jenkins.

2. Reading, "What William Henry Did." Mrs. Loane. (Encored.)

3. Song, "My Laddie Far Away." Mrs. Rankin. (Encore song, "Comin' Thro' the Rye.")

4. Song, "Old Fashioned Cottage." Rev. D. Jenkins. (Encore song "Face to Face.")

5. Song, "Jerusalem" Mr. Mooers. (Encore song "Kitty of Colraine.")

SECOND PART.

1. Song, "Hush my Babe." "Bonnie Mary of Argyll." Mrs. Good. (Encore song "There is a Land.")

2. Duet, "Lead Kindly Light." Mrs. Rankin and Rev. David Jenkins.

3. Reading, "Woman's Suffrage." Mr. Hayward. (Encored.)

4. Song, "Trumpeter." Rev. D. Jenkins.

5. Quartette, "Cousin Jedediah." Mrs. Good, Mrs. Ross, Messrs. Mooers and Jenkins.

Finale, "God Save the King."

Arthur L. Courser

Word has been received of the death at Greeley, Colorado, of Arthur L. Courser formerly of Fredericton. Deceased who was aged 35 years, was born in Woodstock and afterwards resided in Fredericton with his aunt, Mrs. Charles N. Clark. He afterwards went to New York and when his health failed, him he removed to Colorado, where some time ago he was badly injured in a fall from a horse. He was a son of Mr. D. C. Courser and is survived by his father, and two sisters, Mrs. George Mosher, of Scranton, Pa., and Mrs. Trueman, of Brooklyn, N. Y.

When removing a cake from an oven when it has been baked place the tin on a damp towel for a moment and the cake will come readily out.

BORN

CONNELL.—On Friday Sept. 29th to Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Connell, a daughter.

MARRIED

SIMMS GLASS.—At the residence of the bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. John Glass of Windsor on Wednesday Sept. 27th by the Rev. Dr. McDonald, of Fredericton, Miss Annie Laura Glass and Mr. Robert Leslie Simms of Knowlesville, N. B.

Boyer-Beyea.—At French Village, Kings Co., on Wednesday Sept. 27th by the Rev. Mr. McLuckie of Hampton, Miss. Adda Lois daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Beyea to Mr. Cook H. Boyer, of Florenceville.

DIED

DRISCOLL.—On Tuesday morning Oct. 10th Mrs. Thomas Driscoll aged 26 years.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Blackmore, of Plymouth, have moved to Woodstock and have taken the Woodford house on Chapel Street for the winter.

Miss Myrtle Waite, of Andover spent last week in town, the guest of Mrs. H. R. McLardy.

Mrs. John Wiley and daughter, of Houlton, is visiting her sister Mrs. H. R. McLardy.

Thane W. Jones, Judge of Probate, has removed his Law Office to rooms in the Payson Building, Corner Main and Connell Streets, up stairs Room 4.

For the Land's Sake use Pure Seed.

York Timothy, Kent Timothy, 111 Long Late Clover.